WASHINGTON STATE CONVEN-TION.

Enthusiastic and Successful Gathering
—Delegates to National Unity Convention Selected—This Paper Endorsed and All Comrades Urged to Support It—Series of Splendid Resolutions — New State Committee

The second annual convention of the Social Democratic party of the state of Washington was leld at the head-quarters, 220 Union Treet. Seattle, on Sanday, June 30th. The business before it was the election of a new state committee, the election of a degrate to the unity convention, at Indianapolis, July 20th, and such a declaration of principles and policies as the present occasion demands.

It is an off year with no election party organizations are dormant, and little interest would naturally be looked for.

tendance was shown now than one year ago, when the party was newly formed, a national election in view and party nominations for state and national officers to be made. Some 200 national officers to be made. Some 200 votes were cast on important questions and delegates were present from Port Angeles, Fairhaven, Whatcom, Bay View, Equality, Arlington, Granite Falls, Everett, Seattle, Renton, Tacoma, Buckley, Olympia, Aberdeen, Spokane and Walla Walla. The utmost harmony and enthusiasm were manifest throughout the long sessions both morning and afternoon.

The momentous question of repre-sentation in national unity conven-tion was discussed most warmly. At one time it was voted to send two dele-gates to Indianapolis, but this action was reconsidered on the ground of conomy.

gates to Indianapolis, but this action was reconsidered on the ground of economy.

The two candidates for this honor, A. G. Seibert of Seattle and E. Lux of Whatcom, each offered $50 toward his own expenses. The treasurer reported $31 on hand. Comrade Langland, of Fairhaven, started a lively rivalry by offering $5 toward the needed funds. In less time than it can be written the comrades poured in their contributions till $4g was raised. This was accomplished so spontaneously and unexpectedly that one of the comrades was interrupted in the midst of his speech and had to wait till the boys had satisfied their desire to give before he could proceed, 5The convention then instructed the ktate committee to appropriate $75 toward the expenses of the delegate. This with his own $50 makes ample provision.

A brisk contest was held between Conrades Lux and Seibert for the high-honor of representing the great state of Washington at this memorable-mity convention, which will stand as a landmark in the Socialist history of the United States.

It was a close contest, too, but Lux

TO THE MACHINISTS

Resolution by the Social Democratic Convention of Washington, June 30, 1901.

The members of the convention take this public opportunity to express their sympathy with the striking machinists throughout the country in their strug-gle for a nine-hour day and better con-ditions of life and urge upon all work-ers to all them. gie for a mine-hour day and better con-ditions of life and urge upon all work-ers to aid them in every way possible and stand by them to the last. But while doing everything in our power to help our brothers win their just fight, we, in the light of past experi-ence, cannot overlook the fact that the fight, when won, must ever be repeated at great trouble and expense. And we wish to point out that the capitalists have a great advantage of agait, when won, mist ever be repeated at great trouble and expesses. And we wish to point out that the capitalists have a great advantage over the wage workers, from the fact that they own the factories, they own she mines, in short, they own everything by which all men must live, and the trouble that organized labor encounters in the conflicts with their employers is due entirely to this private ownership of the means of life, and, brother machinists, we believe that the struggle that you are now engaged in against combined capital will go a long way to teach the strikers that in order to get the full results of your labor, you must become the owners of the means by which you may employ yourselves, and to that end you should join with the Socialist party, the party of the working class, in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the state, and putting your own class; in capturing the political power of the capital state of the few masses of broaden ownership of all the means of product ownership of all the means of the power of the state.

So, again, we call upon you to join the Socialist movement, bury the wage system, that is alone responsible for this annoying and recurring fight, and hand in hand with all the workers of the world vote in a system of peace and plenty, the co-operative common-wealth.

The noble, temperate, determined fight put up by the machinists is telling on all classes.

The strikers have committed no excess. They simply exercised their right not to work more than nine hours a day, and have succeeded in holding all their fellow-workers in line. Bullies like Billy Moran hay fried to excite them to violence, but to no, avail.
They have shown the high intalligence that belongs to the machinists as a class in their wise conduct of this con-class in their was common than other test.

