THE Zion City lacemaking plant, which has been closed down since last Friday, will resume operations July 5.

CLIMBING a pillar of the Douglas Park branch of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railroad structure at South Western avenue and West Twentieth street, Leo Koszala, 13 years old, 2309 West Nineteenth street, touched an electric wire and was instantly electrocuted.

JULIUS PEARSON, 15 years old, 11224 Stevenson avenue, Kensington, was shot and seriously wounded by Joseph Petrocelli, a barber, at Fulton avenue. Young Pearson was shot in the back as he was leaving Petrocelli's barber shop. The barber said the boy annoyed him.

HEADQUARTERS for the convention of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association, to be held here in October, were reserved at the Congress hotel. Four hundred and fifty rooms were set aside for that many delegates and an entire floor reserved for alternates and guests and speakers.

HENRY EICHINGHAM was found guilty of the murder of Policeman Thomas Tigha of the West Thirtieth street station by a jury in Judge Kavanaugh's court. His punishment was fixed at thirty years in the penitentiary. Edward Carr and Edward Wayne, who had been on trial as accessories, were found not guilty.

AN eight-story hotel containing 300 rooms, to be erected at a cost of $250,000 will be constructed at the southwest corner of Madison and Clinton streets. The improvement is an indication of the changes that have taken place in this part of the city since the erection of the new Northwestern depot. The new hotel will be known as the Northwestern hotel.

TWENTY-FOUR of what is to be a band of fifty orthodox Hebrews that, when organized, is to purchase 10,000 acres of land in Minnesota, were chosen at a meeting at the Chicago Hebrew Institute. The meeting was called by E. A. Nelson, and he thinks that if successful it will point a method of ending poverty among the Jews.

ATTACKED by a vicious tramp in her father's house near Plainfield, Blanche Allen, 18 years old, successfully fought off her assailant in a half-hour battle. The tramp was caught west of Plainfield. The girl identified him. Threats of lynching compelled village authorities to act. For the sheriff, Deputies took the man to Joliet, where he is in the county jail.

PREPARATIONS are under way by the government to begin removal proceedings against the fourteen men indicted by a recent special federal grand jury, because as secretaries of lumber dealers' associations, they are alleged to have conspired to interfere with interstate trade in lumber. The men were indicted last week. Steps were taken to begin the removal suits.

PLANS of the government to have wholesale indictments against oleomargarine manufacturers returned by the grand jury this week, have been blocked by Attorney General Wickersham, and as a result the investigation which has been in progress since March 1 will be prolonged. In view of the latest developments it is probable that no indictments will be voted before July 5.

USE FEAR TO GET EVIDENCE AGAINST LABOR

Darrow Throws Limelight on State's Efforts in McNamara Case.

By United Press. Los Angeles, Cal., June 29.—Charging deliberate attempts by the district attorney to intimidate witnesses, Attorney Clarence S. Darrow has issued a lengthy signed statement regarding the efforts of the state in the McNamara case to get the testimony of Mrs. McNamara. He said in part: "Use Prison as Threat"

"Mrs. McNamara was told that unless she corroborated the testimony of her husband she would never be allowed to leave this state. If she refused to answer she would be sent to San Quentin prison."

"She was threatened and coerced for more than an hour until she fainted. She is in the care of physicians at this minute in the home of her attorney."

"It has been two months since the indictments were returned and it is plain that the grand jury has been kept in session in order to intimidate witnesses and persons friendly to the defense."

Notice from the district attorney's office to show cause why Mrs. McNamara should not be cited for contempt was served on Darrow.

Darrow immediately answered that he was fully prepared to meet the issue. District Attorney Fredericks is preparing to produce the woman before Judge Hutton of the Superior Court.

Detective McLaren of the Burns agency outlined the state's plan this afternoon. "If we can get the woman committed to jail," he said, "even for a few days, then we will have a chance to question her and to remove her from the influence of counsel for the McNamaras. This is our last step."

Washington, June 29.—Discovered! Chairman Stanley of the steel trust investigating committee of the House claims that he has caught the Socialists with the goods.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says that Stanley "believes that he has erected a sign-post to show where Socialism hopes to lay hold of the votes of the American people."

Stanley's Discovery. Last the reader get too nervous, we shall immediately tell of Stanley's great discovery. It is this: After Socialist Representative Berger had concluded his maiden speech in the House Stanley interrogated Berger as to his position on the trust question.

As has been previously reported Berger replied that he was not opposed to the trusts because he could not sensibly oppose evolution, but he did favor the national ownership of these combinations.

The next question that Stanley propounded was whether the Socialists favored government regulation of the trusts. Berger answered: "I favor it as a first step. The only solution, however, is the national ownership of the trusts." Berger also pointed out that government could not long regulate the trusts without finally taking them over.

Chief Achievement. Now that Berger had said that he believed in government regulation of trusts as a first step to Socialism, constitutes Stanley's "sign post." He told the Courier-Journal correspondent that this "admission he secured from Berger constituted his chief achievement thus far in congress."

