How Are You Going to Vote?

We elect a president next November. Are you going to vote with the Democrats, the party of the little capitalists, and try to put things back where they used to be? Or are you going to vote with the Republicans, the party of the big capitalists, and help keep things as they are? Or will you vote with the Socialist Party, the party of the workers, and help change things so that those who do the work will own what they produce? But possibly you do not know about the Socialist Party. Thus send four cents in stamps, and receive by return mail three books, Easy Lessons in Socialism, The Socialist Party, and What to Read on Socialism. Address

NOTES BY THE OFFICE BOY.

BY W. L. OURY.

FATHER Gone, Mother Ill, Children Starving—Pitiable Plight of Woman who Lies with Dead Babe Beside Her."

This headline copied from a Chicago paper refers not to a case in India or China. It is just one of thousands here in the great United States of America where there are two jobs for every man, nit! Where we produce two billions of necessities that we have to find foreign markets for. Where we find it impossible to feed our own women and children, but must have wars of conquest to find an outlet for the surplus that accumulates in the hands of the capitalist class. The above is simply one case out of thousands.

Boys, I would have you remember that this woman was some man's daughter. That her eye was bright, her cheeks, dimpled, her lips red and made to be kissed. That young men courted her even as they are now courting your sister or daughter. That perhaps her father and brothers and husband voted for the present system of commercial cannibalism of which she and her offspring are the victims.

Look out, boys, how you vote! You, by voting the old party tickets, may be voting to starve your mother, sister, wife or child. Look, think, study! Foresight is better than hindsight!

I AM greatly interested in Little Rock's pure food bill. As one of the dailies says:

"The people of Little Rock are entitled to have pure food, or food as pure as can be gotten in ordinary commerce."

That is the point. In ordinary commerce. Today everything is made to sell. Hang the use! Sell; Profit is the cry. Adulterate, substitute, poison, but profit. It is almost impossible for love or money to get anything but what is adulterated some way, or in some manner, to make profit. So, what in Sam Hill is the use of the pure food bill, when we know that "in ordinary commerce" it is impure? Try again, Mr. Alderman. How about an ordinance for a municipal bakery, flour mill, coal yard, waterworks, free bath houses, laundries, playgrounds, stores and a number of other reasonable and practical ideas?

The only effect of the pure food law would be to give some fellow a job and to give the grocers' association a cinch.

WHOOOP it up for pulling the wool over the eyes of the dear people. A certain VanDuzer, congressman from Nevada, dared to speak in behalf of the miners of Colorado, and the financial interests of the United States are after his scalp. A union of the financial interests of the country is to elect Banker Nixon. Kerrec! The fool workingmen that vote with and for the old parties ought and, of a certainty, will get it in the neck. So mote it be!

BY the way, what is the matter with the workingmen voting with and for themselves once in awhile? You know Debs. He's a union man. He knows what it means to go to jail on account of championing the cause of labor. What's the matter with him as against Teddy, the friend of scabs, and Davis, the multi-millionaire who was ever the enemy of organized labor? You remember it was Davis who discharged every union mixer he had. He it was who had Jackson issue an injunction forbidding Debs and others from leaving their boarding houses in West Virginia.

DID you read the hot air of Brother Teddy R. regarding labor and capital? He says we recognize in each the right to organize, and then he adds: "Each kind of organization is to be favored so long as it acts in a spirit of justice and of regard for the rights of others. Each is to be granted the full protection of the law and each in turn is to be held to a strict obedience of the law." Now what do you think of that? Say, if there is any union man in the country who thinks that such is the present condition, let him call on Willie. You know that Darwin never found the missing link between monkey and man. Well, the geezer who thinks that labor has the full protection of the law, will have a head on him that will prove to be the missing link.

Well, Comrade Roosevelt has nerve, I must admit, to make a statement like the above and Colorado only a few hundred miles away. Strike in Houston on car line, in the cotton mills of the east, the packers, the miners, the Sante Fe railroad, Colorado, and dozens of other points. Injunctions, intimidation—and labor will receive full protection from the law. Say, Annannias was not in the same class with strenuous Teddy.

A GIRL came to the city last week to find employment. The four jobs that our republican friends say are looking for every person were absent and the girl was found in one of the joints of the city. The papers gave the news, the dear people read it and thought, "how sad," but few tried to solve the conditions that made this possible, aye necessary.

It's an old story. It occurs every day. Cannot get, and must have have bread. Prostitution offers a living and respectability offers starvation. It's the system, the system that you have supported, and that you endorse every time you vote the old party ticket.

In Memphis on the same day was reported another case, with the girl but 18 years old. As she tells her story, she had to get out and earn her own living. Some skunk in Birmingham ruined her, and as an outcast she sank lower and lower until run in by the police.

Oh yes, some of the good ladies will offer to send her to some reform home. Some of the good (?) brethren will donate some coin (which they did not earn) to support the aforesaid home and the incident is closed. But the system that forces women to sing the Song of the Shirt, "and with fingers wan and thin, to faintly push back want and sin," ever forces thousands over the edge of virtue into the slough of prostitution. And yet you support the system. You do if you support Roosevelt or Parker, for they stand for the private ownership of the machinery of production, the immediate cause of all cussedness.