They demand no more than other trades have had for years—simply a nime-hour day instead of ten hours. Everybody can see that that is fair, and the public is only astonished to learn that such a high class of mechanics have been kept so long at the old-time ten-hour day.

that such a high class of mechanics have been kept so long at the old-time ten-hour day.

The public is also discovering the true cause of the delay in settlement. It is being seen that what The Social-st claimed weeks ago is perfectly true, namely, that the Moran company is the stubborn and selfish cause of this long unsettled strike, a company which is a beneficiary from Seattle to the extent of one hundred thousand oldlars. This company could settle the strike with one word.

The National Metal Manufacturers Association leaves this question of hours and wages to each locality to settle for itself. Therefore the Seattle firms can grant the strikers' demands if they so choose. And they would so choose if Morans said the word.

mands it they so choose. And they would so choose if Morans said the word.

We therefore charge upon the Morans the responsibility of all this injury to Scattle's business and trade.

The simple truth is, the Morans are not injured by the delay, they have very little work to do, they are not yet ready to work on their battleship contract, they are driving piles and building shops, and can wait a month or two yet. Therefore the public good be dammed. Let all the other shops be closed and business come to a standistill. They are not injured a little bit. But the public is getting its eyes opened. And the machinists' victory is in sight. If it were not; the mighty power of united labor in this city stands waiting the proper time for action, like a giant that knows its strength. Labor has only to speak the word and every wheel in Scattle must stop as dead.

Rather than suffer any arm of the great body of labor to be unjustly

One of Vail's Stories: An old dea-com used to boast of his orthodoxy. He was always saying: "I'm establish-ed, I tell ye; I'm established." One day the deacon's mule balked at the plow. Nothing could move that mule. "Wonder what's the matter with the beast," exclaimed the sweating deacon. "Reckon he's established, dad." piped his irreverent son. And that's what's the matter with a good many work-ingmen who won't listen to Socialist argument.

been abundantly rewarded with bug audiences and converts to Socialism.

The best testimony to Vail's success is the silence of the capitalist press. They do not say a word. In Seattle, even The Star, which boasts it is "the only paper which dares to print this socialist news. Neither it nor, the Republican P-1, nor the Democratic Times had so much as a sullable about cittler the Germania Hall meeting on Wednesday night or the Odd Fellows Hall meeting, on Sinday night. Yet from the fatter fitterally hundreds went away unable to gain admittance.

Nothing displays the essential oneness of the capitalist press like this "Consprisey of sience." They will all be anti-Socialist whenever the time comes—what yet of the capitalist press like this "Consprisey of sience." They will all be anti-Socialist whenever the time comes—what yet.

but when it comes to the only fight that can really befriend the workingman, namely, the fight against capital as such, The Stars and The Suns and all other capitalist luminaries become black as midnight all together.

This same Star even refused to publish one of our notices of Vail's speeches beforehand, though The Times was wier. But they all agreed not to report a word of what the national organizer of the Social Democratic party of the United States said to great audiences of workingmen in Seattle.

A Single Taxer or a Populist would have been reported in full. But those are waning causes and innocuous at the best.

We hear some people think The Socialist is making money out of its advertising. Now, the sad truth is as follows: Only in the last two months have we been able to pay expenses. We are now in arrears some two hundred dollars, which a few of us have advanced. No one gets any salary not a red cent. In May we came out ahead about five dollars and in June a little better, probably. But that two hundred dollars arrears is a heavy burden on men who have nothing. Watch our treasurer's report, if you want to see where every dollar goes, and comes from. And if any of you can spare a few dollars or cents, send it along and we will send you subscription cards for the full amount. Then you can dispose of them to help spread the knowledge of Socialism.

Education.

I made five speeches on this trip, two at Vancouver, the center of the Fraser river salmon industry a two at Vancouver, the center of the Fraser river salmon industry a two at Vancouve, the great coal unting center, and one at Victoria, the capital. At Vancouver the book had secured Labor Hall, formerly a Methodist church, now the labor mino bead; quarrers, for the first night, and 85 cialist Hall for the second night. The latter was full of carnest, intelligent, enthusiastic workingmen, including the leaders of the fishermen's minors. This "Socialist Hall" was built a year ago by the Socialists themselves for their own use. "Seriji was issued in payment for labor done good for dues to the organization. Allan Boag, a good Scotchman and staunch Socialists, has his machine shop beneath and is in clarge of the headquarters.

