LAINED DEMOCRAT CANDIDATE SCABBED ON TELEGRAPHERS

Edward F. Schroeder, Candidate for Alderman of Thirteenth Ward Acted as Strikebreaker All Through Strike of 1907.

Just how much the Democrat party thinks of labor is shown by the fact that it places a man on its ticket as candidate for Alderman of the Thirteenth Ward who is known to have acted as a strikebreaker all through the strike of the Telegraphers in 1907.

$367 A YEAR BIG WAGES ACCORDING TO FUHRMANN

In his opening speech of the campaign, Mayor Fuhrmann said that Buffalo had grown to be a great city during his administration. Many new industries had located in the city and the people were prosperous, and to prove that the workers of this city were enjoying all the good things of life, the mayor, with a grand waving of arms declared that last year $25,000,000 in wages was paid to the 65,000 workers of this city.

Such is the method of capitalist politicians, "Friends of labor!"

The Buffalo Courier of recent date contained a cut and a laudatory sketch of Edward F. Schroeder, Democratic candidate for Alderman of the Thirteenth Ward. The sketch was headed: "SPLENDID CHANCE OF BEING ELECTED."

According to this campaign article, Mr. Schroeder is "a fine type of a self-made man having worked his way up from a messenger-boy to the position of chief clerk in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company."

A $250,000,000 UNION

There has just been incorporated in England the United Kingdom Employers' Defense Union. It aims to raise a guarantee fund of $250,000,000. The larger part has already been subscribed. The resources of the union are to be used to hire strike-breakers and thugs to protect men willing to work and to protect employers. Special attention is to be given to the companies that employ the most men.

SOCIALISTS HAVE BROADWAY AUDITORIUM ON ELECTION NIGHT

Last year about five thousand people gathered at the Broadway Auditorium election evening to hear the returns. There was dancing and moving pictures as well as refreshments. Because of the success of last year the Campaign Committee has again rented the Auditorium for election night.

ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCE TO BE HELD BY FINNISH BRANCH

Saturday evening, October 25th, will be a big night in the Cold Spring District. An entertainment and dance under the auspices of the Finnish Branch of Local Buffalo will be held on that evening at Liberty Hall, corner London Street and Wolbers Avenue.

GEORGE R. KIRKPATRICK AND JAMES H. MAURER COMING TO BUFFALO

Noted Lecturer and Author of New York, and President of State Federation of Labor of Pennsylvania Will Speak at Auditorium.

The Socialist campaign will come to a grand climax with a demonstration at the Broadway Auditorium Saturday evening, November first.

Much interest is being manifested among union men in the visit of James H. Maurer. For many years he has been active in social labor circles. In 1912 he was elected president of the state federation and this year he was re-elected to the same office.

LEWIS J. DUNCAN Socialist Mayor of Butte, Mont., who will speak in Buffalo on Friday

THE UNDER LORD ON THE STUMP

John Lord O'Brian opened his campaign last Wednesday. He had the usual show, however, was well advertised. It had plenty of reading space in the kept press. There was the usual bit of lauding of vice-presidents. It was the same old gag, and as long as a general's leg. It seemed to contain the names of all the skinned and fencers. There were bank sharks, land sharks, office sharks, stock sharks and shop sharks galore. Worst of all they were reform sharks.

BISHOP SPALDING GETTING A GLIMMER

A sort of a social-service commission of the Episcopalians had a sobbing episode in New York last week one day. From the great west came a bishop who showed by his utterances that the trend of thought is in our empire of the setting sun.

CRIMES AND CRIMES

A special grand jury in New York City not long ago investigated what was called the crime wave. This grand jury reported that less than ten per cent of the reported crimes were ever whipped with punishment.

UNION PAINTERS

The Painters' Union has succeeded in placing a union miniaturist in the E. A. Meldrum store with a signed agreement with the firm to hire all union men.

MAYOR OF BUTTE WILL TELL OF SUCCESSFUL SOCIALIST ADMINISTRATION

Capitalist Politicians Combined to Defeat Mayor Duncan Who Will Speak in Buffalo on the 24th - He Has a Message for Working People of this City.

One of the favorite contentions of the capitalist press is that wherever the Socialist Party has held political office, the people soon became disgusted with the Socialists and were willing in the future to leave city government in the hands of the old parties.

The Mayor of Butte, Lewis J. Duncan was elected Mayor of Butte Montana in 1911, in a hotly contested fight. His administration was a very successful one. So much so that when his term expired last spring the old party politicians realized that in order to defeat him they would have to combine their forces, and they all united under the banner of a Citizens Party.

REFORM IS CHLOROFORM SO SAYS FELDMAN

It was an appreciative audience that greeted Sol. Feldman, the noted New York orator and lecturer, who delivered an exceptionally good lecture on "Evolution—Revolution—Reform," last Sunday afternoon in Socialist Hall, corner Genesee and Spring streets.

