

SOCIALISM'S STEADY PROGRESS.—EUGENE V. DEBS' REVIEW OF THE SITUATION ABOUT THE COUNTRY.

The outcome of the national election last fall revealed an unexpected factor, a factor which was a surprise to the nation. In the short space of two years the number of Socialists has increased from about 130,000 to almost 400,000, and this at a time when the dominant issue and "let well enough alone" the slogan of the day was the Greenback, Populist and other parties, to which it has been committed to the abolition of capitalist production and the substitution of the co-operative commonwealth.

DRAWN INTO THE CAPITALIST MILL. How the Modern Shop Girl is Exploited.

It is my business to introduce novel-ty to the trade of the great department store of the country. I have a number of girls to "demonstrate" in the different stores of New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other cities. This gives me an opportunity of studying the working life of the sales women at close range. It is a heart-breaking study. I find overwork, small wages, and constant fear of dismissal. Worse than all this is the constant pressure upon the girls to push them down to a life of disaster.

The new department of commerce. The new department of commerce will have the unique distinction of dealing with the largest commercial interests of the world. In domestic exports, in manufacturing, in transportation and in internal commerce the United States is at the head of the world's list of great nations.

Socialism and the Negro. The last national convention of the Socialists passed the following resolutions: Whereas, the negroes of the United States, because of their long training in slavery and but recent emancipation from it, occupy a peculiar position in the working class and in society at large; lutions. If the mortality among the clergymen is considered as the minimum or equal to 100, then that among the other occupations is as follows: Gardeners 108, Agricultural laborers 123, Fishermen 143, Carpenters 148, Shoemakers 166, Bakers and millers 172, Masons 174, Cabinetmakers 173, Workers in woolen manufactures 186, Workers in cotton manufactures 196, Printers 193, Bookbinders 210, Quymen 202, Lead workers, painters, glaziers 216, Outfitters 235, Coachmen 267, Brewers 245, File cutters 300, Potters 313, Inn servants 397.

WATCH REPAIRING. Many good watches have been ruined by bungling repairs. I do expert repairing and am willing to stand on my record as such. If you have watch repairs to be done—I will repair your watch and promise to do it right at a reasonable price. L. SACHS, The Jeweler, 418 NATIONAL AVE. 10% discount to union men.

petition, by the revolutionary combination, due to association. The development of modern industry, therefore, cuts from under its feet the very foundation on which the bourgeoisie produces and appropriates products. What the bourgeoisie therefore produces, above all, are its own gravediggers. Its fall and the victory of the proletariat (working class) are equally inevitable.

What we observe today upon every hand are simply signs of economic transformation, and Socialists interpret them to mean that the present competitive system has about fulfilled its mission, and that, like the feudal system from which it sprang, it must soon give way to another, more compatible with the onward march of civilization.

Every combine increases the momentum and hastens the end. Every injunction is a lubricant to the machinery. Industrial and commercial competition have had their day. The small tools used by individuals have become mammoth machines operated by armies. Production has been socialized; the means of production will have to be. Fifty thousand steel workers will not forever permit Andrew Carnegie to take their product upon the pretext that the tool they use is his "private property," and that the product, therefore, belongs to him.

Socialism and the Social Movement in the Nineteenth Century

By Prof. WERNER SOMBART of Breslau. Translated by Anson P. Atterbury, with an Introduction by John B. Clark, Professor of Political Economy in Columbia University. This is a scientific work by a critic of socialism, not a propagandist, but by a critic who has the rare merit of understanding socialism and telling the truth about it. Thus it is a book that is invaluable to the socialist writer or speaker who wishes to have a clear insight into the underlying principles of socialism, while it makes an excellent propaganda work for the intellectual proletariat.

The coal mines of Pennsylvania are as necessary to modern life as the sunlight and atmosphere. So the railroads and telegraph and telephone. So the oil and sugar refineries, steel mills, tanneries, and all the rest of these agencies as soon as they have destroyed competition and monopolized the field.

Private ownership of the centralized means of production and distribution! It must be one or the other. Which? History leaves no room for doubt. What "the people" want they take. The trouble is that they have been too patient and too modest, but they do finally act, and one of these days they are going to realize that this earth is theirs, and then they will take possession of it in the name of the human race.

Industrial democracy will wrest the earth from its exploiters and its vast and inexhaustible storehouses will yield abundance for all. The growth of Socialism is the promise of freedom and brotherhood—the radiant herald of the dawn. Eugene U. Debs.