As far as known this is the first Socialists Hall built and owned by the Socialists themselves in America.

Ower combination, this Nanaimo coal company! The company itself collects the dues of the Miner's Union, keeping each man's dues out of his wages, put like the dues for the doctors supplied by the company.

And Rajah Smith is a queer combination, too. He's a genius of reconditation between capital and labor. Ralph Smith is secretary and generalisation of the Miners' Union of Nanaimo. He is also president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and a member of the Dominion parliament, elected last year from the Nanaimo district. For six years before that he was a member of the provincial legislature.

Another queer fact, Ralph Smith was supported for parliament by Mr. Robbins, superintendent and part owner of the New Vancouver Coal Mining Company, notwithstanding the fact that Ralph Smith was supposed to be running on an independent labor ticket.

The Cauadian Trades and Labor Congress passed a resolution favoring independent political action by the workingmen of Canada. Ralph Smith is president of this congress. Yet when he ran for parliament he was elected by the efforts and money of the N. V. C. Co.

Query—How was it to the interests of the coal company to support an independent labor party candidate?

That's a question the miners of Nanaimo are asking themselves, and the answer is making Socialists.

Another queer thing in Nanaimo!

The Nanaimo Herald was started by the Miners' Union, to be the organ of labor. A few months ago the miners were startled to receive a circular signed by Dr. McKechnie, the company physician, and others equally the miner's friends, requesting them, to take-stock in a new company which proposed to issue The Herald as a daily? This was too transparent, however, and the union withdraw its support from the paper, which is now a labor paper run by capital, a coal miner's paper run by the coal company. The fact is, the independent Labor party of British Columbia is a tool of the capitalists to side track the real labor party represented by the Socialists.

taking party represented by the Socialists.

No real labor party will ever be supported by the capitalists. The capitalists know on which side their bread is buttered, and Ralph Smith and all his kind are simply butter on capitalist.

is buttered, and Kappa Smith and air his kind are simply butter on capitalist bread.

One fact was made clear to the audiences which gathered in the Opera House at Namaino last Saturday and Smiday nights, namely, that every miner works about two hours a day for his wages and then works the other six hours for nothing, and that he has to do it or get out.

That's the Socialist fight—that the capitalist shall not rob the laborer of two-thirds of his labor, and so get rich by unpaid labor.

It was this fact made plain to the Namaino audience that drew the fire of the lindependent Labor party leaders the first night I spoke there.

Capital will never support any candidate that stands for that principle. Why not? Because capital knows which side its bread is buttered.

The Independent Labor side has good thick Smith butter for Supt. Robbins and his company, but the Socialist side has no butter at all for the company, but the richest, thickest, sweetest butter for the workingman himself. Workingmen, don't you know, too, which side your bread is buttered?

The Socialists in Nanaimo are a wide awake energotic but and they

The Socialists in Nanaimo

The Socialists in Nanaimo are a wide awake, energetic lot, and they, too, will be heard from and Nanaimo miners will soon combine their forces in one overwhelming Socialist vorthat will stagger the few capitalists in the province. There is no large political unit on the American continent so favorably situated to win the first Socialist victory as the province of British Columbia, in the Dominion of Canada.

Victoria.

Victoria.

The Socialists in Victoria are not yet conscious their political opportunities. They have heretofore been disposed to pursue an educational rather than a political campaign. They live in a conservative business community, very different from Vancouver and Nanaimo.

In official and business circles Victoria is more English than England, slower than slow. Canadian and American enterprise meet English conservatism on every hand, in Victoria. But there are many workingmen here, too, who see that capital is a robber. They only need to find each other out and to unite politically. Charlton and Hodges and Stowe and the rest will soon get into local the control of t

Dark as all the world's doings were to him he held tenacions by to one settled conviction. "A different order of things was about to take place, and in must be ushered in by war. "No, not asleep, I've just been meditating on the possibility of war."
"War is an awful word, Abram. I hope you're not looking for such serious trouble as that."
"Well, I dumo, there's a big trust founded which has turned hundreds out of work and is already raising the price of materials. Folks tell me this is only the beginning and that in the twentieth century everything will be cornered by the trust. Such being the presidents of these trusts may become unserupulous masters, and the workman will have about as much chance of redress as the poor negroes used to have in the South. With these soulless trusts and a government to support their every inhuman demand what can the end be—but wag?"
John listend open-mouthed at these carnest declarations, and as Abram elongently paused, he exclaimed, "You're right. By the Lord Harry, I believe you are right, but upon what ground will the working people arise?"