SPEAKING about the packing house strike, if all the officials were as honest as the Governor of Nebraska, things would be better for the workers. You see he did not believe the troops were needed, so he donned a suit of overalls and in disguise tramped to the stockyards and personally mingled with the strikers for several hours, thus being able to form his own conclusions. Say, he found the strikers peaceable and no troops needed. Well, when Teddy is asked, he will do as did Grover—send the regulars over the protest of the state executive. Democrat or republican, they must obey our captains of industry.

SAY, the old man sent me up to Yellville, Ark., to attend to some business for him. While there I investigated the mining claims. Whew, there are oceans of zinc and lead and building stone, but as usual a few have it all. The great number of people don't even own their own homes. They make a precarious living working for first one and then another of the companies that own the land. At present there is not much doing. On account of lack of confidence in the east, men with the coin are not taking hold very readily, so the poor devils of Marion county are experiencing hard times. Plenty of ore is out. Demand for lead and zinc is good, but—well, the owners of the jobs won't permit the workers to work. I talked to them of socialism. Many did not know there was such a thing. They knew there was a democratic nominee and a certain religious church, but that was all. I asked why they, all the people, could not own and operate the mines? Everyone said they could, but it would throw the financiers of the east out of a job? So it would, and what a blessing.

GLEANINGS.

The Central Trades and Labor Union of St. Louis has voted not to participate in the Labor Day celebration at the world's fair on the grounds that the exposition is conducted along open shop lines.

Two thousand cloak makers went on strike at Cleveland Monday. Increase in wages, recognition of the union and closed shops are demanded.

The general resumption of the glass lamp chimney factories scheduled for Monday did not occur on account of the failure to reach an agreement on the wage scale for machine work.

The strike of the papermakers in the Fox River Valley, Wisconsin, has been lost, the men returning to work under the terms of the mill owners.

This is the third, and possibly the decisive week in the controversy which threatens to put a stop to building operations in New York. It is declared by leaders of both sides that everything points to a fight to a finish between the unions and the building trades employers' association over the question of the open shop. There are now about 30,000 men out of work in the present difficulty.

The International Socialist and Trades Union Conference opened at Amsterdam, Holland, Sunday. There was great applause when Vice Presidents Katayama of Japan and Plekharoff of Russia publicly shook hands.

The congress unanimously adopted the following resolution proposed by a French delegate:

"At this moment, when czarism is stricken by war, the socialists here greet the Russian and Japanese proletariat, sacrificed and massacred by capitalism and governments, rely upon socialists everywhere to oppose by all means in their power the extension or continuation of the war."

From Cleveland we took the train for Terre Haute, where we met Eugene V. Debs and his brother Theodore, busy as bees, handling the large correspondence incident to the presidential campaign. He was also preparing to leave the city on a lecture tour. Debs is a tall, light-complexioned, nervous man, overflowing with magnetism and cordiality. He is also well informed, and expresses himself in good, strong language. I had never met him before, but had not talked to him five minutes until I could see why he is both so much loved and hated. He is positive and brings things to pass. We never like the man who disagrees with us, if he brings to success the cause we oppose. Debs is not a nonentity, but a thought-force in nervous activity. When he thinks, there is mental power; when he acts, things move. Socialism is largely made up of men of similar type. They think, they feel, they act. Thought without feeling is like a ship without steam. Feeling without thought is like a ship without a pilot. We must have steam in the engine room and brains in the pilot house of the old "ship of state," and we will be guided aright, with power to meet the demands of a growing age.—G. Lowther, in Social Ethics, Wichita, Kas.

Mayor Harrison of Chicago made an attempt to bring about a conference between the contending forces in the packing house strike the first of the week, but without waiting for the time set the packers sent a committee to the mayor and informed him it would do no good to arrange a joint conference with the strike leaders. The committee contended that the packers had already won the strike and had no reason to meet the strikers. The packers told the mayor that he should consider that they controlled Chicago's greatest industry and had such vast interests at stake that they could not be dominated by their employees; that prices of meat had not been raised and would not be raised because of the strike; that they could not accept anybody's intervention. The mayor is reported to have said that he was satisfied that his good offices were useless and that he would make no further effort to bring about a meeting between packers and strikers.

OBSERVATIONS.

By JOHN A. MORRIS

BETWEEN young Rockefeller, jr., and "Teddy" Roosevelt, jr., of Oyster Bay, N. Y., as Sunday-school teachers Christ wouldn't recognize his own doctrine as interpreted by these husky fellows. While Jesus was a "strenuous athlete" himself he died for his belief and did not color or distort facts to save himself from the Herods or the Pontius Pilates of the day. As to "Teddy," jr.'s efficiency as a teacher one of his scholars has the following to say:

"I like Mr. Roosevelt for a teacher. He tells us about fights and things. Gee, but I wished I'd been there when David soaked Goliath with that pebble. I'd 'a' got him to show me how to use his sling." * * * * * Mr. Roosevelt told us that if David had lived nowadays he probably would use a rifle. I guess he would, too, for a sling aint worth shucks. The last teacher we had was a lady, but we like Mr. Roosevelt better. The lady told us a lot about brotherly love and how if a feller smashes you on one jaw, you should turn around and let him smash the other. But Mr. Roosevelt don't teach that kind of Sunday-school at all."

