

GOVERNOR HARMON ACTS AS STRIKE BREAKER

MINISTERS GREET NEW PRESIDENT

English Envoy Leads Diplomats in Visit to President Machado

BULLETIN Gibraltar, Oct. 7.—King Manuel declared today that he would remain in Gibraltar until the situation in Portugal takes more definite shape.

Lisbon, Oct. 7.—The cabinet issued a reassuring bulletin today that messages were being constantly received from the provinces declaring loyalty to the republic.

Lisbon, Oct. 7.—The new Portuguese republic was virtually recognized today by all the foreign diplomats, who, under the leadership of Sir Francis Villiers, called upon the new foreign minister, Dr. Machado.

KING MANUEL, DEPOSED

King Manuel, recently deposed monarch of Portugal, is 20 years old and is better known as a spender in Paris than a king in Lisbon.

der the leadership of Sir Francis Villiers, called upon the new foreign minister, Dr. Machado. Although the members of the diplomatic corps made it plain that they were not empowered at this time formally to recognize the republic, their call is undoubtedly the forerunner of an official recognition.

Vienna, Oct. 7.—The arms of Gaby Deslys—"Gabrielle of the Lilies"—are open for Manuel, deposed king of Portugal. "I had an appointment with the king in Paris on Oct. 16, and I certainly hope to see him there on that date," said Portugal's "uncrowned queen" to a United Press correspondent today.

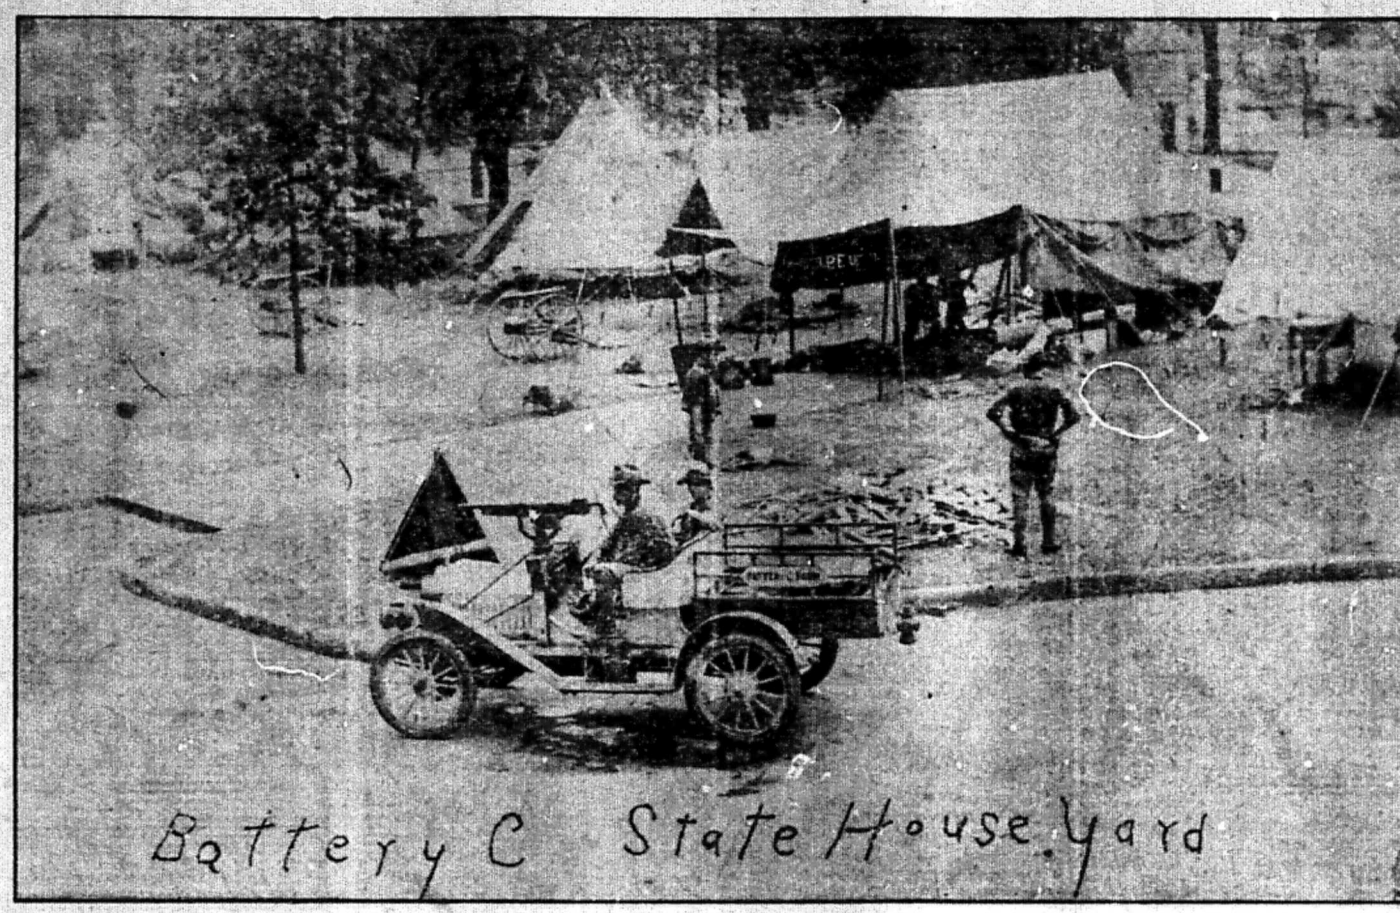

"I shall not turn against my king in his misfortune," continued Mile Deslys. "On the contrary, I shall be kinder than ever before to him who was so kind to me. "I shall remain in Vienna, doing my turn at the Apollo theater, until the 15th of this month, when I shall take the very first train for Paris. I believe that, even now, the king will come to me in Paris, where we have been so happy before."