SGES BY EVENTS, NOT BY PROGRAM. The builders of Utopias have looked as new order of things, first by the againstion of men and then by the spalisation of industry afterwards. That is taking place seems to reverse this process. First comes the organization of industry which in turn is fast changing the social structure. It is the result of events and not according to any doctrine or prearranged program that the change is coming, as indeed all great changes have come.

all great changes have come.

It is noteworthy that now, while these great changes are taking place, little is heard about the dangers that such events were once thought to bring with them. Dangers there may be. But there is much consolation in two thoughts—first, that no active man would return to the primitive conditions that preceded the era of gread or gazinization; and second, that we have not yet gone far enough in this new era to have data for final conclusions. Most of our old-time economic and so-ciological theories are perishing. But Most of our old-time economic and so-ciological theories are perishing. But practical men now cheerfully run the risk of wreck which they used to be told lay in this direction—so much more pewerful is achievement than all he theories that ever were propounded. Whatever economic and social dangers may be before us—and no main can deny that they may be before us—the fact of the greatest present impact fact of the greatest present import-ance is that no man or set of men has power to reverse or seriously to modify power to reverse or seriously to modify the course of economic events. The only state-manship or philosophy that is worth a momen's thought is that which seeks to guide, not that which seeks to obstruct. Moreover, it must take as its data the forces that are now at work, not the imaginary forces of pre-ceding conditions.—The World's Work.

Ballard, Wash., June 25, 1901. The Workingman's Paper, 114 Virginia Street, Seatle, Wash.

DEAR SIR: I left McMurray, Wash... to come to Ballard on the 17th inst. Will you please send my dear Socialist paper here! I miss the June 23d paper swfully.

Very respectfully yours,
P. A. B.

A few days ago, while passing the police station, I saw an old gentleman, police station, I saw an old gentleman, who from his appearance was wearing the century mark, shoved in the patrol wagon and taken to the poor house. His appearance also indicated that he had been a hard worker, and his days of usefulness being over he could not be exploited with profit to his capitalistic masters. So in the name of sweet charfty hejwas taken to the poor house. I have heard that old age is honorable. The he was diven to this home in a charity he was taken to the poor house. I have beard that old age is honorable. True he was driven to this home in a carriage and pair. So are the thief, the crook and prostitute. Workingmen what assurance have you that when old age overtakes you, you may not get this same medicine! Why not use this same medicine? Why not use your ballot to overthrow a system which permits an old worn out wealth, preducer to end his life in an institu-tion kept up by what is called public charity, while non-producers live in luxury on the products of his toil?

Some of the industrial masters as-sert that capital is one of the necessary factors in the production of wealth. If some of these wiseacres would look up the meaning of capital and study the political results of its use they would know more and talk less, or talk to

The Democratic politicians propose to punish the negro for his ignorance by distranchising him, and their Re-publican allies defend this course. May publican allies detend this course. Many I ask why is the negro ignorant? Did not the Democratic party use its power to keep the negroes in ignorance?

Socialists Seek to Unite Workingmen, the Church Seeks to Divide Them.

The Church Defends Capital of Course

A while ago the Pope published his Encyclical against Socialism. Now he follows it up with organizing anti-Socialist and scab workingmen's Associations. Capital in its fight against labor is endowing universities to train young men to defend it, and it also enlists the services of religious organizations to keep the rising proletariat in subjection

The Church is dependent upon capitai to pay its expenses, and hence must do its bidding.