All of which shows that Theodore Roosevelt, jr., a lad of 17, knows how to use the bible in favor of military power.

CHICAGO has a sensation-loving preacher by the name of Wm. M. Lawrence who uses the pulpit of the Second Baptist church from which to expound wisdom. He seems to believe in injecting journalistic features into Christian work and worship, as if truth were not the most sensational thing in the world. Among other things this reverend was guilty of saying:

"Exaggeration in the pulpit is allowable. The preacher in this rushing, sensation-loving age is justified in coloring and exaggerating for the sake of attracting his audience and keeping them keenly interested."

Methinks I smell a Jesuit mouse. The Jesuitism "The end justifies the means" is here prominently sticking out. When John D. Rockefeller, jr., colors things from the bible in order to make his life of legalized robbery appear right we have to say that whether Christianity as a doctrine of religious thought is true or not as an ecclesiastical arm of economic might it has been commercialized in favor of the powers that be; and the doctrines of "churchianity" (to borrow an expression from George D. Lorimer, another Baptist preacher) are colored to suit the taste of the prevailing class or the class in power. Thus ecclesiasticism becomes a strong arm in favor of the mode of economics of any given time and age of the world in which it happens to be.

NOT long ago millionaire directors of the New York Central railroad determined to kick for more pay for attending business meetings, the ten-dollar gold piece handed them as they left the room being considered too beggarly a tip. James Stillman, president of the National City Bank, says:

"It is somewhat of a nuisance having a small gold piece thrust upon you every time you attend a board meeting."

Yet these men would very strenuously oppose any workingman or organization of workingmen, who would want to have such small gold pieces thrust upon him every day for his day's work. Such nuisance, however, the workingman cheerfully welcome.

HENRY GASSAWAY DAVIS (what a name to conjure by) has done more than "gas away" his time during the past half century for he has been busy making money, and as an octogenarian and a trust magnate he can pose as the oldest man who ever ran on a democratic platform for the vice presidential position, also the richest one.

"All the world's a stage and the people merely actors," but some of us play decidedly "supe" parts.

The democratic platform says that "private monopoly is intolerable," but none the less it stands for capitalism that alone makes private monopoly possible.

LOCAL LABOR NOTES.

The Highland lodge Iron and Steel Workers Saturday night elected Michael Kelley as a delegate of the meeting to the State Federation of Labor.

R. J. Quinn, a cigarmaker, who has been employed at Hegarty's cigar factory, Thursday of this week started in the business for himself at 1106 East Main street. This will be the eleventh cigar factory in Terre Haute at the present time and all of the eleven are union shops.

The committee in charge of the Labor Day preparations held a meeting at the C. L. U. hall Sunday, and by comparing notes it was found that all of the arrangements for the big event are moving along nicely and the indications are that the affair will by far surpass any former effort in the history of the day's observance.

A committee composed of Carl Ekmark and George Hampe will go before the Vincennes central body and officially extend the invitation for the labor forces of that city to come here. Carl Ekmark was elected grand marshal of the day.

Harry Hudson, aged 15, son of Charles L. Hudson of 2022 North Tenth street, foreman of the United States Scale company's plant at Seventh and the Vandalia railroad, and a popular union man, was drowned in the Wabash river about 9 o'clock Monday morning about a quarter of a mile south of Fort Harrison on the Terre Haute side of the river, where he was bathing with some other boys from the vicinity of Collett park.

Cigarmakers' Union met Monday night. An assessment of twenty-five cents was levied on each member to go to the aid of the striking Colorado miners.

MINES AND MINERS.

Harry Hargreaves, a coal miner of about 70 years old, was caught by a fall of slate at the Peerless mine, Coal Bluff, Tuesday, and sustained injuries which may prove fatal.

Mr. Guy E. Miller, of the Western Federation of Miners, has been furnished a credential to solicit aid for his organization among the mine workers of Indiana.

Owing to the refusal of the railroads to haul coal from the mines in Southern Indiana the Muncie Coal Company of Petersburg discharged 100 miners and closed the mines. The twenty-three mines operated within a radius of six miles of Petersburg are similarly affected.

President Boyle of the local Mine Workers' office, went to Jessup Monday, being called there by a disagreement between the owners of the mines and the miners.

Vice President Walters went to Montgomery Monday to settle a difficulty in the mine there. The trouble was adjusted.

The Island Valley mine at Jasonville has started work again pending the settlement by arbitration of the troubles which have been on there for some time.

John Crynes, a coal miner from Star City, was brought to Terre Haute early Wednesday morning and taken to St. Anthony's hospital. Crynes was injured while at work Tuesday afternoon by a mass of slate falling on his back and hips.