"Afterwards I have theatrical engagements in Berlin—where I am to get $25,000 for three months—in London and in the other capitals of Europe." Deslys is the sensation of the hour in the Austrian capital. The Apollo theater is nightly jammed.

Gov. Harmon's Reply to the Street Car Strikers' Appeal

BY W. D. MAHON. (International President Amalgamated Association Street and Electric Railway Employees.)

As to the attitude of Governor Harmon through the contest, there is no question but what his whole influence has been on the side of the company and opposed to the workers.

HARMON REFUSES UNION PLEA This he absolutely refused to do. He stated that that would be taking sides. We then called his attention to the fact that he had already taken sides; that he had called back the state militia the second time, over the protest of the mayor, and when they were not needed.

SECOND CONFERENCE FAILS Since the conference that I speak of, another representative committee, headed by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, acting under the instructions of Grand Master Lee of the Brotherhood, and with representatives from a conference of all the trade unions throughout the state of Ohio, waited upon him.

CRISIS FACES SPAIN'S KING Cortes Convenes for Most Critical Session in Its History

Madrid, Oct. 6.—(Via Hendaye, France, Oct. 7.)—The Spanish cortes, expected to meet on the 5th, convened late this afternoon. The members were intensely excited over the news from Portugal, but the official proceedings were confined to the usual formalities. No business was transacted and no speeches were made.

ENGLAND TELLS OF MILWAUKEE'S GAINS Money Saved to Tax-Payers and City Is Better Served, Says Magazine Writer

In the current number of the American Review of Reviews, George Allan England, under the title of "Milwaukee's Socialist Government," gives not only the platform promises of the party now in power in the Cream City, but cites many of the steps by which the promises are being carried out.

On the Milwaukee river, north side, lies a large tract that the Socialists propose to arrange for model homes. The city is already empowered to do all but build; and state legislation has been planned which will enable the municipality to establish a winter factory where cottages in "knock-down" form can be constructed.

Democratic Governor Turns Deaf Ear to Columbus Street Car Men; Aids Company

G.O.P. JUDGE ENJOINS UNION

Who's who in Columbus? George S. Marshall, republican, mayor, who has been taking first one stand and then the other, seeming to favor the strikers and then favoring the company, finally on Sept. 29, replying to the written assurance of the Daily Socialist that any statement he would make would be treated with absolute fairness and in no way distorted: "I do not care to make a statement for publication."

CAUSE IS JUST

DIVISION NO. 538 OF THE AMALGAMATED ASSOCIATION OF STREET AND ELECTRIC RAILWAY EMPLOYEES, LOCATED IN COLUMBUS, OHIO, IS FIGHTING FOR A JUST CAUSE, AND IS MAKING ONE OF THE MOST GALLANT FIGHTS IN THE ANNALS OF THE HISTORY OF UNIONISM.

EXTENDS THANKS TO ALL I WISH TO THANK ALL THROUGH THE MEDIUM OF YOUR PUBLICATION FOR THE LOYAL SUPPORT, BOTH MORAL AND FINANCIAL, THAT HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO THIS BODY OF WORTHY AND HEROIC WORKING MEN, AND URGE THEM TO CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THE UNION UNTIL THIS CONTRACT-BREAKING COMPANY IS FORCED TO SETTLE AND GIVE ITS EMPLOYEES A SQUARE DEAL.

What Has He Done? "We desire to inquire of the governor what he has done toward suppressing the unlawful acts and riotous conduct on the part of the strike-breakers and thugs now in the employ of and operating the cars for the street railway company? It is a notorious fact that many of the men now in the employ of the company are criminals and ex-convicts, and that they have committed many deeds of violence in Columbus in the past thirty days."

ORDERED TO REMOVE PIER
Warning that the city is inviting a fine of $5,000 a month if it fails to comply with the instruction of the Secretary of War directing the removal of the center pier at the Lake street bridge is given in a letter received by Mayor Busse from the United States engineering corps yesterday.

URGES TRADE SCHOOL
A trade school for the leather industry was suggested in a paper read by Dr. Allen Rogers, a professor of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, at the afternoon session of the seventh annual meeting of the American Leather Chemists' association, which began at the La Salle hotel yesterday morning.

7,000 SEEK NIGHT SCHOOL
Nearly 7,000 pupils registered yesterday for the evening school courses. According to officials this indicates a total enrollment for the year of more than 29,000, an increase of about five per cent over last year. The registration books will be open at the different schools again today. School opens Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Students are allowed to enroll at any time during the course.

CAR DEATHS INCREASING
So far as accidents—both fatal and non-fatal—are concerned, Chicago is going back to the record of the days before track elevation was begun. During the last two years there has been an unexplained jump in the accidents, until the police records show that during the first nine months of 1910 there were more accidents than happened in all of 1909 and almost twice as many as in 1908.