Read this dispatch from Rome

ROME, June 22.—An interesting experiment is being tried in Italy with the cordial approval of Pope Leo. It is the establishment of Leagues of Cathalic Workingmen and the the war cry is "Freedom of action and the right to work." The Leagues are pri-marily anti-socialistic, because nine out of ten strikes in Italy are fomented by of ten strikes in Italy are fomented by extremists. The Leagues are already at work in Rome, Genoa, Milan, Turin and Venice and the Socialists are greatly puzzled how to meet this pow-erful organization which has truly a democratic base.

One of the earliest victories achieved by the Catholic Workingmen has been at Genoa, where they pluckily took the places of the striking coal heavers the piaces of the striking coal heavers and remained at work in spite of threat-ened and actual violence. The Gov-ernment, however, is looking a-kance at the new industrial movement as be-ing likely to give the clericals a weapon for political use.

The Accumulated Capital of Recent Decades is Greater than During All the Preceding Periods of Histor Astounding Results of Modern Machinery in Creating a Surplus for Investment and Exploitation A Revolution in Human Conditions

That the wealth of the world is increasing at an astonishing rate is evi-dent from the growth in various forms of fixed capital and the large overflow of fixed capital and the large overflow of surplus savings into the undeveloped countries. The wealth of the United States is computed every ten years from census returns. The total wealth in 1856 was put at $7,135,780, 225 or $308 per capita, and in 1870 at $30,008,515,007 or $750 per capita. This amount rose in 1880 to $43,542, 500,000,000 r870 per capita, and again in 1890 to $65,037,061,197, or $1,036 per capita. Expert statisticians estimate that the amount for 1900 will be at least $90,000,000,000,00 reacity $1,200 per capita. per capita per capita.

These great accumulations of capital, seeking investment where it can be found on most profitable terms, afford the reason for the great outburst of colonial activity by the leading nations of Europe and the interest which is beginning to be shown by the great Powers in protecting their national investors wherever they go and in using all the resources of diplomacy and arms for securing free markets, for goods and open fields for capital in China and other developed countries. The rapidother developed countries. The rapid-ity with which surplus capital has in-creased within the last generation, and especially within a few years, finds ex-planation in the ratio which this capita ears to previous accumulations. Civ bears to previous accumulations. Civilized people have always managed after a fashion, except in periods of failing crops or other abnormal disasters, to provide their food, clothing and shelter from their current labor. When the use of labor saving devices permitted saving beyond what was required for these subjects, the surplus become available for other uses. In a sense, everything saved above what was become available for other uses.
sense, everything saved above what was necessary to sustain civilized life in its simplest form might be held to represent the samplest form investment in sent surplus capital for investment in labor saving machinery. The law, which explains the phenomenal growth in the forms of surplus capital seeking investment indicates why the increas in this surplus will be rapid and strik in the surplus will be rapid and strik-ing in the years to come, as all forms of machinery increase in efficacy and the accumulated savings of previous generations become available for in-creasing the producing power of the generation on the stage.—C. A. Conant in The World's Work.

Patriotism Not Ethical.

Patriotism erects barriers between ratiotism every parties exween different sections of the great horizon family, and establishes a kind of hattional caste. Considered in regard to the world as a whole, it is anti-social. It introduces a discriminating factor, and thus has the effect of dwaring symmetry. and all has the elect of dwaring sym-pathy, and fostering a natural tendency which requires checking rather than accuraging. In-tinct, association, the accident of birth, all incline us to take a narrow view of mankind; and patri-otism confirms and strengthens this in-clination, and circumscribes the con-ception of brotherhood.

When two nations engage in war, al-though it is impossible they can both be in the right, and it is possible that both are in the wrong, patriotism pro-claims each to be in the right. My claims each to be in the right. My patriotism declares my country's cause is just; my enemy's patriotism declares his country's cause is just. And, pa-triotism being regarded as a virtuous sentiment, the battlefield presents the astounding spectacle of immorality doing its very worst in the name of doing its very worst in the name of morality.

The sentiment of patriotism perverts the whole moral sense. That which under any other name would be mon-strously criminal becomes, when dis-guised as patriotism, virtuous and noble. In the name of patriotism right becomes n the name of patriotism right becomes wrong and wrong right, and the vices which we would be most ready to condemn in others are, in the name of patriotism, transformed into virtues in ourselves, and those virtues which we should most readily applaud if practiced by ourselves, become vices when prac-ticed by the people of another nation. —J.
