Detroit Street Gar Men to Receive That Sum

SOME DIFFERENCE TO ONE-CENT RAISE HERE

Men Win Three Points of Four Under Arbitration—Some Difference to that in Buffalo—A Pointer for Fuhrmann, and His Greater Buffalo Fake.

The conductors and motormen on the Detroit street railway have won their fight for an advance in wages and shorter working hours. The matter has been in arbitration for some time and the arbiters have just made their award. Four points were at issue and the men scored on three counts. The company wins only on the question of the extension of the time for checking conductors' reports from seven to fourteen days. The men asked 30 cents an hour for the first year and 35 cents thereafter. They were given 25 cents for the first three months. After three months the pay jumps to 30 cents; after the first year to 32 cents. The hours remain as under the old agreement, with the exception of a reduction of a maximum of 13 hours to 12 in which to get in a 9 to 10 hour work day. The men are allowed free transportation at all times. The company asked that it be restricted to trips to and from work only. Thus does Buffalo lay behind her sister cities. Thanks to one cent Fuhrmann with his prelection "Greater Buffalo" bugle blaring its "Greater Profits for his owners for Louie and more graft for himself and his henchmen.

TRAINMEN DEMAND INCREASE IN WAGES

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Delegates of more than 45,000 railroad employees formulated a demand for increased wages and better working conditions at a meeting of the Western Chairmen's Association. The demand will affect fifty-six railroads operating from Chicago west to the Pacific coast, and increases will be asked for engineers, drivers, firemen, switchmen, conductors and brakemen.

IRON WORKERS APPEAL OPENS

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The battle to overthrow the election of the ironworkers and labor union officials in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial at Indianapolis, opened before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today and arguments will continue for three days.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL FOR STRIKER'S DEATH

Witnesses for Philadelphia Strikebreaker Who Shot Kaplan Deceased Youth Made First Attack. Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—At the inquest into the death of Abe Kaplan, the striking garment worker who was shot and killed at 7th and Spruce streets last Thursday evening, Antonio Cortese, the strikebreaker who confessed to firing the shot, was held without bail for the Grand Jury.

SOCIALIST SCARES BULL MOOSE

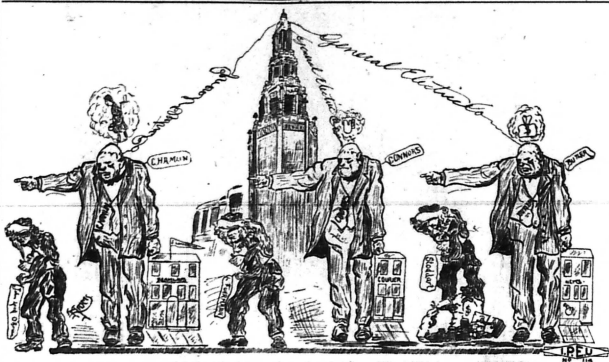

Yesterday afternoon a meeting was held by the Bull Moose convention at Shelton Square. The spellbinder seemed to have almost hypnotized the crowd when a few Socialists happened along. Among them was Comrade J. Kelly, who after listening attentively for several minutes to the catch phrases used by the so-called friends of labor asked the question: "In view of the statement made by John Lord O'Brian in his speeches that he would abolish vice from Buffalo and also maintain the present wage schedules," in what way do the "Progressive" Party intend to abolish vice? The speaker dared not answer but instead said to Comrade Kelly, if you want to make a speech come up on the platform. Kelly needed no second invitation, but walked up to the platform. He immediately got down to fundamentals and showed why there was vice in Buffalo. He showed how in his investigations last spring the discovery was made that the average wage was only $5.00 per week for girls employed in the department stores of this city and as a result of this we were bound to have a vice problem. This was too much for the supporters of Chauncey Hamlin who immediately started shouting at the top of their voices. The Bull Moose decoy Higgins was on the job and with one of his strong arm men shoved Kelly from off the wagon. This ought to show the workmen of Buffalo where the Bull Moose's stand on the question of organized labor. They simply cannot answer our questions and refuse to debate the issues in this campaign.