FOREBESSES HUGE CITY
Visions of Chicago as a city of 10,000,000 within fifty years, with the center of interests within three miles on either side of Western avenue, are seen by Harold Rowntree, a planner for the "city beautiful," who presented his ideas before the city planning committee of the city club. The artistic feature of his plan is a sunken boulevard along Western avenue from one end of the city to the other. Subways and the abolition of the union loop are suggested for relieving congestion. The opportunity, he says, should be grasped before further growth.

TWO KILLED IN RIOT
(By United Press Association.)
New York, Oct. 7.—Two men were killed, two others seriously, if not fatally, wounded, and more than 100 shot fired in a revolver battle in the heart of New York city today. The fight, which took place between "Tenderloin" gangs in a cafe on West Twenty-eighth street, a short distance off Broadway, rivaled any that ever disgraced a western town and it was not until the gangsters had "shot themselves out" that the police reserves put in an appearance.

TRIES TO KILL TSAI HSUN
San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 7.—An attempt to assassinate Prince Tsai Hsun, uncle of the emperor of China, at the Oakland mole, as he stepped from his special train and was met by Rear Admiral Phelps and various committees, was frustrated today by United States Secret Service Agent Harry Moffitt and Detective Sergeant George McMahon, who arrested the assassin as he was about to draw a pistol. He was hurried aboard a ferry boat for San Francisco and put in jail. The assassin is an American-born Chinese, native of San Francisco and a member of the Young China Association, the revolutionary party which has millions of members all over the world.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Charles E. Hughes retired from the governorship of New York. Mr. Hughes immediately left for Washington, where, on Monday, he is to assume the duties of a justice of the United States Supreme court.

DEMOCRATS IN RIOT
(By United Press Association.)
Boston, Mass., Oct. 7.—Following a series of free-for-all fights which threatened to result in the convention breaking up in a riot, the democratic state convention at 1:45 this morning nominated Frederick W. Mansfield of Boston for governor. The convention was the most turbulent in years, the fighting eclipsing in point of bitterness the famous Springfield affair of four years ago, which practically disrupted the party.

KANSAS DEMOCRATS DIVIDED
Wichita, Kas., Oct. 7.—Dissension in the ranks of Kansas Democrats is believed to have reached an acute stage as the result of a speech here last night of Senator George Hodges, Democratic candidate for Governor and a complete split is today imminent. Hodges assailed insurgency and asked the support of the standpatters. Kansas is conceded to be as progressive as far as the Republicans go, with the majority of Democrats more amiable toward the insurgent faction of the Republicans.

BUSINESS

PLAN BAGGAGE INSURANCE
Woes of that part of the traveling public which occasionally loses its baggage soon will be decreased, for the railroads are planning to put into effect a system of insuring baggage valued at not more than $100 free of charge and for a small fee if worth more than $100.

RENEW "L" MERGER TALK
If Henry A. Blair, now in New York, reopens the negotiations for a merger of the Chicago elevated railroads, directors of those companies declare, it is doubtful if the prices informally agreed upon during the summer will be accepted. The traffic on all overhead lines is showing a uniform increase over last year, profits are relatively larger, and the companies are steadily bettering their financial condition.

BARBER REGIME PASSING
The Diamond Match company is to be reorganized from the ground up. This means the passing of the Barber regime. The operating forces are to be shifted and the finances of the company recast in a way that will enable the company to pay all its floating debt and put the concern generally on a clean business and financial basis.

SHAKY BANKS FORCED OUT
Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—National banks which are shaky and give no promise of improvement are being steadily forced out of business. During the twelve months ended on Oct. 1, 113 national banking institutions went into liquidation. Of that number four no longer desired to continue business, four failed and went into receiverships and the other 105 went into liquidation because they were practically forced to do so.

COMMONWEALTH STOCK 117
Commonwealth Edison stock had another advance, going to 117. The advance in these shares is understood to be due to the expectation that within the next twelve months there will be an increase in the dividend rate to at least 7 per cent. The company readily earns that amount, and if the city is to permit the People's Gas company to pay 7 on the telephone company to pay 8, the Commonwealth Edison should be allowed to pay at least 7.

SPORT

BROCK NEAR TOP
(By United Press Association.)
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 7.—Phil Brock of Cleveland is being hailed today as a worthy opponent for any lightweight in the country because of his fine showing against Harlem Tommy Murphy at Canton last night. (By United Press Association.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—The Indianapolis motor speedway officials are today anxiously awaiting a reply from W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., to the bid they made last night for the grand prix automobile race, which was called off in New York as the result of the criticism of the management of the Vanderbilt cup race last Saturday. Carl G. Fisher, president of the Indianapolis speedway, last night wired Vanderbilt an offer of $10,000 for the classic automobile event.

SCALPERS AT CUBS' FIELD
Ticket scalpers were at work yesterday at the Cubs' ball park, taking orders right and left for tickets for the world's series. The curbstone speculators scoffed at the boast of the national commission, that they would be completely eliminated and worked overtime, assuring all prospective patrons choice seats by Sunday night.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—The Association of German Municipalities has memorialized the imperial chancellors in favor of speedy measures of relief from the high prices of meat.

SEE SCAB BOAT BURN IN LAKE
Union lake seamen who came into the city on the Maggie Marshall, a union boat, told the story of the burning of a scab lumber boat and the refusal of the crews of the two other scab boats to lend assistance to the men who were in danger of their lives.