AGGRESSIVE IN MARTINS FERRY

Down in Martins Ferry, where the Socialists had control of the town, the combined old parties are so afraid to raise their heads against the Socialists, led by New York, the printer Mayor, have taken the aggressive and show that upon assuming office the first thing they did was to reduce the hours of labor of the city laborers from nine to eight and increased the wages from $1.65 to $2.

TWO QUESTIONS

We see a bunch of workmen wearing "I am a citizen" buttons. Does that mean that they have taken out their naturalization papers? We have a population of 450,000, of whom over 400,000 are working people. We have several candidates from S. SOCIALIST. IS the business and professional class, but only one from the working class. Why is this and why won't workmen support one of their own class?

THIS CASH FAILS TO LURE MR. BRYAN

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan has turned down a chance to get paid for a talk at regular Chautauquums. He gave as his reason the pressure of other business.

Patronize our advertisers, and tell others to do likewise.

DARKNESS ON HIGH

His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, has taken another tilt at Socialism. The flag on his spear carries the legend "Freedom—the Law of Christ."

"This natural discontent is fomented, and intensified by the noisy agitators of Socialism, the enemies of God and man, who would overturn the foundations upon which human society is built and exile God from His universe."

"After finishing the Socialists off in this way, giving them the kibosh as it were, his Eminence turns his attention toward the condition of the 'rights of workmen.'"

"Finally, the worker in the last resort has the right to refuse to work, that is to strike, and to induce by peaceful methods others to strike with him when severe measures become necessary to mitigate unendurable conditions or to wrest from an unreasonable employer just compensation for his labor after all other measures have failed."

"All this has its root in the law of nature, which dictates that a man has a natural right to a wage which will maintain his home in frugal and reasonable comfort."

"In other words, the Cardinal says that the wage system must continue. He says that the worker must continue to struggle over the question: 'What is a home in frugal and reasonable comfort?'"

"A dog's kennel may be a comfortable place for a dog, or a pig's sty for a pig; a corrugated shack or a thatch roof, a mud floor or a stinking toilet may be a sufficient foundation for a home for the worker according to the 'reasonable' dictates of those who put Mr. O'Connell under a real hat and keep him there."

"Freedom—the Law of Christ" is the crack of the slave driver's whip, as he frights the dawn with his scream: "Back to your tasks ye low-born slaves; your kennels will await you again tonight!"

SCHIEDMANN MEETING AND ROSE WEPT

By Max Sheffer.

"I do not want to appeal to your enthusiasm tonight, I want to appeal to your cold deliberate reason and judgment," was the opening sentence of Philipp Scheidemann's address to an audience of more than two thousand persons, who packed Columbia Turn Hall last Sunday night. The steady rain that was coming down all afternoon and evening could not keep this eager multitude away.
Long before the opening of the meeting even standing room was at a premium. The enthusiasm of the audience was in line with the general spirit demonstrated by the rebellious working class in this campaign.
When Martin Heiser, the chairman of the evening, introduced the Socialist candidate for Mayor, Stephen J. Mahoney, he was greeted by an ovation such as no other candidate for Mayor was ever accorded in this city. The Arbeiter Manoevrer was at its best and tendered an excellent musical programme.

When the speaker, who is a leading Socialist member of the German Reichstag and who held the office of vice-president of that body, took for his topic, "Facts of the Working Class in its Struggle for Emancipation."
He launched into his subject by giving a brief outline of the class struggle in society. He compared our social structure to a shepherd boy of 12 years of age, who with the aid of a stick and a dog, could drive a flock of thousands of sheep. The shepherd boy is the capitalist class, he said, and he drives the shepherd who outnumber him a thousand fold by the aid of the uniformed god of society with the stick called capitalist law. And this is the reason the sheep are fleeced because they are not conscious of their strength.
He then clearly pointed out that if the workers are ever to win their emancipation they must obtain control of the political dog and stick.

"In Germany today," he said, "every third man is a Socialist. Our propaganda agents is today a hundred times more powerful than it was ten years ago. We will continue our agitation and education of the masses until every second man in a Socialist land. It is a question of only a few years more when this will be a fact. When we get to that point we will be in a position to put across the only and the most direct method of overthrowing the Social Revolution. And who will be there to say 'No!'"
"Slavery can last only till the day when the slaves count their numbers," he said. "When then the wage workers of the world begin to count their numbers there will be an end to wage slavery."

BRANCH THREE DOINGS

On June 22, 1913, we held our picnic at Williamsville, which was well attended. From the proceeds we have been enabled to carry on our air meetings all summer. Beginning in early June we have held from one to four meetings weekly, paid over $100.00 for speakers, sold over $500.00 worth of literature, distributed about 18,000 hand bills, $99,000 copies of the People and much other literature.
We have spent over $50.00 for free distribution. Our membership this summer has increased 50 per cent. Most of whom are in good standing. We have taken many subscriptions for the Buffalo Socialist Party. Builder and other Socialist papers. We have owned the news from which we shall eventually reap the harvest.