It is evident that Stanley never read anything like regarding the aims of Socialism, else his discovery would not appear to him as an "achievement." However, there is a purpose behind Stanley's interview. He is anxious to discredit all those who advocate the next step in industrial evolution.

Stanley has been very much annoyed by the offer of Judge Gary, head of the steel trust, to put his combination under the supervision of the government. Stanley knows that such a step would mean the surrender of the competitive system forever.

PROTEST FLOOD IS BRINGING PARDON NEARER EVERY DAY

"Seven Mail Sacks Delivered and More Coming," Writes Minister.

By United Press. Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 29.—"The case of Mrs. Angelino Napolitano will receive careful and anxious consideration in due time," was the encouraging message received today by Attorney Uliah McFadden, counsel for the condemned woman, from Hon. A. B. Aylmer, minister of Justice of Canada.

Will Act in Time. The minister stated in the course of a letter that the case will receive careful consideration in plenty of time to stop the execution of the death sentence.

The thousands of petitions that are pouring into the minister's office each day are having their effect, as is indicated in the letter written to Attorney McFadden.

Children in Ignorance. The four little children of Mrs. Napolitano are still in ignorance of the terrible fate hanging over their mother's head, and the elder boy, Michael, aged 7, daily consoles his younger brother and sisters with: "The bad policeman will soon let mama come home."

Southern Women Protest. New Orleans, La., June 29.—Southern women today added their protest to the execution of Angelino Napolitano at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. The Era Club, with a membership of 800 women, forwarded a petition to Governor Grey of Ontario, protesting against the death sentence imposed on a woman who killed her husband rather than lead a life of shame.

Shows Fearful Facts. Among the hundreds of instances secured by the investigators are the following, showing what a large percentage of the department store girls are driven into selling themselves to eke out their living.

Results of Low Wage. "Mrs. (X989), who conducts an immoral flat at (X990) 24th street, said that the whole success of a flat like hers depends upon getting young, fresh girls. She spoke of two who came certain evenings and who worked in (X990) department store.

Another Victim Seen. "Mag was seen at the dance hall on North Clark street. She works in one of the large department stores at a salary of $5 per week. She has a furnished room on North Clark street. She was soliciting on the street certain nights in the week and claims she does it to help support herself."

Another Seeks "Easiest Way". "Violet, another girl at this dance, is about 18 years of age and works in a department store at $6 per week. She has two steady friends who take her out each week and give her $2 a week. This brings her salary up to $10 a week. She lives at home with her parents and when she goes out she tells them she is going to a show with a girl friend."

White Slavery. A look of 250 pages. Tells the best and cheapest book on this subject. The best treatise on the terrible conditions of immorality now exposed in the Daily Socialist. According to low prices to clubs and agents. Send for sample copy, 25 cents. Mrs. ALICE HALL, 1819 W. ADAMS ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

ZIONISTS READY FOR LIVE MEET

Tannersville, N. Y., June 29.—The fourteenth annual convention of the ZIONIST STAMP; USED MUCH LIKE RED CROSS STAMPS. THE PROCEEDS GOING TO PROMOTE THE ZIONIST CAUSE.

Federation of American Zionists will begin in this mountain resort tomorrow and continue through July 4. Delegates are already gathering from many parts of the country. Great effort has been made to induce a large attendance because the opponents of Zionism among American Jews are insisting that Zionism has reached a crisis. Turkish statesmen also from upon the ambition of the most enthusiastic Zionists to unfurl the flag of independent Israel in Jerusalem. Much of the time will be taken up in discussing the probable attitude of the international congress at Basel, Switzerland, August 9, to which some American delegates will be chosen here. One charge made against some former Zionists not now affiliated with the movement is that as soon as the people became prosperous and began making good American money they deserted Zionism and didn't care a rap for a legally assured home in Palestine.

Best Photograph to Date of the Uncovered Battleship Maine

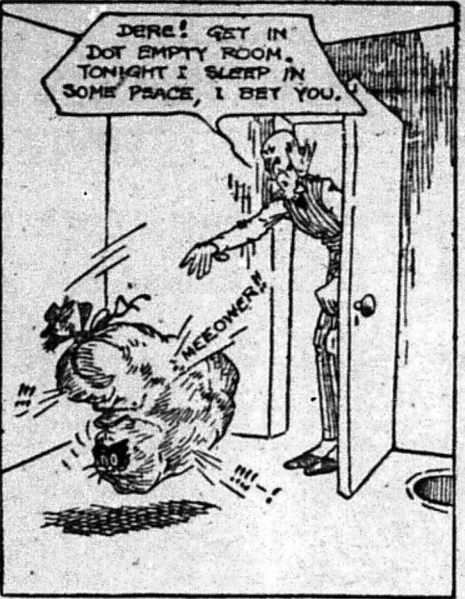

ESPECIALLY TAKEN FOR THE DAILY SOCIALIST BY ARTHUR M. RUIZ OF HAVANA, CUBA. THIS IS THE LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF THE MAINE AND WAS TAKEN WHEN THE WATER IN THE SURROUNDING CAISSON HAD BEEN LOWERED 16 FEET.