There is practically no change in the situation at the coal mines in Alabama, where seven thousand union miners are on a strike for a renewal of last year's wage scale. An operator claims that about 800 men are now working at the several mines of the furnace companies, on the "open shop" principle. The strikers are said to be receiving $10,000 per week from the national headquarters of the United Mine Workers at Indianapolis to aid them in their struggle.

The call for the district convention of district No. 14 has been issued by President Richardson and Secretary Gilmore. The convention will meet in Pittsburg, Kas. next Monday morning at the city hall auditorium. This convention will determine upon the local conditions at the mines, and prepare the district contract.

George Ballow and Toll Goulmaa were killed Wednesday at the Enterprise Hill mine at Bicknell. They were being lowered into the shaft when the rope broke and let them fall. Ballow was killed instantly and Goulmaa lived a short time.

THE TRICKY GROUSE.

He Has Hundreds of Devices For Eluding the Hunter.

The grouse has a hundred tricks of defense. It will lie still until the hunter is within a yard of it, then soar straight upward in his front, towering like a woodcock; again, it will rise forty yards away, and the sound of its wings is his only notice of its presence. It will cover upon a branch under which he passes, and his cap will be not more than a foot below it as he goes, and, though it has seen him approaching, it will remain quiescent in fear until his back is turned. It will rush then, and when he has slewed himself hurriedly around he will catch only a glimpse of a brown broad wing far away.

Wounded and falling in the open, it will be found—if it is found at all—with the telltale speckles of its breast against the trunk of some brown tree, against which its feathers are indistinguishable, and the black ruff about the neck of the male will be laid against the darkest spot of the bark. Often it will double like a fox; often as a man draws near it will spring noiselessly into some spruce and hide until he passes, dropping then to the ground and continuing its feeding; often, too, it will decline to take wing, though unhurt, and will run fast for half a mile—so fast that the most expert woodsman will be unable to keep pace with it. This it will only do on leafy ground and never when snow would betray its tracks.—Outing.

FEAT OF A MACGREGOR.

Wonderful Physical Strength That Was Used to Good Purpose.

Sir William MacGregor was the hero of such an adventure as one expects ordinarily to read about only in fiction of a certain hue.

The steamship Syria, with a lot of Indian coolies on board, struck on a rock about twelve hours from Suva, the capital of Fiji.

Dr. MacGregor, then acting colonial secretary, organized a relief expedition, clambered over a broken mast that was the only path to the emigrants and again and again returned with a man or woman on his back and sometimes a child, held by its clothes between his teeth.

A man of vast physical strength, MacGregor wanted it all for his final feat. Down below on the reef was a woman who had fallen overboard, had got at the spirits and was mad with drink. The captain of the ship and a police officer who had gone after her were being swept out to sea. MacGregor slid down a rope, caught the knot of the woman's hair in his teeth and with his hands seized the two men and dragged them both into safety. He went back to Suva in a borrowed suit of pajamas, having left all his clothes and a good deal of his skin on the coral reef.

Modest, like many heroes, MacGregor left himself out of his own report, and it was from the governor that the

THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN.
A special effort will be made to cover every part of the United States during the campaign, but it will require money to do it. The National campaign fund should be supported liberally. The demands upon the National office are unlimited, and only lack of resources prevents the utilization of all the speakers waiting to be put to work.

The National Campaign Fund can be materially augmented if the party locals, wherever possible, order their campaign literature, lithographs, buttons and other material from the National Headquarters. The prices upon the campaign material have been set as low as possible, so as to promote its circulation. The margin of profit is therefore small, but whatever there is goes into the campaign fund and directly assists the campaign.

So far the quality of campaign material being issued by the National Headquarters has met with universal approval. The leaflets are neatly gotten up and the lithographs and buttons have received an enthusiastic reception. A complete catalogue of all the campaign supplies is now ready and can be had from the National Secretary. All orders are promptly filled and comrades can do nothing better than push the sale and circulation of the party's publications.

NEW CAMPAIGN LEAFLET
Comrade A. M. Simons has written a four-page leaflet entitled "Which Party Should Workingmen Support?" which is being issued by the National Headquarters in style uniform with "The Mission of the Socialist Party" and the National Platform. The new leaflet is a concise statement of the attitude of the Republican and Democratic parties toward the workers and of the position of the Socialist party. Prices prepaid: 500 for 75c; 1,000 up to 5,000, $1.25 per 1,000; 5,000 and upwards, $1.15 per 1,000.

Additional engagements for Labor Day have been made as follows: James H. Brower, Janesville, Wis.; James F. Carey, Schenectady, N. Y.; Gertrude Breslau Hunt, Staunton, Ill.; Courtenay Lemon, Allentown, Pa.; Charles H. Towner, Bedford, Ind.

CAMPAIGN LITERATURE AND MATERIAL.
The National Secretary is prepared to furnish the following campaign literature to state committees, locals or individuals:
1. Leaflet (four pages) "Who Is Responsible for Anarchy in Colorado?" 2. "The Mission of the Socialist Party." 3. National Platform (newly adopted). Prices on each, 500 for 75c; 1,000 up to 5,000, $1.25 per 1,000; 5,000 and upwards $1.15 per 1,000. All prepaid. The Colorado leaflet is changed in price so that it can be sent prepaid, this being cheaper to buyers than when sent otherwise.