The incident occurred early Tuesday morning just off from Ludington, Mich. The lumber boat Frank L. Vance, run by a scab crew, took fire and made desperate calls for assistance.

Two other boats, operated by scab crews, one of them being the John Sharpless, were passing in the lake at that point at the time, but they made no efforts whatsoever to come to the assistance of the men on the burning boat.

The Maggie Marshall and Car Ferry No. 19, both manned with union men, seeing the straits of the crew on the Frank L. Vance, stopped their boats and went to the assistance of the men on that boat. Car Ferry No. 19's crew made vain attempts to put out the fire. The crew of the Frank L. Vance were taken aboard the John Sharpless and landed at the 12th street bridge.

PRINTERS VOTE TO STAND PAT
All of the printers who voted on the political propositions submitted to a referendum by the Chicago Federation of Labor did not vote the way the printers did at Hearst's newspaper plants.

Nevertheless, the results showed that nearly one-third of the total number of the printers who voted on the three questions were in favor of labor going into politics through the same channel that the workers of the European countries have followed, by co-operating with the Socialist party.

The results of the vote cast by the members of Typographical union No. 16 were announced yesterday. On the first question, "Should organized labor co-operate with the Socialist party?" the result was 400 for and 879 against. On the second question, "Should organized labor form an independent political party?" 405 voted for and 948 voted against. On the third question, "Will you abide by the majority vote given on these questions?" 583 voted for and 777 against.

20TH WARD IS GAINING FAST

Membership Is Doubled and Efficiency Increased, Report Shows

The Cook County secretary, Chas. E. Curtis, submits to the members a report made by G. E. Reesland of Los Angeles to the national secretary and calls attention to its text in connection with the report made by the secretary of the 20th ward branch in Chicago.

Big Gain Shown
Reesland wrote:
"Local Los Angeles county in three months has taken in 950 new members. And collections and donations during the same time is well over $2,000. Branch Los Angeles alone has taken in over 200 members during the month of July, and has averaged every month since 150 members admitted. Twelve new branches organized in the county during this time. Business meetings per month, sixty (in county); propaganda meetings per month, ninety-five. Plenary print this as an object lesson of what can be accomplished by systematic distribution of literature and organization work."

Speaking of local agitation in the city of Reading, Comrade Maurer says: "We have been distributing for the past fourteen weeks 17,000 papers every Sunday. Our system is now so complete that we can cover the entire city in about one hour. The results of this work stand out boldly on all sides. Increased membership—100 per cent increase in one month. Socialism is being talked all over the city."

Membership Doubled
The secretary of the 20th ward says in his report:

"In seven months we have more than doubled our membership, and by New Year's we shall have passed the 100 mark and be on our way to the 200 goal. The larger our local organization the more complete will be our literature distribution, and the easier will be the work laid on each comrade. It is still up to us to spread Socialism this winter for the present conditions are driving the people to do something for themselves and we can more easily secure a hearing than ever before."

WAGON LOADS OF CLOTHING FOR STRIKERS

Thirty More Families Are Evicted From Company Houses

Greensburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—(By Mail.)—Two wagon loads of clothing are being distributed today among the wives and families of the striking miners in the Irwin coal field.

Miss Emmiline Pitt, secretary of the Union Labor Temple, and Mrs. Sophia Seimelrock Miller of the Wm. Daust club, are distributing the wearing apparel in the camps at Yukon, Osborne, Blackburn, Madison and Hermlin. Leaving the city at 10:40 o'clock the women went to Greensburg, where the wagons were loaded for the mission of succor.

More Evictions

The Younghoehy & Ohio Coal Co. yesterday evicted thirty families from the company houses at Osborne. Furniture was piled indiscriminately on the surrounding hillsides.

President Francis Feehan of District No. 5, United Mine Workers, was notified of the company's action and hurried to Irwin yesterday evening, where a conference was held with the strikers' committee at that place. President Feehan said today:

Union Will Help

"If the evicted strikers and their families so desire, the organization will provide transportation for them and their furniture to the Pittsburgh district where some of the operators need workmen. The Younghoehy & Ohio company has not attempted to operate its mine at Osborne since the strike was inaugurated."

White Replies to Perry

Branding as false the statements made by Secretary-Treasurer Edwin Perry of the international organization, to the effect that John P. White of Iowa had dictated a slate in connection with his candidacy for the presidency of the organization, the latter makes a hot reply through the local miners' leaders, who are with White in his fight against Thomas L. Lewis.

Mr. White denies emphatically that he has announced any one's candidacy but his own, and calls Perry a "prince of posers." It was solely through White's friendship and assistance that Perry secured his present position, the local men declare.

LOCKOUT AVERTED

Hamburg, Oct. 7.—An agreement has been reached for a settlement of the lockout of the shipbuilders, thus averting the threatened lockout of the metal workers. The shipbuilders, who have been on strike for two months, will get an increase in wages equivalent to 4 or 5 cents a day and a reduction in working hours to fifty-five hours a week in Hamburg and fifty-six hours in other towns. The changes will begin on Jan. 1.

BRITISH COTTON STRIKE ENDS

Manchester, England, Oct. 7.—The trouble between the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners which resulted in the lockout of 120,000 operatives was settled today and the mills will be reopened on Monday.

BRICKLAYERS STANDING FIRM

Bosses May Split; Building Concerns Are Losing Thousands Daily

New York, Oct. 7.—If no agreement is reached between the Mason Builders' Association and the striking bricklayers during the course of the next few days it is expected that a break in the ranks of the employers will take place.