The authorities are doing their best to keep the people of the United States from knowing just how the Maine was blown up. It would be a awful knock to hear that the battleship was really blown up from the inside.

Hundreds of men higher up in the navy believe such to be the case. The bottom of the present time is sunk in mud. If it is found that the bottom was blown down wards into the mud it will be proof conclusive that the blow up was an accident, of which the chief beneficiaries were the sugar trust and the embalmed beef packers of Chicago.

TIPS FROM Tip Wright

The Giants now have a bigger lead than the Tigers. "Old Man" Falkenberg still has a few good games left in his system. The St. Louis Cardinals absolutely refuse to be shaken off in the race for the pennant. Nap Rucker's three-hit game against the swatting Phillies was his best stunt of the season. Every Mackman got one or more runs and hits in the second Washington-Athletics game. Ping Bodie of the White Sox is beginning to assume the hectic flush of an exploded phenom. Unless "King" Cole puts on the brakes, it will be either the minors or back to the shaving mug for him. Really it doesn't look clubby for the Senators to trounce the Athletics just as the latter are getting ready to go ahead of Detroit. Mathewson has won thirteen and lost only three games this year, having participated in sixteen of New York's sixty-three games. Most of the New York National's historic games fall to Mathewson. He was given the honor of pitching the first game in the rebuilt grounds and right well did he perform. It is too bad that Johnny Kling made a hit the first day he was traded to Boston. Otherwise he would have a perfect record of not having made a hit since donning his Boston togs. Hear Senator Winfield E. Gaylord of Wisconsin at Riverview July 9.

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded. A big list of entries has been received. HAWTHORNE AVIATOR IS INJURED IN FALL. J. J. The aviator started to coast down to the ground, but struck the trolley wire of a street car line. His machine turned turtle and fell to the ground. BOTHNER DEFEATS BINGHAM. Boston, June 29.—That George Bothner, of New York, is still the welterweight wrestling champion of the world today is due to the inexperience of Will Bingham, the English champion, in the gentle art of roughing it. In last night's contest Bingham had the better of most of the straight wrestling, but Bothner's tricky methods stood him in good stead and he gained two falls, the first in 2 1/4 minutes, and the second in 2 3/4.

WOMAN IN MONOPLANE WATCHED BY THOUSANDS. Boston, Mass., June 29.—Mrs. James V. Martin, wife of the Harvard aviator, Wednesday made the first successful monoplane flight ever made in this country by a woman flying alone. It was probably the first flight of any considerable duration in any kind of a heavier-than-air machine that a woman has made in America. She was in the air eighteen minutes, flying over Waltham, Watertown, Newton and Belmont and was watched by thousands in those places. MILE IN 51 SECONDS IS NEW AUTOMOBILE RECORD. Grand Rapids, Mich., June 29.—Before a crowd of 5,000 people Bob Burman, the automobile "speed king," established a new circular dirt track record for Comstock park yesterday afternoon, driving his Blitzen Benz a mile in 51 seconds. COOBS MORAN $400 A YEAR FOR PHOTOGRAPHS ALONE. San Francisco, Cal., June 29.—When a fighter gets up in the pugilistic world it costs money to keep his face before the public. At least, so says Owen Moran, who will fight Ad Wolgast on July 4 for the championship of the world. "I figure it costs me from $400 to $500 a year for photos alone," he said recently. "And every other fighter who amounts to anything has to put out the same amount. This is all in addition to the ones taken by newspapers." Moran has posed hundreds of times, so many times in fact that he lost all count several years ago. CONLEY DARES COULON. Frankie Conley has placed $1,000 in the hands of Harry Gilmore, just to show he is in earnest in asking for a match with John Coulon for the bantam weight championship. It is believed the men will be matched. OVERALL QUITS BASEBALL. Orvie Overall declares he is through with baseball. A wife to this effect was received here today. He says: "I may visit the east during the summer, but nothing doing in the baseball line." YACHTS TO RACE SATURDAY. The universal yacht rules will be given their first actual test Saturday, when the Chicago Yacht club starts its cruising race to Milwaukee and return. WELSH TO REFEREE. San Francisco, June 29.—Jack Welsh has been selected to referee the fight between Ad Wolgast and Owen Moran July 4. "Come back" to Riverview for the Socialist picnic July 9.

Y.P.S.L. Notes

All members of the League are earnestly requested to be on hand at the business meeting next Friday, when the regular election of officers and committees takes place. The League is going to form a mandolin and guitar club. All players and those learning to play should communicate with hall manager.

