

DIX AND MURPHY TO GO TO BALTIMORE Named by Democrats as Delegates to National Convention.

It took the Democrats of this State less than three hours yesterday to nominate their delegates to the national convention at Baltimore, draw up a platform and adjourn. These were the four delegates at large and their alternates named at the State convention held at Terrace Garden: Delegates: Governor John A. Dix, of Washington; Senator James A. O'Gorman, of New York; Alton B. Parker, of Ulster; Charles F. Murphy, of New York. Alternates: John D. Drimmins, of New York; Abraham J. Elias, of Erie; John W. Webber, of Kings; John J. Irvine, of Broome.

The platform adopted was distinctly conservative, and while it calls for an enunciation of principles at Baltimore in keeping "with the progressive spirit of the age," it records the Democracy of this State as being opposed to governmental interference with "legitimate enterprise and industry" and against "destructive innovations and vagaries which would weaken and destroy the courts."

There was a little flurry at the meeting of the Rules Committee when an effort was made by the Woman Suffrage party to have an equal suffrage plant put in the platform. Mayor Sague fought for the women and Mrs. W. W. Penfield made a speech, but the committee refused to listen to the plea.

VARIED OPINIONS ON VARIED SUBJECTS

the Hartford papers, one would not dream that the Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists had all lost ground from 1910 to 1912, the Republicans, in spite of an apparent victory, losing more ground than any other party. All parties lost except the Socialist party, the Socialist party making a gain of 23 per cent in the two years, increasing their vote from 219 to 339 and gaining 4 per cent compared with the total vote cast. For the first time over 1,000 Socialist votes were cast in the city of Hartford, the latest number of Socialist votes cast for Registrar amounting to 1,062.

There is very little consolation for the old parties in these figures, which reveal the real status of things locally. Many other cities and towns in Connecticut tell the same story when this test is applied. The Socialist party is looming up strong as a political factor and can no longer be ignored even in the State. The future belongs to the Socialists.

There were also two Socialists by the name of Corrgan and Mallonee, who ran for President. Corrgan's name was not in the ring. It might be said the President was using it for a megaphone. By the way, as Miss Esther Sulzman, of Hartford, has been nominated for Secretary of State by the local party, it is now in order to say that her hat is in the ring.

Official Labor News Greater New York

LABOR SECRETARIAT. By Anton Nebel, Tem. Secy. A regular meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Labor Secretariat was held on Saturday, March 30, at the Brooklyn Labor Lyceum, 949 Wiloughby Avenue, Brooklyn.

John Hohn, of Building Employees' Union No. 12,959, A. F. of L., was elected temporary chairman. Chairman Charles Markloff, of German Bricklayers' Accident Fund, arriving later and taking the chair.

In the absence of Secretary Charles Moller, of Carpenters and Joiners' Union No. 52, who is still sick, Anton Nebel, of Brewers' Union No. 1, acted as temporary secretary and read the minutes of the February meeting and of the March meeting of the Board of Directors, which were approved as read.

At said directors' meeting delegates from local unions of the United Brewery Workers of America, consisting of brewers, bottlers and drivers and beer drivers, reported that a proposed workmen's compensation and pension plan between the employing brewers and the brewery workmen is being voted upon by the local union of the brewery workmen; S. John Block, counsel, read a number of the provisions of said plan and pointed out a number of flaws in it which would be disadvantageous to the workmen; he showed that the plan made no provision for a fixed compensation for permanent injuries such as the loss of a hand, an eye, an arm, a leg, etc.

A communication was read from the Fur Floor Workers' Union No. 1,218, A. F. of L., stating that the union had reconsidered its intention to join the Labor Secretariat, and, therefore, did not pay its dues to the Labor Secretariat. A committee, consisting of A. Heib, of Fur Dressers' Union, and Joseph Weiss, of Bootlers and Drivers' Union No. 345, was elected to investigate the matter and to report.

The report for the month of March, 1912, of S. John Block, counsel to the Labor Secretariat, was read and approved. Counsel stated, among other things, that he had drawn two bills which were introduced in the New York State Legislature. One of the bills would render it easier and less expensive to obtain judgments in accident cases where the defendants do not appear, and serve answers in the State of New York. The other bill would render it easier and less expensive to obtain judgments in accident cases where the defendants do not appear, and serve answers in the State of New York.

Committees reported that Bricklayers' Union No. 37, and a joint meeting of the local unions of the Piano, Organ and Musical Instrument Workers' International Union of America had been visited and requested to join the Labor Secretariat, and that said organizations have not yet taken definite action in the matter.

The following auditing committee was selected: Joseph Weiss, of Bootlers and Drivers' Union No. 345; John Hohn, of Building Employees' Union No. 12,959, A. F. of L., and Charles Markloff, of German Bricklayers' Accident Fund.
