
Communist Party's Soviet Celebration Plans are Cancelled: Committee in Charge Calls Off Meeting Following Hylan's Criticism.

Published in the New York Call, v. 12, no. 313 (Nov. 8, 1919), pg. 1.

The meeting called by the Communist Party to celebrate the 2nd anniversary of the birth of the Russian Soviet republic to be held in Rutgers Square today at 2 pm was cancelled yesterday by the committee in charge of arrangements.

The cancellation came shortly after a letter from Mayor Hylan to Police Commissioner Enright, denouncing the members of the party and calling upon the police to curb their activities, had been made public.
