TO CELEBRATE TWO ANNIVERSARIES

During the week beginning March 18 the Socialists of the world will celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of the Paris Commune. By a coincidence the first anniversary of the publication of The Socialist in Toledo falls upon March 17, the issue being No. 285.

Articles suitable for the occasion have been requested from Comrades Eugene V. Debs, George D. Herron, Ben Hanford, Arthur Morrow Lewis, Algoner Lee, John Spargo, Frank Cross, Harold Hill, and other well known Socialist writers.

We have never disappointed our readers with our special editions. We have always filled every promise, no matter what the cost.

On account of the additional number of pages it will not be possible to make a reduced rate for this issue and the usual rate will prevail, viz. 10c to 50 copies, 3 cents apiece; 100 to 1000 copies, 2 cents apiece; 1000 to 5000 copies, 1 cent apiece; 5000 to 10000 copies, 1/2 cent apiece.

Party News

English, Louis Werner in German; G. Sylvester in Italian; J. B. White in Spanish; and J. Novak in Bohemian. Owing to the fact that Old City Hall was destroyed by the Socialists of that city could not hold their meeting on January 21 as planned.

A collection of $2.75 was taken and has been sent to Dr. Maxim Romm in New York. The next application for membership was received which it favorably acted on with bringing present membership to 99. A large number of the evening was the presentation of a number of resolutions rendered the "Marseillaise" and one or two other stirring selections in their native tongue.

To reach the foreign population the Local has invested a quantity of pamphlets in Dutch and in Polish and has started distributing same where it will do the most good.

The Local has just installed at their street entrance a large white translucent globe with street numbers in front and in the inscription, "Socialist Hall" on either side, which makes it easier for seekers after economic truth to find the location of the fountain.

The Local has sent to State Secretary the nomination of Comrade Philip Single of Detroit as Vice Chairman of the Committee and would ask for his endorsement at their next meeting.

PENNSYLVANIA State Secretary, Robert B. Ringler, 347 Spruce street, Reading. Two new applications for charters were made in the city of Reading, Pa. One in New Castle and one in Shippensburg.

The Philadelphia "Bloody Sunday" meeting was a great success. A collection of $937 was taken, the expenses were about $300.00. The balance of $637.00 will be sent to the Philadelphia office.

Reform Socialism and Revolutionary Socialism

That means, in a year's time of 300 days, the U. S. Steel Corporation receives Property which the workers have produced and which they were paid nothing, to the amount of Thirty Millions.

This is on the basis of one dollar a day. If the wages are two dollars a day, the Unpaid Labor will be 60 millions a year. Both these estimates are on the basis of the unpaid labor being exactly equal to the paid labor.

"OVERLOOKED"

The letter printed below was solicited from Eugene V. Debs in behalf of the "Christian Herald" for its special Thanksgiving issue.

My dear Sir, - Answering your inquiry of recent date I have to say that from my point of view the world in general and American people in particular have caused to be overlooked.

Each passing day brings nearer the end of capitalist misrule and nearer the reign of freedom and righteousness. The International Socialist Movement with its more than eight millions of loyal adherents, joining hands around the globe, all unite in anthems of praise and thanksgiving at the night of capitalism is nearly gone.

COMRADES OF THE REVOLUTION

By Kate Brownlee Sherwood. Comrades of the Revolution, in the name of the people, we demand that you should be just to the oppressed.

Comrades, freedom sends you greetings and bids you repeat: Comrades, where the knights are dying, the world is not yet awake.