Booklet (sixteen pages) "What Workingmen's Votes Can Do," by Ben Hanford, "Speeches of Acceptance" of Debs and Hanford, both booklets being illustrated with cuts of the candidates. Prices on each prepaid: Single copy 5c; 3 for 25c; 30 for 90c; 50 for $1.10; 100 for $1.50; 200 for $2.25; 300 for $3; 500 for $4.25; 1,000 for $8.

National Platform in German: 500 for $1; 1,000 up to 5,000, $1.50 per 1,000; 5,000 and upwards, $1.25 per 1,000, prepaid. In Bohemian, 500 for $1.15; 1,000 up to 5,000, $1.75 per 1,000; 5,000 and upwards, $2.10 per 1,000. In Italian and French, 500 for 90c; 1,000 up to 5,000, $1.60 per 1,000; 5,000 and upwards, $1.45 per 1,000. All these prepaid.

Debs' "Unionism and Socialism" 10c each or 100 for $4, and Hanford's "Labor War in Colorado" 5c each, or 100 for $2.50, prepaid. The National Secretary has made arrangements with the Standard Publishing Co., Terre Haute, Ind., by which he can offer Eugene V. Debs' latest work, "The American Movement," at the same figures as the publishers, namely, 5 cents apiece or $2 a 100. "The American Movement" is an historic sketch of the Socialist movement in America, an exposition of its philosophy in brief form and an argument in support of its principles. It is well printed on good paper and is an excellent book to hand an interested enquirer about the movement.

The National Secretary is preparing to issue Comrade Debs' speech at the opening meeting of the campaign at Indianapolis in booklet form, uniform with "What Workingmen's Votes Can Do" and also "Speeches of Acceptance," but with 32 pages. The booklet will be ready September 2 and orders can be sent in to be filled on that date. Price 5 cents, $3 a 100, prepaid. Every Local should order at least 100 copies at once, and literary agents should order a supply, as there will doubtless be a demand for it.

The lithographs and buttons are now ready and orders can be filled in any quantities from the National Secretary. Combination (Debs and Hanford) and single (Debs) buttons come in two styles each. Prices are: Combination buttons 5c apiece; to party organizations 12 for 50c; 30 for $1; 100 up to 500 2c apiece; 500 up to 1,000 1 1/2c apiece; mail and express prepaid. To individuals, 1c apiece added on all orders over 25.

WILLIAM MAILLEY,
National Secretary.

STATE SOCIALIST NEWS.
The Result of Referendum on Actions of the Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 17, 1904.

Dear Comrades—Your former office secretary (now treasurer), Comrade Perry Wyatt, reports the following results on the referendum on the proceedings of the State Convention:

Table with columns: Exhibit, Yes, No. Exhibits I through X with corresponding vote counts.

The result is that all actions of the State Convention are approved; S. M. Reynolds is National Committeeman; and J. H. Arnold is fifth member of the State Executive Board. The total vote cast by different locals was as follows:

Table with columns: Local Name, Votes. Lists Elkhart, Solomons, Vincennes, etc.

Elkhart cast three votes against Exhibit 4, nine against No. 5, six against No. 6, ten against No. 7, and two against No. 8. Aurora cast one vote against Exhibit 5. All other votes were affirmative.

National Committeeman.
S. M. Reynolds 102

Fifth Member Executive Board.
J. H. Arnold 66
J. Cox 26
G. A. Gaines 18
J. Wittenbach 9

The two votes for Comrade Kunaugh for National Committeeman were received at Marion.

The vote for member of executive board was as follows:

Through a mistake in address, the Bluffton vote was not received in time to be tabulated. Their vote was as follows: Exhibit one, 6 yes; two, 6 yes; three, 6 yes; four, 6 yes; five, 6 yes; six, 5 yes, 1 no; seven, 2 yes 4 no; eight, 4 yes, 2 no; nine, 6 yes; ten, 6 yes; Reynolds, 4; Kunaugh, 1; Cox, 2; Gaines, 2; Wittenbach, 1. These additional votes do not change the results as announced.

Local Garrett should have been credited with 81 dues in the July report.

The Constitution and Platform being adopted, the State ticket approved, and a corps of party officers elected, it is now time for us to turn our every attention to the great campaign which is upon us.

Comrade Lewis is about to start in the center of the State on the circuit plan. Shall he stop with you?

Are you coming to hear Comrade Debs open the national campaign at Masonic Hall, Indianapolis, September 1st?

Push the county conventions. Observe Section 259 of the "Election Law," and file all county and township candidates with the county clerk within ten days after your convention a statement as to how much their nomination cost them! The observance of this law will be an education to the public as to our political methods. The old parties seldom keep this law. I am told.

Comrade Charles G. Towner will open in this state at Bedford on Labor Day. He is booked for Odon on September 8th and Terre Haute on September 24th and 25th. FREDERICK G. STRICKLAND, State Secretary.

FIFTH DISTRICT NOMINATES.