The strike of the bricklayers against the lockout order of the Mason Builders' Association is the chief topic of conversation among workers in the building trades, and it is generally agreed that some sort of an agreement will be reached between the association and the strikers within the next two or three days.

Contractors Parley

Six of the biggest contracting concerns in this city, with contracts in many of the big cities, all of which are tied up as a result of the trouble here, are said to be exerting pressure upon the Mason Builders' Association in an effort to get them to settle with the strikers. The work of these big firms, as well as that of all other concerns with contracts outside of this city, is said to be so badly crippled that they are losing thousands of dollars a day every day the local trouble continues.

Pickets sent through the building zone reported at the meeting of the strikers yesterday that building operations are at a standstill so far as members of the Mason Builders' Association are concerned.

Scabs Scarce

No scabs were secured yesterday. There was no change in the strike situation during the course of the day yesterday.

WIRE BUSINESS BRIGHT

The wire business seems to be the one bright spot in the steel situation at this time. It is reported that the American Steel and Wire company, which produces approximately 30 per cent of the total output of wire and products of wire in this country, reports bookings of new business between 10 and 20 per cent better than at this season last year.

FILE BRIEF IN BOYCOTT FIGHT

Claim That Boycott Was Coercion Effort by Union

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—The greatest labor fight waged in years in the Supreme court of the United States was opened when Daniel Davenport and J. J. Darlington, as attorneys for the Anti-boycott association, which took up the case of the Buck's Stove and Range company of St. Louis, filed their side of the famous controversy over the "We don't patronize list" of the American Federation of Labor. The case will come up for argument before the court probably next week.

Outline Arguments

The brief was an outline of the arguments to be presented orally at that time. The brief for the American Federation of Labor, which objected to any injunction in the case, has not been filed.

The Supreme court of the District of Columbia issued a broad injunction against the American Federation of Labor to prevent it from boycotting the Buck's Stove and Range company, which was charged with operating an "open" shop. The Court of Appeals of the district modified the decree of the lower court. It was this modification that formed the basis of the argument presented to the court today.

Individual Vs. Body

"The argument for the right to boycott rests on the proposition," says the brief, "adopted as true in the opinion of Chief Justice Shepard, that what one man may lawfully do, any number of men may lawfully agree or combine to do. But the right of an individual to withhold his custom from persons who deal with A is as unquestionable as his right to withhold his custom from A himself. Within reasonable limits any person may express disapprobation of an actor in a theater, but a combination of persons to hiss him and to have others do the same would be unlawful."

History of Case

"We submit," adds the brief, "that tender consideration for the possible contingent future right for a wrongdoer should not be carried so far as to withdraw present protection from the injured party against the wrong actually being inflicted upon him."

The history of the case was summed up by the two attorneys as showing an "undisputed and unanimous common effort to coerce the complainant into submission to their demands by attacking and seeking to destroy its business and to accomplish its financial ruin, as the penalty of refusing to submit to their dictation."

Buck's Not Interested

F. W. Gardner, chairman of the board of the Buck's Stove and Range company, said in St. Louis that Attorney Daniel Davenport and J. J. Darlington, who filed a brief in the United States Supreme court in the suit against the American Federation of Labor, represent the American Anti-boycott association. Buck's Stove and Range company is no longer a member of the association.

The company, according to Gardner, has reached a complete agreement with the American Federation of Labor.

SOUTHWESTERN MACHINISTS TO HOLD CONVENTION

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 7.—The annual convention of the Southwest district of the International Association of Machinists will commence here next Monday and will continue until the business placed before them has been disposed of. Every railroad system in the southwestern part of the United States will be represented.

One of the big things to come before the delegates will be the question of the big strike now on in the west. The Boilermakers and Pipe Fitters on the Missouri Pacific system have taken a strike vote to come out in sympathy with the machinists, who have been out for several months. The men voted in favor of striking.

The heads of the three organizations have had a conference with the officials of the Missouri Pacific, but the results of the conference have not yet been made public.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—State Labor Commissioner Williams has appointed Miss Frances A. Keller of New York as chief investigator in the state labor department, at a yearly salary of $2,500.

She will have entire charge of the new bureau of industries and immigration. Commissioner Williams selected Miss Keller because of her familiarity with the problems committed to the bureau. Governor Hughes appointed her a member of the special commission which investigated immigration.

LABOR BRIEFS

The San Francisco electrical workers have started a movement to unite the two electrical workers' internationals. It is their plan to have two bodies unite and a complete new set of officers elected. The central bodies of the country have been asked to endorse the plan and assist in bringing the plan to an issue at the St. Louis convention of the American Federation of Labor.

FAKIR PROVES HE'S IN RIGHT "Diamonds" Glitter "Back- ed" by Bright Police at Harrison Street

"You don't want one? You refuse this golden opportunity of purchasing one of our 'Bloss' fountain pens for a dollar? All right, I'll put it away. You could not buy one now for $3; you could not buy one for $5. That's what I get for offering you these bargains on the street. If I sold it to you behind the counter you'd pay me $3 for that fountain pen. Just because I offer it to you here that's the thanks I get. Now I want to see if I'm talking to a bunch of spectators or speculators."