We held a card party and dance which was a splendid success both socially and financially, and intend to hold one each month during the winter season, which, we hope, will be attended and enjoyed as much as our last one. After election we will hold a series of educational lectures in our hall Sunday afternoons.
These activities do not include the work done in the 13th Ward, which is in charge of the La Salle Branch, which is also doing good work.

To achieve these results a great deal of hard work has been done, and we realize that without the constant active and untiring efforts of a great many comrades, nothing could have been accomplished. These comrades have attended practically every meeting, been ever ready to distribute literature, make collections, etc. The officers of the Branch—who are its servants—take this opportunity of thanking all these loyal comrades for their support and co-operation, and to invite all the members of the Branch to attend our business, propaganda and educational meetings, which are held every Sunday at 3 p. m. at LaTouraine Hall, E. Union and Yerplack streets, and to bring your friends.
The Branch also extends its thanks to the Finnish Branch for the generous aid assistance they have given us, and in return, request all the members of Branch Three and their friends to attend the entertainment and dance given by the Finnish Branch at their Hall, Linden Street and Walden Ave. on Saturday evening, October 25, for the benefit of the Buffalo Socialist.

They were intelligent. Flattery always catches them. Then John talked a lot of temperamental poppycock. He made a lot of love charges against the police authorities, just as if the police, under the reform crowd, would or could be any different than they are now: John's attack on the police had a subtle purpose. Subtlety is John's long suit. John studied subtly as a special subject at college. John is a North of Ireland man, but only by lineage and tradition and for political purposes. He knows that everybody who knows anything knows that John turns everything to account. John hates that which our Police Superintendent prizes. He hates it with the hatred of a bigot. But John is afraid to come out in the open and hit it, so John makes a savage attack on Monsignor Regan. He hopes and believes that the more satire he would turn out in trying to reach will see through and divine a real object of attack. He hopes to win their secret chuckle of approbation for his long headliness.

From the same trip John figures that the more satire he would turn out from him if they knew what he meant, will not catch on, and therefore their votes will be caught by some other chap.
Rose had worked in that factory about five years. She was well liked by all, envied by a few and hated by none.
"This was an eventful day for me. She entered industrial life at a tender age. She left her old mother in Russia and together with her older sister emigrated to America. She was not thirteen when she started to work. She began in an East Side sweatshop and gradually went from job to job the modern factory where the last five years were spent.
From the day she started to work till this eventful day she knew nothing else but toil, and at times, inability to toil, which was usually accompanied by want.
Except for the time spent in strikes in which she was the active figure, she worked and toiled. And when she was out of work, she was working so much of her time to find work that she could not rest.
It was during the strike that she was engaged in, that she met him. And from that day on her life was brightened by an occasional hope that some day she would realize the monetary and drudgery of factory work behind.
The thought of that made her happy. But now came the realization of that. Her desire for rest. And the realization had less foundation for her than the anticipation.
The whistle with its devilish shriek announced the hour of twelve. The girls came in from their places looking as if whispering here and there a group approached Rose and presented her with a huge bouquet of flowers. And this was followed by a shower of wishes, handshakes and kisses.
Rose got up from her seat, went to the dressing room and put on her street clothes. The foreladies surrounded by the girls followed her with their eyes.
After Rose had returned the good wishes and took leave she went to the door. There on the threshold she stopped and turned her head. A middle aged woman with a sprinkling of gray hair on her head walked over to her and she embraced Rose, mingled with a sigh she uttered the words, "I don't know what is pressing your heart at this moment, but I presume it is a similar scene returns to my mind. I was the principal actor in just such a scene not very many years ago. And—I wish you that you may never have to return to work." And the woman sobbed, reached for her apron and wiped the tears that were fast streaming down her cheeks. Tears appeared in Rose's eyes as she clasped the woman's hand and wept.

MRS. ANNA SHEROVER

Whose untiring energy at street meetings has placed Socialist literature in the hands of many trap. In plain words, John is carrying water for Mike Regan. He does not care a rap for Mike Regan. He goes or rather.

He is only hitting at Mike Regan to get a name to some that he is hitting at the thing behind Mike's, Regan that is, John Lord O'Brian's trick for catching votes.
If John Lord O'Brian and his reform crowd got into power, the police system and its style of management would not be any different than it is now or than it has been within the memory of man. Mike Regan is a product of conditions. So are we all. It is senseless and demagogic to find fault with the product, or to berate the creature, so long as nothing is offered to change the conditions or circumstances that bring forth such a product or create such creatures.
We must have a change in the plan and purpose of society. This, of course, is all Greek to John Lord O'Brian. They are not weak at Harvard when he was a student there. John finished his education at Harvard.