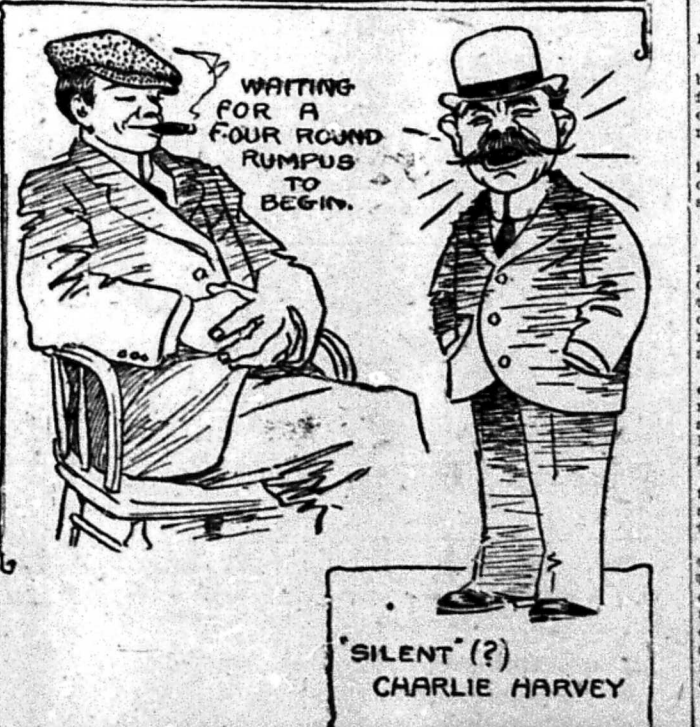

Artist Meek Takes a Peek at the Great and Near-Great at Owen Moran's Training Camp

He Also Gives His Impressions of a Fighter's Camp Upon His First Visit to One

BY C. S. MEEK. A fighter's training camp is a mighty interesting place. I spent five hours recently at Billy Shannon's resort in San Rafael, Cal., where Owen Moran is twisting and stretching himself into shape for the big doings July Fourth, when he is to tackle Ad Wolgast. This was my first visit to a training camp. Somehow I always had a vague idea that a training camp had to be in a tent, because it was a camp. It's not that way. Billy Shannon's quarters are two-thirds saloon and one-third gymnasium. Moran gets in there (the gym) with an abbreviated bathing suit on and goes through all kinds of funny doings. About the funniest thing is the shadow boxing. Owen prances and dodges around, and every now and then takes a stiff poke at the air. At the time he can see his opponent in his mind's eye. He just puts it all over him. It's surprising how many people are looking for trouble. There is always a bunch of young fellows around there just aching to go four rounds with Moran. It doesn't take him long, however, to put the blinker on them. These four-round affairs are carried out (so are some of Moran's sparring partners) without the prize ring rope boundaries, which makes it very nice for Owen, as there is nothing to stop his sparring partners from rolling when he lands them a good punch. They don't seem to mind it a bit, as they jump right up and come back for more. "Mysterious Billy" Smith is also around the camp quite a bit. I couldn't help seeing him, as he runs considerable as to quantity. There's a padded operating table that Owen lies on while several muscular youths maul him. This is called a rubbing table. When Moran jumps up he's as pink and florid as a day old coat of sunburn. Billy Shannon is a genial host. Billy used to wax stic eloquence with the mitts himself in days long past. He has a healthy handshake and calls you "pal." His manner is jaunty. Maybe it's because he wears slippers and his soft shirt bags out between his suspenders. "Silent" Charlie Harvey, Moran's manager, is also very interesting. He can tell you more things in a minute than a suffragist. Don't take that prefix to Charlie's name too seriously. There's nothing much to it. Charlie has it all doped out why Moran will be champ July Fourth and he puts a lot of confidence in one little Englishman. Yes, a training camp is some interesting even to those who don't know or appreciate pugology, bull-ology and other kinds of "ologies" passed out gratis.

EDITORS TALK ABOUT BERGER'S FIRST SPEECH

Most of Them Treat Question of Socialism With Respect. By National Socialist Press. Washington, June 29.—Every mail brings into Berger's office clippings from all over the country showing that editors have found it necessary to comment on Berger's maiden speech. Some enterprising editors are printing paragraph comments from their exchanges relating to the Socialist representative's recent effort in the house. What Editorials Say. Most of these editorials treat Berger and Socialism with respect. They all disagree with the Socialist position, but they have progressed so far that they can discuss our point of view without referring to Socialists as traitors, anarchists, etc. But now and then Berger receives an editorial clipping disclosing that the nineteenth century editor is still alive and kicking. Here is a sample from the Fort Wayne, Ind., News, entitled "Berger's Impudence": "Mr. Berger would substitute the red flag or Socialism and aarchy for the stars and stripes, and he does not hesitate to declare his position. "The American congress as a legislative body is the judge of its own members and that it fails to kick Berger out as an impudent alien and a traitor to the government whose atb he was obliged to take in order to draw the salary he does not earn is a serious reflection on the personnel of the house of representatives. Just Listen "If Mr. Berger does not like the man-

Blame Dame Fashion for Swelling Wayward Girl Ranks

THE "NEW" LITTLE GIRL

"OLD-FASHIONED" GIRL

Apling Dame Fashion, with its new fangled extremes in picture hats, high heeled shoes, ill fitting and uncomfortable hobbie skirts, swells the ranks of delinquent girls. Judge O'Donnell of Toledo, Ohio, Juvenile court declares that the little girl in the glinzham frock, and hair tied with ribbons seldom gives the court trouble.

