

RESTAURANT GUIDE

Wayne State Area

Union Street. On Woodward betw Willis and Alexandrine. Quiche-eater type food. Not open Sun. I

Gregory's. Woodward at Canfield. Same food. Not open for lunch Sun. I

Cafe Detroit. Palmer near 2nd. Not open Sun. Unknown reviewer says, "A cut above campus eateries. First rate and very large salads top a complete menu. Music, an outdoor deck." I

The Gnome. Woodward near Alexandrine. Middle Eastern food. I

All of the above are closed Monday. If you didn't sign up for lunch, it looks like you'll have to hit:

Burger Chef. Woodward between Warren and Putnam. I

Greektown

On Saturday night there are likely to be lines. New Hellas, Old Parthenon, Laikon, International, all on Monroe St. Ask any Detroiter for directions. Probably slightly more expensive than Wayne area.

Southwest Side (where the parties are)

Xochimilco. 3409 Bagley. Mexican, good. Ken says, "No waiting." Ask a Teamster how to get there. Eight bucks tops.

Mexican Village. 600 Bagley. Ditto.

Two places with names unknown: Vietnamese. Small and simple. Ask Ken.
Hungarian. Gypsy music. Ask Ken.

East Side

Koreana. 14537 Gratiot, near Seven Mile. The other side of town from the parties but what the hell, there's an oil glut. Not crowded, BYOB. Very friendly. Under $8.

Windsor (Canadian dollars are worth 80¢ U.S. Bridge toll is $1 of either.)

Old Fish Market. 156 Chatham St W. Noisy and crowded, but lots of seafood variety. $10-15 all told. Ask Dave Y or Marilyn P for directions. Chinese food: There are several. Ask Neil C. or Dave Y.

I = inexpensive--main course, salad, wine, and tip for under $8 in 1980.