It gives the best known treatment for La Grippe, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Consumption, Appendicitis, and every other disease. It is not an advertisement and has no medicine to sell. NOTES FROM YANKEE-LAND.

President E. T. Behrens of the Missouri State Federation of Labor has come out for Socialism.
Father McGrady makes a tour of Massachusetts, commencing April 6, after speaking in Connecticut.
Several branches in Ohio have petitioned for a referendum on the recall of State Committeeman Critchlow.
Comrade George D. Herron will make a tour of the principal cities of the country between New York and Denver in the spring.
The national secretary will shortly call for nominations for the party's representative to the international Socialist congress at Amsterdam in 1904.
The Socialists expect to carry Butte, Mont., at the election the first Monday of April. They are doing some hard campaigning.

The Workingman-A-fraid-of-Himself was the significant title of a lecture delivered at the Rochester Labor Lyceum last week by Comrade F. A. J. Waldron.
Milwaukee Socialists now have an orchestra of five pieces. The men have joined the union and will have a benefit ball, May 10, at Utech's hall, Ninth and Greenfield avenues.

The Pennsylvania comrades sent a long letter to Pierpont Morgan, thanking him for demonstrating the fallacy of competition and the inevitability of Socialism.
Comrade Franklin H. Wentworth of Chicago held two interesting and well-attended meetings in Milwaukee last week. An effort will be made to secure him for several dates in Wisconsin.
The financial report for January of the national headquarters shows monthly expenses of $804.61 and receipts of $757.16. Wisconsin sent in $74.40; New York and Massachusetts each $50.

The New York Worker suggests a connection between the activity of Comrade Untermyer of the Appeal to Reason in favor of the Omaha headquarters and the fact that while the headquarters is at Omaha Untermyer remains a member of the quorum.
Comrade A. S. Edwards of Chicago will lecture in Milwaukee, March 11, at Meixner's hall, Vliet and Twenty-seventh streets, subject, "Production and Distribution of Wealth." He will also speak March 12, at Siefaff's hall, Mitchell street and Muskego avenue, subject, "Poverty and Property."

The Colorado state committee has written an open letter in reply to the many criticisms aimed at them for their treatment of the members of the social crusade. They claim they have been trying to keep the Colorado movement from becoming middle class. The work of the crusaders, they say, was such that it never met the approval of the committee. The crusaders have our sympathy.

The Chicago comrades ordered 10,000 copies of the national platform for the municipal campaign from national headquarters. New copies of the platform, printed on better paper and with improved typographical appearance will soon be ready.
The Mills correspondence school is putting up a building in Kansas City; the workmen boarding at the school headquarters. Some of the Kansas City comrades will board at the school. Comrade Emil Stulz of Germany conducted the recent school examinations.

Rev. Frank Dixon is still trying to explode Socialism, this time at Reading, Pa. The Socialists there have secured Editor John Spargo of the Comrade, New York, to make a reply, and he will doubtless explode Dixon, as the latter is none too sure of his ground.
Comrade David C. Coates, editor of the Colorado Chronicle and ex-lieutenant governor of the state, has been elected president of the Denver Trades and Labor Assembly. Comrade Coates will take part in the city campaign at Butte, Mont.

A referendum of the locals of Arkansas for a state convention to form a state organization has been initiated by the national secretary. Comrade John S. Chase will probably be present to represent the national committee. Comrade Father Hagerty writes that Arkansas is in good shape for Socialist agitation.
The anti-DeLeon S. L. P. of Pennsylvania held a convention in Philadelphia last week. Lucian Sanial of New York was in attendance. Julius Eberle read a recital of the party troubles and said that the fact that the S. L. P. polled only 5000 votes in the state last fall, while the Social Democrats polled 22,000, convinced many of his fellows that the S. L. P. policy had not been a very wise one. Resolutions were passed favoring trade unionism and suggesting friendly relations with the other party with a possible unification in the future.

Socialist legislators McCartney and Carey of Massachusetts are addressing large crowds nightly, besides showing remarkable activity as members of the state Assembly. McCartney is maintaining a speakers' club, which is fitting out comrades for the agitation platform.
The capitalist representatives are fighting Carey's bill for automatic air brakes and couplers on freight cars, and McCartney is having fun with his public ownership of street railways bill. Both companies control the street railway interests of Massachusetts, but are able to thwart the opposition of the people.