"HIS HONOR" -- NIT

It does beat all how we are getting on to these guys who wear gowns for dignity. On Tuesday Mrs. Annie W. Baldwin of New York, obtained a warrant to garnish the pay of the Honorable Richard Thomas Lynch, Justice of the City Court, New York last week. This judge gets $1,000 a month salary and the New York City Comptroller is directed by the governor's warrant to take out $1000 a month of it until Mrs. Baldwin's judgment is paid. Those are the kind that lug around the title of "Honorable," and the books kowtow to them.

Capitalist Parties Hold Burlesque Meetings

Several thousand people have taken refuge from the rain, the past few nights to enjoy the vaudeville offerings and amusing recitations delivered by the puppets of capitalism warring for control of this city. Any citizen who has attended meetings of all three parties held at Elmwood Music Hall and the Broadway Auditorium, will have learned the following facts: 1st. Detective William Burns has investigated the present administration and reports that there are 140 houses of ill-repute in Buffalo whose income is $600,000 per year, and 21 wide open gambling joints with complete police protection, under the jurisdiction of Michael Regan and Mayor Louis P. Fuhrmann. 2nd. Corporation records show that John Lord O'Brian, whose campaign promises have consisted largely in describing what he would do to the General Electric Company and the International Railway Co., is owned by heart and soul by Chauncey Hamlin, his law partner, who has a million dollars worth of stock in the above enterprises which he is anxious to protect. 3rd. A glance at his campaign list shows that Mr. Thomas Stoddard, who bases his chances for election on the statement that he is "unbossed," is owned by the drug trust. The Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Co., and other interests that are taking a chance at electing him, knowing that the man who pays the bills can break the laws or call out the militia at any time. The above facts which have developed as a part of the several candidates attempting to discredit one another should give Buffalo voters a good view of the inner meaning of politics. In order to fully appreciate the latter meetings held by Stoddard in the Elmwood Music Hall and O'Brian in the Broadway Auditorium one must have a keen sense of humor. Speeches were not the only events on the program. At the Stoddard meeting the crowd was entertained by a quartette singing coon songs. They were the only really good thing on the card and deserved all the applause they received. Mr. Stoddard read his speech as usual and said nothing of great importance. We have all heard it before from other lips as well as from him. He seemed to find trouble in reading and going through the proper gesticulations at the same time. Practice will doubtless remedy this. A bunch of Sunday Supplement "Uncle Sams" broke into the middle of a speech and gave a good imitation of "marching through Georgia," which however, did seem rather rough on the speaker. After Stoddard had spent an hour describing how bad the Democrat Party is, someone in the audience had the nerve to suggest that the Republicans had a fault or two. Four cops did their duty. The Citizens' meeting at the Auditorium drew a large crowd that came principally out of morbid curiosity, to hear the Burns report of the vice and gambling in the city. O'Brian stated everything else but the names of the owners of the tenderloin property. We will look this up ourselves in the near future and wouldn't be surprised to learn that some of that property is owned by our "best citizens" as developed so notoriously in Chicago and Milwaukee. The Citizens' party introduced a novelty in the way of an "applause inducer." A man with a couple of slats stood at the back of the hall and made a noise in order to start the people clapping when the Lord John made an important point in his speech. The arrival of about two dozen street car men carrying an O'Brian banner made the crowd forget the speaker and watch these misguided individuals as they paraded around the hall with their horns and drum playing. An amusing incident occurred to emphasize the "free speech" feature of these meetings. After telling of the Burns investigation which was undertaken at great expense some inquisitive soul in the crowd ventured to ask O'Brian "who paid the bill." Again the police did their duty. Such is the way of a capitalist political meeting.

SOCIALIST PARADE SATURDAY NIGHT

7:00 to 7:45 P. M.—Socialists and sympathizers gather at West Eagle and Franklin streets and form for parade. 7:45—Explosion of three aerial bombs announces start of parade. Line of March—Franklin to Swan to Main, to Broadway, to Auditorium. On arrival of parade at Auditorium branch organizers will immediately report to Joseph Felon. All marchers should purchase tickets before entering hall. They are praising the prisons established by the Americans in the Philippine Islands as models of their kind, but nobody as yet has praised the homes of the American workmen as models of their kind.