Have a Sparkler on Me "I have here a white sapphire diamond, which I am advertising for the White Sapphire Diamond company of New York city. This beautiful white stone which I hold in my hand before you here isn't worth $10,000. If it were I would not offer it to you; you could not buy it anyhow. But I will give $100 to any one who can tell this white sapphire diamond from a real one. This is the stone that the pawnbrokers on State street have been fooled on time and time again. Who'd be the first man to start the sale? All right, who else? All right, you're next. I am going to sell six of these. Remember, I am paid $2,000 by the White Sapphire Diamond company and $1,500 by the fountain pen company to advertise these goods. After the first of the month you positively won't be able to buy this white sapphire diamond pin at our salesrooms, State and Madison streets, under $1. Anybody else?"

Take It in Trade "You want your change? Just a minute. Let's see, you have 75 cents coming; now don't go away; I have a bargain here for you. Now, to show you that I'm right, I have a proposition to offer only to those who brought pens from me tonight. I have here a $3.50 fountain pen. Look at it boys, isn't she a daisy? Look out, don't drop it. "To you fellows who patronize me here tonight, I have 75 cents of my money. You hand over another quarter and I will give you one of these $3.50 pens."

The Street Salesman This is the way that a thin, rallow-faced man, with eyes like black beads and as shifty as a rat, talks to his thin, white hands move with lightning quickness through a satchel full of alleged treasures which he is offering for nothing to the passing public on State street, opposite Congress. A "kiki" with the official uniform of the United States Postal Service bent over toward the fakir, who is known as Lee Bishop, which is not his real name. "You mean Lee Bishop with the white pocket dog?" asked a man of Inspector Wheeler's staff. Bishop makes it his business to be known at the Harrison street police station. Whether he talks there with his street-fakir's guile or with a more silvery note is not material to this story, but may be to Bishop.

Two Boys Object. Two boys objected to Bishop's lightning calculations. The calculations had been so rapid that the material sold did not keep pace with the coin taken in. A large, fat person was approached. Lucky guess he was a detective. He heard the boys' story. He listened considerably to Bishop, who, protesting his innocence, turned over the money to the complaining boys, abusing them the while. The matter was settled. "Gwan, or I'll pinch 'yise all," said the bright detective, when asked what license the fakir had to give him the right to sell. "Ergentat Duffy, the peerless Duffy, Wheeler's own sergeant. Duffy was approached and asked about the license."

matter. He was out sleuthing, but he stopped and said that it was none of his business and none of the business of the inquirer. A Peerless Witness "Have you ever seen his license?" Duffy was asked. "I guess I have," said Duffy. "You only guess that he has a permit, or a license?" "Yes, I guess he has." "Then you don't know that he ever had one, as you never saw it?" "Say, you can't tangle me on technicalities," said Duffy, evidently feeling as if he were on the witness stand. "The assistant chief may know," was ventured. "Say, you can't put that over on me," said Duffy, recovering his professional manner. The city hall was asked where Bishop's license is. It developed that he has no one. Can it be possible? No, it is not, for he has something better. He has a "gentleman's agreement" with the inspector. That's the way such things are done in the department. "The permission for street selling is up to the inspectors," said a city official. Bishop is perfectly willing that it should be so.

HUSTLERS COLUMN

CONDUCTED BY WM. CHERNEY

Some Things to Remember

November 8th is election day. That is an interesting day. The old party politicians are watching for the day to see whether they are going to be "discovered." And the Socialists feel sure that some of the old party grafters will find themselves out of a job. October 25 comes about two weeks before the election. It will be just in the heat of the campaign. You will be able to reach people with literature, who at other times would take no notice of it. The reason for this is that 'round 'lection time most everyone is more or less interested in "politics."

MONEY OF TAX-PAYERS SPENT TO AID COMPANY

Union Officials Denounce Action of State Executive Against Strikers

asking the company to submit to arbitration all differences existing between the men and the company. But, on the other hand, what he did do was to expend $75,000 per week of the taxpayers' money in defense of a railway company which refused to abide by the award of the state board of arbitration, which board the governor himself appointed for the purpose of preventing strikes.

Voll, President Ohio State Federation of Labor.

The story of the main facts of the strike is told in the following account: (SPECIAL TO THE DAILY SOCIALIST.) Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 7.—Conditions that had been for years unbearable and the small wages that had always been paid them caused the unrest that led up to the petitioning the company by the car men for a small increase in wages. No specific increase was asked for in the petition that was presented to the general manager.

The petition reached the office of "Czar" Stewart, as he is commonly known, about the middle of January, 1910. He very promptly ordered the discharge of supposed ringleaders and called some others into his office and told them that the company was too poor to pay any more money to the men.

As soon as the men saw that they could gain nothing by such action they took steps to organize.

This they succeeded in doing before the company "got wise." A meeting of the UNION men was called some time in the latter part of February, at which time the company issued a statement in which it claimed that there would not be over twenty men at the meeting at the most, and inspectors were placed near the hall and all the names of the men who would dare to join a union were to be taken. There was a surprise when about 200 of their employees went to the meeting and the inspectors were so astonished that they only got the names of thirty-five.

On March 26 a committee of the men met Stewart and Sheldon, the "Czar" and the "Iron Duke," general manager and president of the rail and light company, and recited their grievances.

Marshall Won't Talk "Managing Editor, Chicago Daily Socialist—Dear Sir: "I am in receipt of your communication regarding a statement from me concerning the Columbus strike. I do not care to make a statement for publication. "Very respectfully, "GEORGE S. MARSHALL, Mayor."