Judge Hulbert of the Denver court is much of the same opinion. Neither of the judges claims to have investigated as to whether or not the girls were of working class parentage. Both advise mothers to pay more attention to their daughter's wardrobes, but the press reports do not tell how the wherewithal is to be got to dress the girls in styles uncommon at the bargain counters.

VERY CHIC
The midsummer hats are very attractive this season, being made of lace and the shirred net, and of embroidery with the net. The old fashioned poke bonnet is still in vogue and is very pretty when made of the sheer materials.

One of the most striking hats seen was made of the bonnet shape, with the top of white hair straw and a frill of lace around the edge.

Just above the lace was a wreath of little French rosebuds. In the back was a large bow of waterproof moline of the deep shade of pink.

This hat can be made at home and is very dressy for afternoon or evening.

"BEING WRECKED IN TORNADO NOTHING," SAYS MASTER DIVER WHO RISKED LIFE 15 YEARS FOR $35 A DAY

FIGHTING BLINDLY BENEATH RUSHING WATERS, HOLDING BREATH FOR THREE MINUTES AND HAVING HIS LIFE SAVED BY ACCIDENT ONLY ONE OF MANY THRILLING EXPERIENCES TOLD BY J. H. C. POMEROY.

THE CELILO RAPIDS AND J. H. C. POMEROY, MASTER DIVER, JUST UP FROM A DEEP DIVE.

Otis, Ore.—Down in the boiling waters, where even fish cannot make headway; down under a trestle flooring with only an eighteen-inch hole of escape; with your air-pipe useless, your diving helmet gone, and the lead-shod feet pulling you to the bottom; down into the swirl and the cold and your breath held until your ear drums crack; feeling desperately along the rough planking, feeling blindly for the little hole that means life, and you must find it in half a minute more or die.

If this is to be the sort of a job you want you can get $35 and expenses for four hours a day.

There is one master diver on the Pacific coast, one man who does, or did, the big things from Siberia to the Isthmus. He is J. H. C. Pomeroy, now of Otis, Ore.

The little incident above happened to Pomeroy last summer when he was working on a bridge at Celilo, Ore. He was under a flooring in the rapids when his emergency line and air-pipe became entangled. He had to claw his way through the rushing water, feeling, inch by inch, under the planking. His hair happened to stick up through a crack and the men above pushed him back to the small place of escape, and he was rescued.

HE WAS UNDER THREE MINUTES WITHOUT A HELMET AND HE DIDN'T GET A DROP OF WATER IN HIS LUNGS.

Hold your breath for three minutes and see whether $35 a day is too much or not. Doctors will tell you it can't be done, but Pomeroy says he did it, and he was back in two days.

They pay $12 an hour overtime for diving, and on the Celilo job Pomeroy earned $4.700 in thirty days.

With it he bought a coast cruising boat, started a general store, and retired to the simple life after fifteen years of diving.

A month after he began his coastwise trips he was caught in the biggest storm the Pacific has spat out in twenty years. His thirty-ton boat beached itself, after five hours' fighting, and Pomeroy floated ashore on three doors, taking with him a coil of clothesline, with which he brought in his three shipmates.

But Pomeroy considers that merely a day's pleasure jaunt. He dug his engines out of the sand, and is going to have another boat and try it again.

Pomeroy has nerve; they pay for nerve mostly on the diving job. He went into Alaska before the Klondike rush, after having roamed the earth. A river captain had a diving suit, but nobody to go down in it. For $25 a day Pomeroy took the job of crawling along the bottom of the most treacherous river in the world.

Some time when you are broke just tackle the diving job and go down a hundred feet with nothing to depend on but your nerve and the even bet that your air line doesn't get fouled or your emergency line twisted.

Pomeroy worked one time 125 feet below the surface. Nobody ever worked any deeper, despite pleasings flouted about treasure hunters exploring the canyons of the sea. At 125 feet you reach the last inch that the strongest diving suit can stand the water's pressure, and your air pump has to work to many a pound a square inch to keep you from being caved in and squeezed out a pulp.

The diving job is the best paid "laboring" job in the world, but Master Diver Pomeroy prefers tornadoes off a treacherous coast in a cockleshell to the pleasing incidents of his regular job.

And yet Pomeroy doesn't think much of anything that ever happened to him.

DINED ON BARBED WIRE AND THEN 'KICKED THE BUCKET'

Los Angeles, Cal., June 29.—"Emperor William" is dead. The emperor was one of the pioneer ostriches of the farm near here, and was one of the finest and largest birds in the southwest. He was introduced to hundreds of the most distinguished citizens of the land. He carried his dignity well, and would still be carrying it had not he attempted to devour about two feet of barbed wire.