BUSINESS ABILITY "GOOD MEN" AND DIRTY POLITICS

In a little law suit in Boston it came out how brains in Chicago cleared $240,000 on a capital of $1,000,000 in four years. It was all done in the small loan business. The dispatches say: Miss Helen M. Foster of Winthrop testified that four years ago she was engaged by mail to transact the company's loan business in this city and received $1,000 as capital. Since then she had sent back $24,000 to the Chicago heads of the company, she said. This is the sort of superior brains that preys upon the wants of the poor and produces the vermin millionaires. Special Notice The Buffalo Printing Press and Assistants' Union No. 15 will hold its annual ball at the Columbia Turn Hall, Geneva and Kelly Streets on Saturday evening, November 1st, 1913. Tickets, 25 cents. Music by 65th Regiment Orchestra. A good time assured all who attend.

EVERYBODY OFF AT THE BROADWAY AUDITORIUM

Meeting Saturday Night will be History in Socialist Movement — Reserved Seats Almost Gone — Everybody Can Hear in Big Hall.

"Off for the Broadway Auditorium," will be the shout heard throughout the city tomorrow night. Everybody will be heading in that direction, Why? Because it promises to be the greatest event in the political history of this city. Not since the time that Eugene V. Debs spoke in this city was there so much genuine enthusiasm over a meeting. Men and women, not all Socialists, are flocking to headquarter buyers out of the few reserved seats and the general admission tickets that are left that it seems standing room will be at a premium. Every vest of speakers at the command of the Socialist movement have been procured for this eventful occasion. The leadership will give eloquent utterance to the great message of working class emancipation. Fortunate, indeed, will those be who will have the opportunity to see it. It will be a treat long to be remembered. It will be an intellectual feast. George R. Kirkpatrick, of New York, the author of an international named book; James H. Maurer, Socialist ex-member of the Pennsylvania Legislature and President of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor; Sol Fieldman, of New York, the most eloquent champion of the workers, and last but not least Stephen J. Mahoney, Socialist Party candidate for Mayor is the choice collection of speakers that will address the audience at the Auditorium tomorrow night. The greatness of this meeting is corroborated by the action of some of the local capitalist press who suppressed every bit of news about it and refused paid advertisements for that meeting. They know that it is the most successful meeting in this campaign and that is the reason they are trying everything in their power to suppress it.

FIFTY TO ONE

Wall Street Journal Shows Condition of Unemployment Existing in New York City Through Strike of U. S. Postal Chauffeurs.

"Mail truck drivers did not force 1,600 men anxious to fill thirty-one vacancies." The above quotation is an editorial paragraph from yesterday's Wall Street Journal. Fifty to one. The editorial scribe probably did not know the significance and importance of the little statement he gleefully made. Fifty to one. That's just what these figures represent. Thirty-one jobs made vacant by the strike of the chauffeurs on the mail trucks and sixteen hundred men ready and "anxious" to take their places. Say, Mr. Workman, you've heard some of us Socialists make the statement that there are 50 men to every job, but of course you said "well that's only the Socialist saying so." Are you satisfied now? Have we stated the truth? Do you see how happy the Wall Street Journal is? That little statement contains a good bit of advice to the capitalists who read that paper. It clearly demonstrates how necessary and how grateful it is to have an army of man "anxious" to take your job when you go out on strike. What chance have you of winning a strike with such a vast army outnumbering you and your fellow strikers 50 to 1? What chance have you of getting a raise by begging for it when there is that army waiting in front of the factory gate to replace you? What chance have you of keeping your job when that army is underbidding you? Here are 1,600 skilled automobile drivers who hungrily waited on the line for these men to go on strike, so that they could jump into the drivers' seat. But only 31 out of that 1,600 got the jobs. We Socialists call it unemployment. What do you know about it? Do you know why it exists? If you knew you would know what to do to remedy it—to wipe that problem off the face of the earth. Every Socialist knows the importance of this problem. But he knows more than that. He knows the cause of it. He also knows how to remove that cause. Would you like to know these things to? Well, read up on Socialism and you will know. That's what you will know—but you will act. You will join the Socialist Party. You will vote for Socialism. Because Socialism abolishes unemployment and there will be no fifty men to every job. There will be just one man to every job. And there will be a good job for every man who wants to work. And he will want to work, because he will get all that his labor is worth without "dividing the class" the non-producing class—the class that reads and supports the Wall Street Journal.