Secretary Thomas Beresford of the California state committee has issued a circular letter urging that the national committee arrange a course of lessons, on the ground that the Mills lessons are not entirely scientific. Comrade Beresford charges that Comrade Mills uses his school to "exploit the movement," that he has an income of about $15,000 a year in tuitions, etc., and that he uses his pupils to maintain a meddlesome control in the party. He charges that Mills was at the bottom of the troubles in San Francisco and that his school, while located there, was "used as a means to caucus and plot." Other charges are made which we have no space for.

More Victories in the East.
Local elections were held last week in several Pennsylvania towns and cities with the usual result: Socialist gains everywhere. At Lansford, where the two capitalist parties united in fighting our movement, the Socialists gained complete control of the borough administration! They elected the chief burgess, a justice of the peace and a majority of the council and school board. Lansford is in the heart of the coal region and the men elected were active in the strike. Four of them having been indicted for "inciting to riot" on trumped up charges. At Reading the Socialists increased their vote of last fall, the head of the ticket polling 1139, as against 1117, which was Slayton's vote in November. The Socialists were the only party that made any gains. An inspector of election was elected. At Austin the Socialists elected their candidate for burgess by 57 plurality, and also landed two councilmen, a school director and an auditor. At Mahanoy City there was a gain of 100 per cent and at Erie and Duquesne a good vote was polled.

Wisconsin Field Notes.
Brotherhood, Feb. 28.—One gratifying result of the meetings we are holding over the state is the fact that after the lectures in nearly every case the local papers are filled with a discussion of Socialism. At Chilton a German paper has been publishing a column or two every week for a month. At New London the lectures drew the fire of all the papers and, as is frequently the case, certain "correspondents" are pressed into the service. Last night we received local papers from Two Rivers and Darlington. The Chronicle of Two Rivers of February 24 contains four full columns on Socialism. The Darlington Republican-Journal of February 6 has a column, a half devoted to an attempted reply to the Socialist position on competition.
At Port Washington the comrades say my lecture was the first they had had. The club was organized only last fall and yet is in a flourishing condition. We had splendid audiences at each lecture and there is every promise of a splendid work. The comrades have a plan in mind by which they expect to push out into the smaller places adjoining and organize the county. We have in this club some more comrades who have served the cause in Germany. One told me how, under the exception law, they had been compelled to resort to most peculiar methods to raise money. He said that it was a crime at that time there to have a subscription list to raise money for the Socialist work. So they used to carry their lists wrapped in a leaf of tobacco and hidden in the mouth. With the resolute comrades what may we not expect!

At Madison we had a young university student to preside. And at least a dozen students and professors attended the lecture, including Prof. Monaghan, who so furiously attacked Socialism recently in the State Journal. It is an encouraging thing to see the young men and women of the universities taking hold of Socialism. And these young folks are not at all some supine, sentimental, unreliable Socialists. Last summer I met a young lady in Denver, Col., who had been a member of the Wisconsin State University Club. She was as clear a Socialist as I have ever met—a full-fledged scientific member of the party. One of the present members at Madison had been same time presented in that beautiful spirit as only such men as he know how. May he live to see the full reward of his labor in the great co-operative commonwealth.

An S. L. P. and all of them, including a Japanese student in whose rooms the club meets, are class-conscious Socialists. We are hear from these young giants later. The Madison branch, like many others, is not at present very large in members, but mighty big in power for future service.
At Sharon I spoke in the Congregational Church, where I used to preach as pastor years ago. So far as I know there is only one Socialist in the place—a young woman. And yet we had over a hundred present and all listened attentively to the lecture and not a few told me that they could "see it coming."
On the way to Madison I overheard a conversation of a half dozen politicians which throws a flash of light upon the methods of modern politics which we are meeting right now. One exclaimed, "I would give more for an ounce of prejudice to control votes with than for a pound of conviction." See?
On the floor of the Senate chamber at Madison I heard a corporation lobbyist argue that unless the Legislature gave his corporation the legislation he wanted they would have to join the trust. "And you know what that would mean?" "Do you mean, sir, that the trust would run the government?" asked one of the senators, interrupting the speaker. "Yes, sir," said the corporation lobbyist. "I haven't seen the government on the face of the earth yet that could control the Standard Oil trust." And then there was silence in the Senate chamber for the space of half a minute—a long, impressive pause, and the speech went on. And I kept thinking, "Shall the people own the trust, or shall the trust own the people—ah! there's the rub!"
Carl D. Thompson.