He was sick for several weeks and all remedies failed to relieve him of his ailment, which was thought to be gastritis.

The body was sent to a taxidermist, who discovered the tines of the wire had penetrated the walls of the stomach. Ostriches have a sort of revolving stomach which grinds and grinds, breaking up stone, wood and other hard substances. But the wire was too much for him.

HOT AIR AS A POLISHER

Hot air is now used for polishing. The articles to be treated are placed in a basket in a centrifugal machine driven at a very high speed, and heated air is blown from a pipe through the basket. A high polish is thus produced very rapidly. Nickel-plated articles that have become tarnished are made bright in a few minutes. Wet metal, fresh from the bath, needs no preliminary drying, for the current of air dries and polishes it at the same moment.—Harper's Weekly.

TO SAVE TOWELS

A piece of bedtick about a yard square, preferably old, will save your kitchen towels. This square should be hemmed and a loop of tape by which to hang it fastened at one end. It is the best kind of holder for handling hot utensils or taking pies and cakes from the oven.—Louisville Herald.

ALL AROUND THE HOME
By Cynthia Grey

If kettle scorchers on the bottom, turn plate upside down in the bottom of kettle, fill with water and boil rapidly.

Mix cake in earthenware, never in a tin. Use wooden spoons, if possible.—Milwaukee Journal.

CANNED CHERRIES
Use only the solid fruit, adding hot water as needed, but save all juice; heat and can. Splendid for mince pies or fruit sauce to eat with baked pudding.—Washington Herald.

WHAT SHE GETS
When a man goes out to buy a collar he comes back with a collar, and perhaps a necktie or two. When a woman goes out to buy a collar she returns exhausted with a new silk blouse, a pair of gloves, some skirt binding, a cake of soap, a paper of pins, some window curtains, a sewing machine, and a mangle.

To remove the sticky flypaper glue from garment or furniture, use turpentine.

Use up small pieces of toilet soap by boiling in water until dissolved, then thicken it with cornmeal. Excellent for whitening hands.

Remove core from grapefruit with sharp-pointed scissors instead of knife.

No Real Argument Against Woman Suffrage

Professor Max Eastman of Columbia university, discussing woman suffrage, says: "I do not believe there is any other subject so liberally talked about as woman suffrage, and yet there is not one real argument against it. When two persons are involved in an argument they try to convince each other that each is right. It is no argument in reality, but merely a conflict of two different tastes. This is the reason that a good many persons do not understand what woman suffrage means.

"Woman suffrage would undoubtedly be of the greatest benefit to the people and to the nation. One-fifth of the female population of the United States is employed in shops, factories and similar establishments. Yet these same women cannot better their conditions, and some of the conditions under which they work are horrible. These women and girls need citizenship, and need it badly, and before this argument our personal thoughts on the subjects are not worthy of consideration. And if these working women need the ballot, so do all of the rest.

"Some time ago the question was raised as to whether women would purify politics if given the ballot. No doubt they would, but we are not going to drag them down to politics; we are going to uplift politics for them.

"There are more educated women than educated men in this country. Our women are educated and are going to be more so when they receive the ballot. Their percentage of votes will be so great as to cause a big decrease in the uneducated vote. The franchise will also arouse and educate women in worldly matters."

In South Africa

BY A. CRAWFORD, Editor "Voice of Labor" (South Africa)

Political Versus Economic Power in South Africa

Political power cannot be exercised independent of economic power. The Labor party of Australia started out as Socialists, striving to inaugurate Socialism. Even today most of them would "like" to help Socialism, but they are positively compelled to perpetuate capitalism.

I have already mentioned the great anti-capitalist reaction which succeeded the war. The capitalist "nominated" government was quickly replaced by a Dutch government as soon as a democratic franchise and representative government was inaugurated.

The cabinet nominees, however, had done enough "damage" to serve them until they could bring the minds of the people back to a right way of thinking.

The Liberal government of Great Britain was returned to power with a mandate to repatriate the hordes of Chinese who had been introduced into South Africa. The Dutch party also stood for this, hence the Liberals granted the Transvaal a constitution, calculated to return the Dutch party to power.

But the economic position was this: A shortage of the cheap labor supply meant unpayable reef, the closing up of mines, unemployment, commercial ruin, etc., etc.

So General Botha, recognizing as a politician—he is a poor politician, but he can be told—that the economic is the superior, promised not to repatriate a single Chinaman unless he could first replace him with a laborer as efficient and cheap. "Repatriation and replacement" was his election cry, and the capitalist of the Rand greedily consented to his political rule.

For every Chinaman sent away two cheaper laborers from Portuguese East Africa have taken his place. Government became virtually a recruiting agency for cheap colored mine labor and the capitalist press commenced to eulogize General Botha's statesmanlike qualities. And General Botha has none.

When the miners' strike of 1907 was on the capitalists folded their arms. The gold in the mines would remain. A continued strike would strike the middle classes and the farmers. The government would be compelled to intervene, and it did.