STRAW VOTE FAVORS SOCIALIST

Although little importance is generally attached to straw votes, still they are usually a good indication of the way the political wind blows in a given circle of people. At a straw vote taken in one of the departments of the Pierce-Arrow Plant the following was the result: Stephen J. Mahoney (Soc.)...19 O'Brien (Bull-Cit's)...17 Stoddard (Rep.)...17 Fuhrmann (Dem.)...17 Carriage started low. Well, we got a grocery store clerk and in two years sweat it free, every store in his own right. But they did not use any cash registers.

LIST OF SCAB CANDIDATES GROWING

'Friends' of labor and their history as workers: Christian Haess, Supervisor, 11th Ward, scab contractor. Edward F. Schroeder, Alderman, 13th Ward, scab telegrapher. Fred Bets, Alderman, 8th Ward, scabbed at planing mill. William P. Greiner, Assembly, 8th District, scab contractor. A. Shea, Alderman, 4th Ward, scabbed as yardmaster during strike at New York State Steel Company. We have been informed that Mr. Shea should be added to the list. The facts regarding this latest candidate on the blacklist are to be further investigated and give promise of yielding some very interesting results. We are glad to give this candidate an opportunity to deny the accusation at any rate. We are always open to conviction, and if Mr. Shea demands further proof he can rest assured that we will produce. Here they are, voters, two Democrats, two Progressives and a Republican. All loud-mouthed 'friends of labor,' with a dark and shady past. They have scabbed on their class! During the strike you was out after them with bitterness in your heart and perhaps a piece of lead pipe in your trusty right hand. You have a better weapon to use now in showing them what you think of a man who will scab. Walk into the booth on election day and vote the straight Socialist ticket. It is the only way in which you can keep them out of the place where they will have a real opportunity to show their 'friendship' for the working class.

ST. PETER AND THE SCAB

'I ought to get a large reward I've never owned a union card. I've never struck, I've never mixed up with union truck; But I must be going my way to win, St. Peter, and let me in.' St. Peter sat and stroked his staff. Despite his high office, he had to laugh. Said he, with a fiery gleam in his eye, 'Who is tending this gate, sir, I've heard of you and your gift of gab; You are what is known on earth as a 'St. A.B.' Thereupon he rose in his stature tall And pressed a button upon the wall. And said to an imp who answered the bell, 'Escort this fellow around to Hell.' 'Tell Satan to give him a seat alone On a redhot griddle up near the throne, But say, even the Devil can't stand the smell. Of a cooking scab on a griddle in Hell; It would cause a revolt, a strike, I know. If I sent you down to the fiends below. Go back to your master on earth and tell That they don't even want Scabs in Hell.'

THE CONSEQUENCES OF MILITARISM

The Austrian anti-Socialist press is raising a great hue and cry because of the ever increasing immigration of young men liable for military service; and this, in the face of 'great call' for more and more soldiers. In the last year alone Austria lost 121,000 young men who should have presented themselves for service. Canada is said to have found a home for 90,000 of these. There are those are lost for Austria forever goes without saying as not a man returned from Canada at the time of the mobilization which took place as a consequence of the Balkan war. A sharper lookout to prevent the migration of those pledged to military service is therefore demanded. Thoughts of reducing the increase in the army expenditure of 100 million kronen, which has taken place during the last few years, in order that the population might not be so plundered, or of improving the social and economic conditions, have never entered heads of the authorities. Rather would they see the land trodden—for it is generally the youngest and healthiest who are emigrants—and the economic conditions deteriorate, than budge from their feudalistic principles one iota. Socialism would afford you access to the land and the machine by virtue of being an owner in them. Then no one could deny you a job.