The Difference BY JOHN C. CHASE, Ex-Mayor of Haverhill, Mass. The street car men went on strike in Columbus, Ohio, several months ago. They are still on strike. The state militia is there to aid the corporation in breaking the strike. Automobiles armed with rapid fire guns are thick in the streets. Who sent this armed force to Columbus?

Governor Harmon. Who is Governor Harmon? The man most talked of for the Democratic nomination for President in 1912.

Who asked that the militia be sent to Columbus? The street car company.

In 1900 there was a Socialist mayor in Brockton, Mass. A strike was about to be declared by the street car men, because their grievances were not listened to, or heeded by the company.

The mayor called up the railway company and told them that he was anxious to have order preserved in case of a strike and would, therefore, ask the company to send up three hundred of its employees to be sworn in as special peace officers. The company did not send the men, but instead, immediately settled with its employers.

The company knew it could not win its own striking employees serving as special policemen instead of having the state militia.

The Democrat and the Republican send the militia to help the corporation. The Socialist stands with the men and prevents a strike. Take your choice, brother workman.

These "foremost citizens" told the employees to go home to their wives and use more BEANS and RICE and not so much MEAT on their tables.

Settlement Is Reached Notwithstanding the attitude of the company at that time, a settlement was finally reached on April 5, whereby the thirty-five men who had been discharged were to be reinstated, the discrimination against the UNION stopped and a raise in wages of one cent per hour granted.

The company reinstated all but four of the men who had been discharged, the four men discriminated against being the instigators of the movement to organize. The company claimed that the men that had been promoted to the places would not step back, but when the committee of business men, acting for the chamber of commerce, asked the company for the names of the men who they claimed would not step back, they refused to give them. Besides this, the company began again to discharge men for no apparent reason, except as being members of the UNION.

New Appeal Made The committee of the men again met Stewart, and he agreed to reinstate the men to positions that would pay them as well, but not to their former positions. The men then decided to strike and did so on the 29th of April. After several conferences with the company, business men prevailed on the employees to accept a certain interpretation of article 2 of the company rules in regard to men belonging to the UNION and elimination of questions to applicants for positions whether they had any union affiliations—intended having any, and Mayor Marshall agreed to put the four men to whom the company objected on the city pay roll in some position that would pay better if they did not care to take the company's terms of re-employment. An agreement embodying these features was signed up on the 5th of April and the men went back to work on the 6th.

Company Starts Trouble Immediately after the settlement the company began to make preparations for trouble by equipping the barns with cots, cook stoves and other culinary outfits equipped the MILO barns with a high-board fence, with charged wire on top of it, by discharging UNION men for offenses that NON-UNION men were not even censured for. Even went so far as to get out the impression that if the men did not strike they would all be locked out and discharged. The men held a meeting and decided unanimously for a strike and left the date in the hands of the executive committee.

About this time the chamber of commerce was preparing for an industrial exposition at the fair grounds and the men were prevailed on not to strike until after the exposition, and when the chamber of commerce said it would help them to win. They fell for this and the company gained more time and advantages. Then, after this was over, the state board of arbitration jumped in and ordered both sides to appear before it for a hearing on the case to determine if possible who was in the wrong.

Company Refuses Terms This consumed three weeks more of time, which gave the company still further opportunity to prepare to fight. On the 21st the men offered to abide by the decision of the state board if the company would agree to do the same. The company refused and the verdict was in favor of the UNION. On July 24, 1910, the second strike was called and only a few cars were run the next day. Since that time the company has repeatedly stated that it had nothing to arbitrate. The clearing house association has met and passed resolutions declaring the strike to be at end and asking every one to now ride on the cars, the same as they always did.

Not only did the people of Columbus refuse to ride on the scab manned street cars, but police officers refused to act as guards for the non-union men, who were furnished by the Coach Detective Agency.

- The policemen who refused to ride on the strike-bound street cars are: C. A. HOFFMAN, R. M. READ, W. H. LEONARD, GEORGE NOBLE, DAVID B. HENTHORN, CHARLES CHEYNEY, BOSS BLAKEWELL, H. D. FITZELL, D. Y. BECKETT, GEORGE BRUNDRIGE, THOMAS CASEY, J. Q. LOTSPEICH, W. L. PATTERSON, JOHN BURETT, JOHN B. WEGMAN, P. A. ALTMAN, R. W. SAUNDEES, BEN BOYER, W. E. STEELE, M. L. KERNER, ALFRED ANDERSON, GRANT MONTGOMERY, DANIEL I. EVANS, JOHN W. DAVIS, C. H. LEONARD, H. C. WEAVER, WILLIAM WILSON, J. W. DEMPSEY, H. D. AMLIN, A. A. BITNER, J. E. WHITEHURST, W. S. HEATH.

The chamber of commerce circulated literature all over the state, stating that the strike was over and it was safe to ride on the cars, and that the cars were being operated on time and all schedules are full, when it is a well-known fact that they are not, and further, they have not operated an owl car since the strike.

Governor Judson Harmon issued a call to all the people of the STATE to attend the fair and said that they would be protected and to come prepared to ride on the cars.