The Dutch government which had been returned by British votes—by the votes of men who had fought them in the late war and were sorry for it—actually sent the military out to shoot down strikers.

I shall never forget the day I went with an army of strikers from Lermiston to the Golden Gate, and the few of us who were left to scab were scabbed to scabbing.

On our arrival a company of mounted police confronted us with guns and across the road which led to the mine shaft a company of Cameron Highlanders stood at attention with bayonets fixed and gleaming in the sun.

Here, in juxtaposition were two forces who had fought and bled together in the late war, ready at the command of their former enemy to annihilate each other!

The union was decided upon it was universally recognized that the premier of the largest and oldest colony would be the first union premier. Mr. John X. Merriman is the greatest statesman in Africa. Compared with him, General Botha is a political pigmy.

But Merriman hates the mine magnate, or at least despises the despoilers of peaceful nationhood. Merriman is too strong to be influenced.

First the capitalists, recognizing their political inferiority, tried to get General Botha to join the raider, Dr. Jameson, and form a coalition government. Botha was weak and willing, but his party natched up its supporters throughout the land and decided to try for power on its own hook.

Lord Gladstone, the former home secretary, with a reputation tattered and torn in conflict with suffragettes, was appointed first governor general of United South Africa. On his arrival at Capetown it was his duty to call the man to whom would be entrusted the duty of forming the first union government. Of course that was Mr. Merriman—nobody doubted it. And Gladstone left Southampton with Merriman in his mind.

But while he was at sea things were happening. The capitalist press of South Africa started out to create a public sentiment in favor of General Botha, the only capitalist hope of keeping Merriman out.

Merriman was fair to the natives. The color prejudice of the white man in the Transvaal was played upon. Merriman's speeches were twisted and turned to mean anything they did not mean and everything that was bad.

And when Lord Gladstone landed in Capetown he found to his surprise that the Associated Press announces that the orthodox Jewish congregations of Washington, D. C., have endorsed President Taft and are for his re-election in 1912.

Rabbi Margolis of New York and Levinthal of Philadelphia, sung praises to Taft for his liberality toward the Jews.

A contrast of the treatment accorded the Jew in this country and the persecution of him in Russia was made! Well, this is really silly, if it is true. Conditions here are different and better than in Russia for everyone, be he Jew or gentile.

Any country these gentlemen compare this country with Russia, a most barbarous country?

Is it because the Ghetto of New York city comes close to resembling the miserable living conditions of the downtrodden people of Russia?

What has Taft done to deserve your praise? Has he tried to remove the stigma that is placed upon the Jew by Russia? A government which tolerates religious freedom should not be compelled to suffer humiliation at the hands of its citizens.

What has Taft done to wipe away this infamy? Will these high priests please tell?

In the Triangle Shirtwaist fire of New York many Russian Jewish girls lost their lives to feed the God of Greed. The moonings and walls of the heret still ring fresh in everyone's ears. Has Taft heard of the horrible happening?

What has he done to prevent such things? What has he done or said to safeguard the life of the worker?

Tell us, gentlemen of the cloth, what has he done? Please also tell whom do you represent?

PAMPHLET ON McNAMARA CASE Frank E. Wolfe of Los Angeles has written a startling pamphlet which gives a history of the Times disaster and the subsequent attempt to turn the occasion of a gas explosion and fire in a death trap into a "dynamite outrage" perpetrated by members of labor unions.

The pamphlet is calculated to set at rest all doubts in the minds of the working class as to the conspiracy in the McNamara case. It carries a wonderful parallel with the civil war in Colorado and shows that, step by step, the crime against labor there are being duplicated at this hour.

The story, with its gruesome shadow of the gallows as a background, will cause many to think and it should do untold good in straightening out the thought of the workers as to the actual situation in Los Angeles and California.

Socialist News From Everywhere

OUR VISITORS George F. Partridge of Schafer, N. D., one of the most active workers in the Socialist movement in America, is visiting with his brother, Dr. Partridge, 6029 Kimbark avenue.

Comrade Partridge has the distinction of having sent in more subscribers to the Appeal to Reason in a week than any other hustler, and by so doing won ten acres of land in Arkansas. Altogether Comrade Partridge has secured over 1,000 subscribers to the Appeal to Reason.

He is a member of a strictly farmers' local near Schafer, N. D. As a means of raising money for propaganda purposes the local recently gave an entertainment, the proceeds of which went into literature for general distribution.

Hermann Meyer, Cincinnati, O., passed through Chicago Monday on his way home from the big seagetter in Milwaukee.

"Comrades in Cincinnati are well pleased with the Daily," said Comrade Meyer, "and we all hope that it will continue to grow, not only in size but also in influence."

POLICE ARREST SOCIALIST UNDER ANCIENT BLUE LAW Special Correspondence. Pittsburgh, Pa., June 22.—Hugh Matchett, a Socialist and member of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers' International Union of America was arrested on last Sunday morning for distributing copies of the Bakers' Journal containing on the front page a large display attack on the new bread trust and its "open shop" policy.