POSTAL CHAUFFEURS HAVE SERVICE TIED UP

New York, Oct. 29.—The delivery of mail in this city is practically at a standstill, due to the strike of chauffeurs employed by the Postal Transfer Service Company. With mail accumulating at all the mail stations below 45th street, with incompetent chauffeurs rushing the heavy wagons through the city, endangering lives and limbs of pedestrians and with the strikers determined to win their demands, the Federal authorities stepped into the mail drivers' strike yesterday in an effort to help the Postal Transfer Service Company break the solidarity of the workers. It was admitted in official circles that the Federal authorities have no jurisdiction in the matter, as the struggle is between a private concern and its employees, yet the interference of the Federal officials is nothing short of an effort to intimidate the strikers by enforcing a Federal law against them. 'So far as we are concerned, the fight has just begun,' said Michael Cashel, first vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablemen and Helpers' Union, of the A. F. of L. last night, speaking of the lockout of the 135 chauffeurs and drivers employed by the Postal Transfer Company. 'We are willing to meet the firm for a settlement, but will stick to our demands. I want this affair to be considered a lockout and not a strike, as the demands were submitted to the firm, and they started the lockout by discriminating against members of the union. It is estimated that more than fifty gangsters and gunmen, all members of notorious West Side gangs, are guarding the garages of the company in West 25th street. A cordon of policemen and a score of detectives are also on the job. Every truck that left the garage yesterday was closely guarded by police, as the scab chauffeurs it has been having trouble. The chauffeur of each small truck and wagon was accompanied by a solitary policeman and several officers served on the larger ones. Union delegates claim that the statements appearing in newspapers to the effect that the mails have not been delayed because of the strike are false, and that only part of the first-class mail is being delivered on time. Very little other mail is handled.

'GOOD MEN' AND DIRTY POLITICS

Continued from page 2. ciples, magusos and civic politics should be swamped amid such a deluge is exactly what might be expected. When the 'good man' is discovered by one faction he becomes the boulder of the opposition to prove that he isn't a good man, but rather a scoundrel, thief, perjurer, bribe-taker and general ill named crook. And the good man, thus attacked, in turn finds it necessary to retort upon his accusers as infamous liars, vile creatures, absolute and unmitigated scoundrels, and so forth. This in turn invites a counter fusillade of challenges, denances, reiterations of the original charges and offers to prove them in public, charge and counter charge. It ever flares and thickens, until all the good men on both sides are swept into the roaring caetraet of verbal sewerage, and all equally drenched and soaked with the filthy current. Then, on election day, the voters fish a selected number of these slimy objects out of the rushing gutter, and society has once more equipped itself with 'good men.' The food ceases, 'outward order and decency' is once more established until next morning, when the whole performance is again repeated. In short, the search for the 'good man' is the source and starting point of the stream of what is called 'dirty politics.'

Thought is the power of the age.

Thought is the power of the age. It is to thought that we are indebted for all progress that has obtained to date. Socialism is the only progressive program tending to solve the problem of the working class who constitute the major portion of society. What have you learned about this great program and what are you going to do toward helping to bring about the Socialist Commonwealth. Why should men whose blood flows warm within sit like their grandsires, cut in alabaster. Pinch yourself and learn whether you are alabaster. If not get in with this live movement—Socialism.

WOMAN UNCOVERS THE INCOMPETENCY OF OLD PARTIES

The following is part of a letter received from a comrade in Snyder, Okla.:
 This is Democratic efficiency. The citizens of Snyder are always saved at each election for fear the Socialists will capture the reins of government, notwithstanding the non-partisans in past years have squandered $50,000 of the people's money and are now several years in arrears on city bond interest.
 The city is without credit and almost bankrupt.
 This latest scandal has been dug up by the city clerk, who happens to be a woman, one whom the Democratic class with the negro, convict and idiot. Yes, this little woman had no better sense than to uncover the rascality and incompetency of man.
 It is too bad she was ever elected to office.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING HELD AT AKRON, N. Y.
 For the first time this year the people of Akron, N. Y., heard the message of Socialism last Saturday night. Akron has less than a half dozen Socialists and consequently Socialism is almost an unknown issue in that town. The few Socialists, however, prevailed upon Joseph Pelon, the organizer of Local Buffalo to send Max Sherover to Akron to speak to the hearers.
 The meeting was well advertised in the provisional platform on Main street near the express office, his audience numbered well over 200 persons. He immediately went into the subject and drove home to the audience one argument after another in rapid fire fashion.
 Before Sherover had an opportunity to conclude his talk it began to rain. The audience, however, did not seem to be bothered by the shower and they stood in their places all attention.
 The speaker realizing, however, that it would not be just right to keep the crowd in the rain, announced that he would speak on Sunday afternoon in the King Theater, and after leaving the audience to come to that lecture, adjourned the meeting.
 He then made arrangements with the owner of the local moving picture house and was permitted to announce the lecture before the large crowd that filled the place watching the movie.
 The Sunday afternoon meeting was a success. About 100 persons, including the peanut politicians of the town, were present. Sherover challenged any politician to refute or contradict the arguments he presented. No one did. The audience was deeply impressed with the convincing arguments. A fair sized collection was taken up and a quantity of books, including five copies of The Call of The Carpenter were sold. Mr. Sherover was instrumental in selling the books.