The Socialists of the Fifth congressional district met Sunday afternoon at the local headquarters on Ohio street, and placed a congressional ticket in the field. According to the report of the committee on credentials, three out of the seven counties were represented and twenty-one delegates responded from the three counties. Four delegates from Clay county, three from Vermillion and fourteen from Vigo, made up the convention.

William Mahoney of Terre Haute acted as temporary chairman. For the position of temporary secretary Ed Wallace of Clinton and John Adams of Brazil were placed in nomination. Adams was chosen by a vote of 11 to 8.

While the committee on credentials was at work Mrs. Ellis, one of the Vigo delegates, explained in a short talk that she had formerly been a republican, but had concluded that "women would only be emancipated through the socialists."

After the credentials committee had reported the convention was permanently organized by the selection by acclamation of Ed H. Evinger as chairman and John Adams as secretary.

When nominations for congress were asked for S. M. Reynolds was placed in nomination. Chairman Evinger said that he knew that Reynolds would not make the race and thought it useless to vote on him. The nomination was then withdrawn and William Mahoney was nominated by acclamation. In responding, Mr. Mahoney said he would work as hard for the party as ever. The national ticket and platform were then indorsed and the convention was declared adjourned.

At the close of the congressional session the delegates from Vigo and Vermillion counties convened for the purpose of nominating a candidate for joint senator and joint representative. Ed H. Evinger was chosen chairman and Ed Wallace secretary. Gomer James of Clinton was nominated for joint senator and Clarence E. Kingery, of Terre Haute for joint representative.

The three candidates nominated are wage workers. Mr. Mahoney is a printing pressman, Mr. James a coal miner and Mr. Kingery a cooper.

LOCAL SOCIALIST NOTES.

Comrade Cooney, a machinist who was passing through the city, spoke to a big crowd at Fifth and Main last Saturday evening.

Comrade Mahoney addressed the Sunday night meeting at the courthouse. These meetings will be held regularly and are gaining in popularity. Over 200 people attended last Sunday.

Tonight occurs the debate between Felix McWhirter, prohibition candidate for governor, and Fred Strickland, State Secretary of the Socialist Party. The meeting will be held at the south side of the courthouse.

The meeting to have been held at Burnett last Saturday was postponed until a future date.

Guy Lockwood addressed a big crowd at Fourth and Main streets Tuesday evening, and intended visiting West Terre Haute Wednesday evening, but the threatened rain caused that trip to be abandoned. Mrs. Lockwood's recitations and the answers to questions held the crowd until after 10 o'clock. The Lockwoods are touring the state in an automobile, which was won by Mrs. Lockwood in a subscription contest of Wilshire's Magazine. The daily press would not have discovered they were in town but for the fact that in trying to avoid running down a small child who ran from the sidewalk directly in front of the machine a colored woman was struck and slightly injured. This brought forth scare heads.

There will be the usual meetings at Fifth and Main Saturday night and at the courthouse Sunday night.

The Lockwoods went to Clinton Thursday and will make Brazil for Friday night.

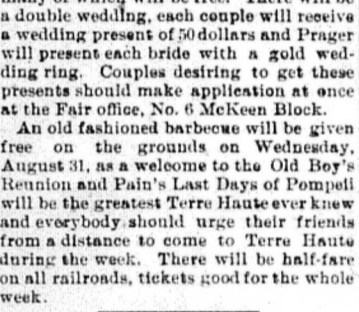

The Terre Haute Fair, Races, Carnival and Exposition opens Monday August 29, and lasts six days.

The managers have secured for the same week Pain's wonderful spectacular and pyrotechnic exhibition, "Last Days of Pompeii," which costs over $100,000 for the week, with one performance every night with the Manhattan Beach Fireworks, a display unsurpassed at any World's Fair.

The Terre Haute Fair will be by far the biggest ever seen on the famous fair grounds, which are to be beautifully decorated with electric illuminations at night. The halls will be full of displays and the grounds crowded with attractions many of which will be free. There will be a double wedding, each couple will receive a wedding present of 50 dollars and Prager will present each bride with a gold wedding ring. Couples desiring to get these presents should make application at once at the Fair office, No. 6 McKeen Block.

An old fashioned barbecue will be given free on the grounds on Wednesday, August 31, as a welcome to the Old Boy's Reunion and Pain's Last Days of Pompeii will be the greatest Terre Haute ever knew and everybody should urge their friends from a distance to come to Terre Haute during the week. There will be half-fare on all railroads, tickets good for the whole week.

THE TOMB OF CAIN.
It is Said to Be Not Far From the City of Damascus.
The early traditions concerning the city of Damascus are curious and interesting, even though untrustworthy and contradictory. By some of the ancient writers it was maintained that the city stands on or near the site of the garden of Eden, and just opposite there is a beautiful meadow of red earth from which, it is said, God took the material from which he created Adam. This field is called Ager Damascenus, and near its center there formerly stood a pillar which was said to mark the precise spot where our first parent was created. A few miles out there is an eminence called the Mountain of Abel, supposed by some to be the place where the first two brothers offered their sacrifices, also the spot where the first murder was committed. The most interesting spot pointed out, however, is about three leagues from the city, where an old ruin is shown which all the orient believes to be the tomb of Cain. The traditions respecting this famous spot are known to antedate the Christian era by several hundred years. Up to the time of Vespasian the interior of the tomb is said to have been lighted and warmed by one of the "ever burning" lamps so commonly used by the ancients.