Matchett was arraigned on Monday after having been locked up for one hour on Sunday. He was dismissed after a hearing, but says that he will bring suit for false imprisonment.

It was later learned that he was arrested under an old blue law, enacted in 1794 by the legislature of Pennsylvania, while Pittsburg was still a borough, before the day of the railroads. The enforcement of the law would put all fruit stands, soda fountains, Sunday papers, etc., out of business.

LARGE AUDIENCES GREET SPEAKERS IN PENNSYLVANIA Reading, Pa., June 22.—The meetings of Ralph Korgold and Lena Morrow Lewis, held during the past week were uniformly successful. Saturday evening Korgold had an audience of six hundred on Penn street east of Fifth. On Sunday evening both speakers were in Pendera park, 19th street, where about six hundred people, many of whom were women, were interested listeners for fully two hours. On Monday Mrs. Lewis spoke to about three hundred men and women at Riverside, and Korgold to fully five hundred at Oley street and Schuylkill avenue.

From here Comrade Korgold continues touring the cities and towns of eastern Pennsylvania; and Comrade Lewis goes to Michigan and the western country.

ANOTHER SOCIALIST INCREASE Modesto, Cal.—The Socialists of this place gained over 100 per cent at their last city election.

The vote for Stitt Wilson last November was 309. The recent vote was 222 for G. D. Rice, their candidate for mayor. The highest vote cast for a Socialist councillor was 251.

The independent candidate for mayor, John Harrison, one of the present councilmen, received 130 votes. Mr. G. J. Wren, the successful candidate for mayor, received 542 votes. The ladies of the Socialist local prepared supper and ice cream and cake for the candidates, the watchers at the polls, and invited the two bands of the city to join with us in celebrating our good vote. The men's band refused an offer of a good price to play for the business men's ticket, and played for us for nothing.

BERKELEY SOCIALISTS WIN OVER OLD-PARTY FUSION Here is a significant news item—but news withheld by the capitalist press: "When J. Stitt Wilson was elected Mayor of Berkeley, Cal., several weeks ago, the organs of the 'Interests' announced that it was an 'accident.' But a couple of days ago another election was held in Berkeley, which had adopted the commission form of government, for two commissioners and two members of the school board. Not a line appeared in the eastern papers giving the result of the second election, probably for the reason that the Socialists swept the city and secured all four offices by 200 to 1,000 majority over the fusion Republican-Democratic ticket. Now the Socialists have complete control of Berkeley."

LITHUANIANS TO HOLD CONVENTION SOON Philadelphia, Pa.—The Lithuanian Socialist Federation of America will hold a convention in Brooklyn, N. Y., beginning July 1, 1911, at 8 a. m., at Palace hall, 89-93 Grand street. They have requested representatives of the national organization to be present for the reason that they are considering the advisability of direct affiliation with the Socialist party. Comrades Hilliquet and Solomon have been requested to attend. The Lithuanian Federation reports, 157 branches, with about 3,000 members. Their national headquarters are at 1515 E. Moyamensing avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

TRI-STATE SOCIALIST PICNIC The Socialists of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania will hold a great picnic in Rock Springs, Pa., Monday, August 21. It will be the greatest picnic ever attempted in this part of the country by the Socialists. The railroad trains will carry the crowds at excursion rates. The ride from Pittsburgh is 85 miles. The tickets for adults are 85 cents, children 65 cents.

IOWA Greenfield, Iowa.—As a result of the excellent speech given by National Organizer Gertrude Breslau Hunt during the recent special election of a congressman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Walter I. Smith of the Ninth congressional district of Greenfield, the comrades here are making an endeavor to secure a return date from that speaker.

BOHEMIANS TO AFFILIATE The Bohemian National Socialist organization, with headquarters in Chicago, representing a membership of about 800, through its secretary, Comrade Tom Pesek, has made application for affiliation with the Socialist party upon the same lines and conditions as prevail with the Finnish and German organizations.

SAN DIEGO COMRADE DIES We are sorry to report the death of Comrade Bletz of San Diego, Cal. He was an ardent supporter of the Daily Socialist and assisted the paper in financial ways several times. His death was the result of an accident sustained while at work last February.

RAILWAY POSTAL CLERKS AND SOLDIERS BY M. C. MOHR. If our railway postal clerks were suddenly extinct, every man in the United States would know of it. We sun-down; but should our soldiers be made extinct, the common man would scarcely know it, other than through the papers, for years, and yet if the postal clerk was disabled for life, even by putting out both his eyes, he would only receive one year's pay, while if the soldier would get an arm cut off he would receive double pay the rest of his life. Gee! What a government we have.

Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free.—Scripture.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

HOW CHARMING YOU LOOK IN YOUR BATHING SUIT, MISS DAZZLER. OH, YOU MERMAID!

OH, YOU MERMAID! EH? REMEMBER, EVERETT, YOUR WIFE IS SOME MERMAID TOO!