THE POLITICAL STATUS OF THE WAGE WORKERS

There are 63,000 wage workers in Buffalo reason enough why race should be represented on electoral tickets.

There are 63,000 wage workers in Buffalo. Reason enough why that they are not represented in the city council. More than that: The wage workers have interests peculiar to their class, while the Poles, as the representatives of any other of the various nationalities making up the population of this community, have no such special interests.

There are 63,000 wage workers in Buffalo. Reason enough why that they are not represented in the city council. More than that: The wage workers have interests peculiar to their class, while the Poles, as the representatives of any other of the various nationalities making up the population of this community, have no such special interests.

Every vote cast for Socialism is a protest against capitalist class rule, political corruption, and the subordination of public interests to private profit-hunting.

What has become of the prosperity of which capitalist newspapers had so much to say a little while ago? The workers have not yet caught up with you. It is invisible to them. The masters have collared it and keep it for themselves for fear the wage workers might abuse it.

It takes time to build up a political party, especially a party the object of which is not merely a change of government, but a radical change of the economic foundations of the existing social order.

THEY CALL THAT A BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

We agree with the "Buffalo Courier" when it says, that with the rapid growth of the city the expenditure for improvements and maintenance must increase.

But we fail to see that any rate of growth of a city in population and industrial and commercial importance will ever justify the reckless squandering of public money. The question is not, how much money have you spent, but how did you spend it?

Our local rulers have wasted millions upon millions on new water works, pretending to supply pure water to the citizens. But part of those works lie in ruins, and the fluid furnished must be boiled in order to render it fit for domestic use.

Our city administration spends fortunes upon fortunes on pavements and street repair, but our streets are always out of repair, and whenever you go you find a pothole up to the department of streets bearing the very cheerful legend that the street in question has been condemned on account of the dangerous condition of the pavement, which is usually nothing else but an almost endless chain of holes.

They have repeatedly raised the salaries of the guardian angels of law and order, but to say that they have become more efficient thereby, would be telling a falsehood.

These are some of the results of our city administration, and they certainly are no recommendation for it. They may prove many things, but they do not prove the one thing that is rarely in need of proofs, namely, the assertion that the money of the taxpayers has been well spent.

It is time to make a radical change, not in men only, but in systems, but we seriously doubt that any such change, necessary as it is, will ever take place until the workers initiate and enforce it.

The capitalists can enslave and rob the workers only by consent of the workers when they cast their ballots on election day.—Debs.

Every vote cast for a capitalist party, whatever its name, is a vote for wage-slavery, for poverty, and degradation. Every vote cast for the Socialist party, the workers' own party, is a vote for emancipation.—Debs.

Poverty, high prices, unemployment, child slavery, widespread misery and haggard want in a land bursting with abundance; prostitution and insanity, suicide and crime, these in solemn numbers tell the tragic story of capitalism's saturnalia of blood and tears and shame as it's end draws near.—Debs.

Our city police are becoming very careless of late. For two weeks they have left Lafayette Square unguarded, heedless of the danger that a Socialist speaker might deprecate the sacred asphalt there by attempting to remind his fellow citizens of the fact that their park commissioners are the most genial lot of people in the country, since they are able to create a park without the aid of nature, or the assistance of foresters and landscape gardeners, by merely decreeing that lampposts are trees and asphalt pavements grass.

A FEW POINTS FOR VOTERS

By STEPHEN J. MAHONEY

The average person has common sense enough to work for what he thinks is his interest.

Even the workers who will vote for the masters, cannot see that they are going to vote for their own interest.

This is rather pitiful in the face of some of the things that have taken place in Buffalo recently.

Moses Stoddard, Furbman and O'Brian are candidates on political parties which are owned and controlled by the capitalist class.