Union Enjoined On Sept. 3 an injunction was granted by Judge Dillon, restraining the strikers from picketing the Union station, the T. & O. C. station and all the interurban stations, passing out literature relating to the strike situation, etc. The writ names 186 men, three of them who are now working for the company. It also shows that the company in praying for an injunction recognized the UNION as it was prayed for against the A. A. of S. & E. Ry. E. of A. Division No. 538.

The conference at Columbus on behalf of striking street car men was attended by nearly 100 unionists from every section of the state. A committee was appointed to wait on Governor Harmon, and urge him to ask that both sides agree to arbitrate. The committee reported that the governor claimed he did this, but was answered that if he had it was done privately, and urged him to make it publicly.

After much discussion, a committee consisting of George W. Rope, Columbus; E. L. Hitchens, Cincinnati; E. L. Reeves, Detroit; Harry Thomas, Cleveland, and E. A. Sauce, Youngstown, was appointed, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Company Denounced "Your committee appointed to draft resolutions for the body of delegates, and to whom was referred the report of the committee duly authorized to confer with Governor Harmon beg leave to report as follows:

"The convention, representing the trade and labor unions, the central bodies and railroad brotherhoods of Ohio, was called for the purpose of devising ways and means to secure aid for the striking street car men of Columbus, in their struggle for the right to organize and maintain fair conditions and wages, against the most unscrupulous and tyrannical public service corporation in the state, The Columbus Railway & Light Company. After listening to the statements of facts concerning this struggle and the repeated efforts to arbitrate the dispute, we are convinced that if there ever was a righteous cause, it is that of the street car strikers, and the unprecedented assistance rendered by the Columbus public is the best testimony that could be offered as to the character and justice of the struggle.

Banks Stand Firm "The strike has now been on for nine weeks. The 500 men who came out on strike remain intact, with the exception of twelve who deserted. Repeated efforts have been made to bring the dispute to a close by arbitration. Every means known or that could be thought of has been tried; every local and state official has been appealed to, but in vain. After examining the report of the conference committee appointed to confer with the governor we realize that he cannot be induced to take action on behalf of the arbitration proposition as we have wished he would do. With the facts of the situation at hand we make the following recommendations:

- "First—That all central bodies, railroad brotherhoods and local unions throughout the state pledge their financial support, sending in funds weekly, if possible, for the assistance of the strikers. Get Bus Company "Second—That we commend the action of the trades unions of Columbus in organizing a stock company to carry passengers in large motor buses at a popular fare. A company has been incorporated under the laws of Ohio for $100,000 and it is the sense of this convention that central bodies and local unions throughout the state take steps towards financing this project.

"Third—That the delegates make a full and complete report of the facts herein presented to their respective organizations and urge immediate action by their respective bodies and all other kindred organizations, to the end that the strike may not only be won, but the enemies of labor be taught that they cannot prevail against organized labor aroused and united in this great cause."

A Vanishing Class

BY JOHN N. LANDBERG

For over three-quarters of a century after the birth of this republic, its population was of a middle-class character. There were neither millionaires nor paupers.

Do You See the Cat?

CAPITALISM IS BASED UPON THE "SACRED RIGHTS OF PROPERTY"; SOCIALISM UPON HUMAN RIGHTS. THE CHIEF FUNCTION OF CAPITALISTIC GOVERNMENTS IS THE PROTECTION AND EXTENSION OF PROPERTY RIGHTS—HUMAN RIGHTS ARE SECONDARY.

IT ENDS PRIVATE PROPERTY WITH THE POWER OF INCREASE. It says to the private citizen or to a private corporation: "Seize land, mines or forests and record your seizure upon the public records and you are possessed of the right to collect rent from the user of said land.

Saving the Girls

BY AGNES H. DOWNING

Much is said of the girl that sells herself for a living, but little is said of the girl that is sold. In fact, one is almost led to believe that if a girl falls in industrial work, she may always, by abandoning what is good in her, sell herself to a life of luxury and ease.

Socialism or State-Capitalism; Which Shall It Be?

BY C. B. HOFFMAN

The methods of producing wealth have completely changed during the last one hundred years. Steam has taken the place not only of ox and horse but of the human arm as well. Electricity is superseding steam and already the genius of man is reaching to still subtler forces.

Capitalists are alarmed at the trend of events. They are seeking refuge from the rising tide of Socialism by incorporating their privileges in governmental functions.

Roosevelt grasps the problem and writes into every Republican platform an affirmation of the RIGHTS OF CAPITAL—THE RIGHTS OF AN IMAGINARY DEMON IN WHOSE NAME WORKERS ARE ROBBED AND MILLIONS CONDEMNED TO WRETCHED POVERTY.

Why Was Walsh Imprisoned?

We quote the effort made by Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the public schools of Chicago: It would be awful should Mr. Walsh die in prison.

Notes From Canada

BY R. P. PETTIPiece

Thirty-one international unions are paying per capita on their Canadian membership to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. These consist of 707 locals with a membership of 25,808, making an annual revenue from this source alone of over $5,000.

THE FEARFUL RESULT IS THAT AN EVER INCREASING NUMBER OF PEOPLE ARE FORCED INTO IDLENESS AND MISERABLE POVERTY. As long as vast stretches of land were unsettled and free to homestead or pre-emption men would take their families and leave the glutted labor markets of the cities to build new cities and states.

Chips

If the stress of propaganda is laid upon collectivism in its entirety, if the co-operative commonwealth is held up in contrast to capitalism, people say: "Yes, Socialism is all right, but it won't be in our time."