Terre Haute Business Men Friendly to Union Labor

Bement, Rea & Co.

When we meet a concern like the above we are only too glad to give them the favorable mention that is theirs by right of long friendship with the cause of organized labor, and we feel that we are doing ourselves credit in the credit we give them. They are the large wholesale grocers located at 726 to 730 Wabash avenue.

No higher commendation can be given a firm than to say that they have always treated their employes with the utmost consideration and have been as careful of their rights as of their own, and in this instance this statement can be fearlessly made without danger of contradiction.

The members of this firm have taken a wide view of the cause of the wage earner and have extended a helping hand toward our advancement.

We are pleased to have this firm on our friendly list, and the support to be extended them is a full recognition of the widespread popularity of the members of the concern among the hosts of union men in this district.

Frank Conrath & Co.

Honorable mention should be given to this concern, situated at 323 Wabash avenue, as this is an enterprise deserving of mention in every sense of the word. One of the causes of the present existence of affairs between capital and labor is due to the common sense, impartial, fair and just attitude exhibited by such firms as the subject we are now considering.

The proprietors are most exemplary gentlemen. The success of this enterprise is due to the efficient management of this large business, which is not only most favorably known in our city, but throughout the state.

We recommend most heartily this firm to our workmen as reliable in all cases, and as friends of conservative organized labor. Under the present management this firm is sure to make most rapid progress, and they certainly have our good will and co-operation.

This concern handles only the best in the line of boots and shoes, and our members have found every purchase here entirely satisfactory.

Downing & Fuqua.

We have already touched upon a number of the important resources of our progressive city in which both capital and labor are involved on a large scale. There is still another great branch of industry which is well represented here by the above firm, which conducts a large and extensive carriage, buggy and wagon business, located at 29 North Fourth street. They carry an immense line of stock. Upon careful investigation we find that the company's attitude toward its employes is manifestly fair and considerate, and the company bears a most excellent reputation among the thousands of organized workmen in this city and throughout the state.

We take pleasure in placing the name of this concern among the leading concerns of our city, who can always be depended upon as friendly to labor.

J. R. Duncan & Co.

It being essential to our success as unionists to foster and encourage to the fullest extent a deserving enterprise which is not antagonistic to our cause, we take pleasure in calling attention to the large business of the above concern located at 660-662 Wabash Avenue, and which is a splendid example of an up to date concern and one which should receive the hearty support and encouragement of all citizens.

This business is established upon a most solid and substantial basis, and has grown in prestige and popularity since the date of its inception.

Mr. J. B. Aikman who directs the interests of this concern can always be depended upon to be fair and reasonable in his attitude toward labor and the cause of labor.

J. R. Duncan & Co. are wholesale and retail dealers in paper and stationery. We are pleased to give this company honorary mention.

National Cash Register Company.

Our friendly list would indeed be incomplete if special mention were not made of The National Cash Register Company, which enters largely into the commercial makeup of this city, and is known wherever civilization has extended. The output of this institution is well and favorably known, and everywhere their product is looked upon as the standard of excellence.

The affairs of this gigantic industry in Terre Haute are under the efficient management of A. E. Harles, sales agent, who has been in business so long as to have established a most reputable reputation.

The attitude of Mr. Harles towards labor has always been of the most friendly nature, and it has upon many occasions done much for our cause.

Adolph Arnold.

We are desirous of calling the attention of organized labor to the fact that Adolph Arnold the well known and popular gent's clothier and furnisher has always felt very kindly toward the labor movement, and we in turn should patronize him, thus aiding to make this commendable firm a greater and more splendid success.

We unhesitatingly commend him to the favor of the labor masses, knowing full well that your interest will be well looked after.

He has built up a large patronage by his progressive methods and strictly honorable dealings with all. He is located at 483 Wabash Ave.

Mr. Arnold has a host of union friends who wish him well.

THE purpose of an edition of this character is to present a carefully prepared list of concerns and individuals who evidence an interest in the cause of organized labor. By their appearance in this issue their sentiment is expressed. It is also a proper recognition of appreciated patronage of the union man and his family. It is therefore proper that the firms that are here given space and honorable mention should receive the support and patronage due them for their manifest interest in this Annual Review.

The Terre Haute Trust Company.

Nothing is of greater importance in the promotion of the commercial and industrial welfare of any city than the possession of first-class banking facilities. In this respect, Terre Haute enjoys an unsurpassed position, the city being one of the foremost banking centers in this section and the home of banks of the soundest and best quality. Real property of the individual does not depend so much upon the amount he earns as upon the amount he saves. While endeavoring to better our conditions by means of legislation, we should see to it that the wages we are now receiving bring the greatest amount of good. Workingmen will do well to place their money where it will be absolutely safe and at the same time draw a rate of interest consistent with sound business principles. The policy of this bank is progressive, yet conservative, two principles that insure success and demand the confidence of the public. Prompt and courteous attention is extended to customers and most liberal inducements are offered consistent with conservative banking. The officers of this institution have always been identified with any effort to advance the well-being of wage earners.