The campaign funds of these parties are being paid by the capitalists.

These same masters also own and control the daily papers of this town.

Not one of these papers raised their voice in defense of the workers who were out on strike last spring.

Now these enemies of the working class are out appealing for the workers' votes.

Thousands of the unorganized workers of this city will be organized during the next four years.

Many workers who will vote on election day are liable to be involved in some of the future strikes.

The worker who helps to elect one of these candidates and then goes on strike and gets the policeman's club on the head should remember that it is simply his last ballot rebounding and hitting him on the head.

The working class of the city of Buffalo constitute 80 per cent of the people. The workers will learn sooner than some expect the need of solidarity. The workers learn this they will need no friends. The truth is they have no friends. A man is either of the working class or he is against them.

The conscious awakening of the workers to their class interest is the important problem.

The workers are swinging into line by the thousands.

A brighter and grander day will dawn on our race. Now is the time for you to ask yourself, how honest you really are. Do you stand for this contemptible system of Capitalism or for the Co-Operative Commonwealth?

PROSTITUTION

Hand in hand with the accusation of the masters, that the subject of family bonds goes the charge that Socialists aim at a community of wives. This charge is as false as the other.

Another hand, we see today? The other hand, we see today? The other hand, we see today? The other hand, we see today?

Prostitution is as old as the contrast between rich and poor. At the same time, however, prostitutes were a middle class between beggars and thieves; they were then a class of luxury in which society indulged, but the loss of which would no longer be considered as a danger to its existence.

THE HOUSEWIFE

In most countries the maximum working time for women workers is legally fixed in some way.

But the working time of the housewife is unlimited. Nobody prevents her from overworking and over-worrying herself. Her time is her own, and she bears the burden of her world, and it is the slave of everyone in it.

And her reward? The reward of the slave. Do you really believe that Socialism could make things worse for the housewife, even if it would?

Speaking of campaign contributions it is well to mention that the Senate recently confirmed Henry Reardon, an American citizen of Turkey. Henry contributed $30,000 to the Wilson campaign fund last fall.

DISSOLUTION OF THE WORKERS' FAMILY

The participation of women in industrial pursuits means the total destruction of the family life of the working-man without substituting for it a higher form of the family relation.

BECOME A SOCIALIST!

By Edwin F. Bowers, M. D.

A man makes two crucial decisions in his life—one when he gets out of school, the other when he becomes a Socialist. Of these, the first is far the more important to him, in his relation to society, is when the leaves of fraternalism works or other fraternal organizations which he finds his avocation in putting his shoulder to the wheel attempting to lift the tumbler of progress out of the hole of retrogression.

How to Vote On Amendments

Four amendments to the constitution of the State of New York are to be voted upon at the election, November 4th.

One of these amendments is of particular importance to every worker in the state. The courts have declared Workmen's Compensation Laws unconstitutional. This amendment is framed to meet the court decisions and enable Compensation Laws to be passed and enforced.

Every Socialist, in fact every worker should vote for amendment number two on the machine.

The State Executive Committee of the Socialist Party considers the four amendments to the Constitution of the State of New York to be voted upon at the ensuing General Election on Nov. 4th, and decided to issue the following as a guidance how to advise the voters of the different counties who may be in sympathy with the Socialist Party how to vote on these pending amendments:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE

This amendment proposes to change the manner in which the compensation for taking private property for public use shall be determined.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO

This amendment is an enabling clause, authorizing the legislature to enact a Workmen's Compensation Law. It is intended to meet the final decision of the Court of Appeals.

Every Socialist should vote for Amendment Number Two.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE

This amendment proposes to increase the number of county judges, specifically in Kings County from two to four and generally authorize the legislature to increase the number of county judges in any county.

CRAZY CARPENTER CHOOSES THE WRONG REMEDY

A poor old carpenter in New York was unable to make both ends meet. He had no money for the month of July. So his landlord seized his tools, had no legal right to do so.

STREET CAR MEN THINK THIS OVER

You are going to vote for O'Brien or Stoddard, in other words, anything but "One Cent Louis." To you it apparently a question of men and not of principles. Now let me ask you, if O'Brien is elected, in three years your agreement expires, the mayor you elect now will be in office then. You will select your representatives from a minimum of 32 cents per hour.
