On behalf of the Communist Party of Chile, in the process of reconstitution since 2009, we salute the convenors and participants of this conference in Italy to be held under the slogan, 'For a bold advance of the communists in the world!'

CONSIDERING:

That the Chilean revolution, the national democratic revolution, is part of and serves the world proletarian revolution;

That our central task today is to Raise Recabarren [Marxist Leninist founder of the party in 1922] developing the reconstitution of the Communist Party of Chile, reconstitution to initiate and develop the people's war, being principal to initiate to develop;

That the reconstitution of the Communist Party is not an administrative problem, but mainly ideological - political and simultaneously organizational; that therefore, raising Recabarren and developing him under the guidance of Marxism, Leninism, Maoism, is the political centre or content of reconstitution and, consequently, reconstituting on the political plane means completing the general political line of the Chilean revolution.

That at the level of mass work, the centre of the reconstitution is "striving to lead everything" in the class struggle of the masses and in the two-line struggle;

That at the organizational level, the centre of the reconstitution is in the construction of party apparatus and organizations around the Party; that therefore, the organizational construction requires our participation in the actions of the masses and in the preparation of own actions as a necessary complement to those; taking into account that own actions generate apparatus and drive politics towards a new leap to higher actions. Therefore, those who oppose it, oppose the reconstitution of the Communist Party of Chile and this principle is so strong that it has purified our ranks.

That it is necessary to specify more the approaches, developing them.

WE DECLARE:

The Chilean exploiting classes through their old state must solve three fundamental problems:

1. Facing the current economic crisis by deepening bureaucratic capitalism and the overexploitation of the popular masses.
2. Prepare a new restructuring of the State, with the promulgation of a new constitution, in the midst of a struggle expressed in mutual denunciations of corruption.
3. Prevent the start of a people's war, refining their repressive organizations in conjunction with apparatuses of mainly North American imperialism.

These three planes (economic, political, class struggle) are interrelated. To deepen bureaucratic capitalism they need to control the class struggle and to control the class struggle and the struggle between them they need to restructure the old state, their main problem being solving their struggles. The current government characterized by us as demoliberal with growing fascist features, and led by Bachelet, agent of imperialism, is using two types of measures, on the one hand the intensified and bloody repression on the multiple mass mobilizations that march and paralyze for their just demands, and on the other hand the manipulation and corporatization of the masses through revisionism with whom they have entered into a public alliance.

The old Khrushchev revisionism of the false PC of the Teiller and Co. it is moving towards denying Marxism Leninism. These revisionists today as yesterday are part of the government and of the old bourgeois landowning state, called up to control the struggles of the proletarian and popular movement, appearing as their 'saviors', as their 'leaders'. Behind this revisionist putrefaction, the rest of the so-called 'Chilean left' (mir, fpmr, mpmr, electoral anarchists and other smelly unspeakable swamps) with the same eagerness to occupy positions in the old state or obtain perks, favours or bids and state financing. On the side of the road, the new revisionism is located, the former URC, group of shameful 'Maoists' who are only spectators of what is happening within the masses, dedicating themselves only to speaking about ideology, riding on the struggle for land in Ranquilco to mention it as the spearhead of the revolution, thereby demonstrating complete ignorance about fighting on the field. On the other hand, their disastrous positions around the people's war in Peru demonstrate convergences with the LOD when they state that there is no longer command, and that therefore they are only armed skirmishes without leadership, which only serves the reaction in their plan to PCP isolation.

In short, the exploiting classes, with their old state and their lackeys, prepare and develop the counter-revolution in their own way, we true communists prepare and develop the revolution in our own way.

The actions and the fight of two lines during the last five years, indicate that the reconstitution of the Communist Party of Chile started in 2009, is at the moment of completion of its first stage. The material provided has been sufficient to argue the need to elaborate the 'Reconstitution Scheme' in its three stages. Three stages because every contradiction in its process has them: beginning, development and final outcome. Chronologically the three stages of reconstitution are:

1. First stage. Raise Recabarren, initiating reconstitution.
2. Second stage. Develop Recabarren by deepening reconstitution.
3. Third stage. Sanction the General Policy Line, the program and statutes, culminating the reconstitution.

From the point of view of the planes, it is proposed to see the three stages in each plane:

1. Ideological-Political Plane. Raise Recabarren, develop it and sanction LPG, program and statutes.
2. Organizational Plan. Start reconstitution, deepen it and complete it.

The three stages are summarized as follows:

1. Hoist and start;
2. Develop and deepen;
3. Punish and end.

“The Peruvian experience shows a reconstitution in three stages through which it is first proposed to retake Mariategui and develop it, then the general political line of Mariategui is sanctioned and finally the LPG of the Peruvian revolution is sanctioned at a time when reconstitution completed, with specific preparations for the start. In the Carp-Chile of the years 2001-2003 (and not the spurious carp with which the lod once appeared in Santiago de Chile), the debate on reconstitution was raised, some proposed joining the ranks of the revisionist party and organizing there the red fraction. Others argue that this was not correct, because said party was a bourgeois party, a completely revisionist, and corporatized organization. Secondly, reconstitution is a mainly ideological and political problem, and simultaneously an organizational one. The position of not entering was imposed, but a new debate was presented in it, who on the one hand did not want to start the reconstitution because they did not have the theoretical training, and those of us who propose initiating the reconstitution based on certain principles and Marxist Leninist Maoist agreements. The contribution of Chairman Gonzalo was essential in this debate, the former were organized in what was the URC, a kind of union of communist revolutionaries, communists without a communist party (?) And the latter continued in what was the Organization Committee and Communist Propaganda - COPC, forerunner of our current situation ”.

Today the first stage, which is to fly Recabarren and start reconstitution, is being carried out from 2009 to the present year. This first stage is divided in turn into three parts: the first stage of initiation, the second stage of development of the beginning and the third stage of completion of the beginning. We are in the latter, which will culminate with the approval of the Political Line for Reconstitution, in the midst of the fight against right-wing and specifically revisionist ideas, which exist and must provoke public debate.

Advance boldly towards the culmination of the first stage of the reconstitution of the Communist Party of Chile!

Long live Marxism, Leninism, Maoism!