Unanimously the gentlemen directing this institution have always been the friends, tried and true, of laboring men. The cause has every right to feel proud of such a friendship, and in turn should patronize this institution whenever possible.

The movement which has been started to throw the combined support and patronage of our members to such institutions and concerns that have been placed on our friendly list applies especially to The Terre Haute Trust Company. This company pays 4 per cent on deposits, and its large capital, surplus and liability of stockholders (over $200,000) make it perfectly safe.

The officers of this institution are: I. H. C. Royle, president; James S. Royle, vice president; Frank C. White, secretary. The directors are men of substantial business qualifications, and they are among our foremost citizens. We wish to have our members extend this company a united support.

New York Shoe Co.

The publication of our friendly list would indeed be incomplete if special mention were not made of the New York Shoe Co. under the management of Clarence E. Kirk, which enters largely into the commercial makeup of this city. The product of this institution is well and favorably known and everywhere their output is looked upon as the standard of excellence.

The attitude of this company towards labor has always been of the most friendly nature, and it has upon many occasions done much for our cause.

We would urge all union men to give their united support and co-operation in every way possible, and aid in making it still greater success.

This company by its attitude is friendly to organized labor and treats this question with the utmost fairness and consideration.

In extending to this concern our hearty support and co-operation, we feel that we are but showing that spirit of reciprocity that is due to all who treat the question of labor with reason and a just consideration of the issues involved.

Mr. Kirk is well known to most all members. This concern is located at 681 Wabash Avenue. They carry only the best standard makes and will appreciate the support to be extended them.

D. E. Chopson & Co.

We have in our midst a number of representative business firms. There are none more deserving of the hearty patronage and support of the thousands of union men than the splendid establishment of D. E. Chopson & Co., the well-known china, glass and queensware firm, located at 319-321 Wabash Avenue.

The establishment has, since the date of its inception, advanced along progressive lines and become exceedingly popular with organized workmen in Terre Haute because of its fair and honorable manner of dealing, and the splendid attitude which the firm has always taken towards labor. The management has proven itself to be thoroughly conscientious, straightforward and broad-minded, loyal to our city and courteous in the highest degree to its employes and workmen generally. This concern has received a full endorsement.

James M. Dishon.

In the movement started among our working people to give their combined support to institutions whose relations with both labor and the public are fair and just, we desire to call attention to the gentleman mentioned above. After careful investigation we find that this enterprise has never been the least antagonistic to labor, and has indeed upon many occasions manifested a friendly interest in the cause, and is entitled to the co-operation of all those who have the best interests of our city at heart.

This gentleman, through careful and honorable business methods, has built up a large and substantial patronage which is a tribute to his ability and integrity. We wish Mr. Dishon an era of ever increasing patronage and popularity. He is the popular city bill poster located at 29 South Fifth street.

Mr. Dishon's success has resulted from a study of methods that please his patrons. In all his dealings he has invariably secured his business from painstaking effort

McKeen & Co.

Our city has excellent reasons to feel proud of its leading financial establishments. Prominent among these is McKeen & Co., located at 530 Wabash Avenue. This company has by fair and honorable business methods built up a large business, and is a credit to the city. Its record upon all matters pertaining both to labor and the public is of the highest grade.

The management is composed of citizens who are well known for their fair and friendly attitude toward labor. Their employes receive good compensation for their work, and are treated with justice and consideration.

This firm is unquestionably worthy of support, and the union men of the city will make no mistake in extending McKeen & Co. their hearty co-operation. We cheerfully make honorable mention of them. This firm is one of the oldest in this district.

The officers of this institution are Wm. R. McKeen, Frank McKeen and S. Crawford McKeen. The proprietors are men who are interested actively in the development and progress of our city.

Reiman & Steeg Co.

The history of the labor movement shows that it has advanced step by step, each succeeding year bringing improved conditions. There are many causes which have aided and are still aiding in bringing about these improved conditions. One of the most prominent reasons for this advancement is the fact that influential concerns which are important factors in the growth of cities have extended their support and encouragement. The above firm, for example, located at 901-903 Wabash Avenue, has always shown a disposition to be fair and reasonable in their attitude towards labor, and in their extensive business have never done anything which would tend to be a drawback to the cause of labor or the purpose of good government.

In fact, the members of this concern have been ever ready and willing to lend their best assistance to the furtherance of any conservative movement.

They are well known to our members as dealers in all kinds of building material.

Leon B. Silverman.

Organized labor should foster and encourage to the fullest extent such establishments as are friendly to the cause and which are to be depended on to aid in furthering any conservative movement. In glancing over a carefully prepared list of these enterprises we are pleased to note that the name of Leon B. Silverman located at 1125-1127 Wabash Avenue, come under this head. No establishment of its particular kind is better or more favorably known to our citizens than that of the one above mentioned.