PROLETARIAN CLUB OPENS NEW QUARTERS

Fully 700 people attended the opening of the Proletarian Club at the new quarters of the Club, 49 Cottage Street last Saturday. The building was aglow with light and life from 8 o'clock in the evening until the wee sma' hours.
About 75 applications were received on Saturday evening, bringing the total close to 300. The Club hopes to have 500 members by the first of November, and 1,000 by January first. For the present the specialty low rate will be held open for applications. This rate is $2 for men and $1 for women.
Entries are now being received for the following events for members only: Men's pool tournament, mixed pool tournament, in which both men and women participate, euchre tournament, and polo tournament. Entry blanks can be obtained from the Club office.
Those who desire to participate in any of these events are urged to fill out an entry blank at the Club at the earliest opportunity, since the games will begin in a few days.
Among the good things at Saturday night's opening were the operatic selections of Mrs. Anna Staley of North Tonawanda, rag-time songs by Messrs. McNamee and Clark of the Kaiserhof cabaret, demonstrations, applied psychology or hypnotism by Gerald M. P. Fitzgibbon of New York, etc.
A considerable number of club members have saved more than the cost of their membership by purchasing clothing through the club. An arrangement has been made by the Co-Operative Department of the Club by the terms of which all those who purchase clothing at this time receive a 10 per cent discount on the purchase. The receipt is one of the best features of the Club.

SOCIALIST MEETING AT CLARENCE CENTER

Minister Attempts to Break Up Meeting, But Audience Enjoys Sherover's Lecture.

Max Sherover, the young New York
speaker who has met with unusual success in Western New York and who is now holding highly enthusiastic meetings in Buffalo, made his first debut to an audience composed of farmers last week.

In response to numerous requests referred to by Local Buffalo, from individual comrades in different parts of Erie County, organizer Joseph Polen sent Sherover to Clarence Center last week to hold a meeting. The meeting had been advertised only three days ahead.

Sherover anticipated an audience of twenty-five persons at most, but what was his surprise when long before the scheduled hour, the farmers for miles around came in on wagons, automobiles, buggies, carriages, and even motor cycles. The hall which is the attic of a big barn was filled to capacity by over 150 persons.

Although he never spoke on Socialism to farmers before, he succeeded in presents the Socialist position to that audience in a manner that was understood as well as appreciated. Sherover clearly demonstrated how the farmer is being ground under capitalism in every phase of his life.

A surprisingly large collection was taken up and a nice quantity of books was sold by Mrs. Sherover.

The great impression that the speaker made was demonstrated when at the conclusion of his talk Sherover invited questions. A Lutheran minister who was in the hall and of whose church the audience were members, rose and instead of asking a question denounced Sherover in the name of God to leave the hall. Not a person stirred from his place and the minister was the only one to obey this injunction.

The farmers were so well pleased with Sherover's talk that they urged him to come back again and some expressed a desire to be organized into a local.

THE VAMPIRE II.

By Bert Leach
(Apologies to Kipling).

A fool there was and he cast his vote
(Even as you and I)
For ragged pants and a tattered coat,
And some grub on which he didn't dot.
He voted for you, he voted for me,
(Even as you and I)

Oh, the work we do for the favored few,
And the wretched wretches we get.
We crack the nuts and they take the meat,
They hand us what and they take the cheese,
And to make our bondage more complete,
We vote for this system yet.

A fool there was and he gods had none,
(Even as you and I)
He worked like 'ell from sun to sun,
He got no cash so he worked for fun,
And he voted just as his dad had done,
(Even as you and I)

Oh, he worked like fun from sun to sun,
And he plotted and schemed and planned,
But he just could not make both end
meet,
If his head kept warm then he froze his feet,
And his kids hadn't half enough to eat,
But he couldn't understand.

The fool was striped to his foolish hide,
(Even as you and I)
They couldn't use that fool though they have tried,
For the poor old fool was kicked aside,
And his legs lived on though his head
had died,
(Even as you and I)

It isn't the shame and it isn't the blame
That stings like a white hot brand,
It's the unshed foolishness of a jay,
Who'll work ten hours for two hours
pay,
And vote for the thing on election day,
And will not understand.

—Progressive Woman.

A WORD ABOUT DUNCAN

The Socialist administration of Butte, Mont., has issued a compiled statement showing that this year $800,000 worth of literature is being done, and is contracted for. Six schools are being built in the working class districts, where before people traveled in the mud, and sewerage provided for the working class sections. This work is all being done under the direction of the Socialist City Engineer and by home labor. Three years ago Butte was a bankrupt city.
Today its credit is as good as any city in the nation.—Inter-Mountain Worker.
